Today

900 Lessons for Farmers From Salt to Typewriters No White Dogs Burned A Word From Albany

By Arthur Brisbane

SYRACUSE, N. Y., April 18—This city, built on seven hills, in the ancient manner, and planted with trees that make the whole city green in summer, sets an example to farmers that concentrate on one crop, wheat, cotton, or other.

Syracuse produces more than nine hundred industrial crops, nine hundred different articles. When one or a dozen are not in active demand, the others are.

Syracuse, once known as the "City of Salt," lost that industry 20 years ago. Many others have taken its place, and Syracuse might now be called "The Typewriter City." The L. C. Smith, Remington, Corona plants are here. Millions made in typewriters are invested in fine buildings of the Syracuse University. Providence works mysteriously.

From here the John Deere Plow Works ship goods to Russia, as do many other Syracuse factories. Some complain that Russians buy a few samples, then do their own manufacturing.

The Franklin automobile factory covers many acres and is highly prosperous. General Motors has a big plant here, making "rear ends," differentials, exclusively.

Syracuse has 32 parks, 26 playgrounds, also important industries manufacturing health and future efficiency.

In certain lines Syracuse dominates the country, manufacturing, for instance, three-quarters of all wax candles for churches and funerals produced in America. They must contain at least 51 per cent beeswax, and 5,000,000 pounds of wax come from Brazil, Mexico, Africa, the best from Mexico.

Syracuse is third in production of tool steel, and its Dieta Company is the nation's biggest maker of lanterns, the old kind that farmers carry through mud to the barn. This is the "home" of klim dried milk, and "None Such mince meat," that has added joy to millions of Christmas dinners. You have eaten it.

Hiawatha belongs to Syracuse. The poet used his license translerring him to the falls of Minnehaha, near Minneapolis. He really lived and died here, starting in his white birch bark canoe for the land of the hereafter from Onondaga Lake, right here. He was the chief of the Five Nations, a fine Indian.

The five nations have increased to six and live, close by, on the Onondaga reservation. Their "prime minister," Jesse Lion, plays a good game of baseball and lacrosse, also plays in the Indian band. The six nations are reduced to six hundred individuals, women and children included. Joshua Jones is their chief.

New York state, which once was their property, gives to each Indian eight perks of salt per year. Uncle Sam, who seized their continent, gives every year to each of the Onondagas 10 yards of cloth. That's all they get, except the right to live in wretched little houses on a small reservation. They make some money in the city as garbage men, and at other work.

The Onondagas keep up their ancient tribal religious celebrations, the corn dance and other dances.

They need dentists, not a good set of teeth on the reservation. Sickness, tuberculosis and worse diseases that white men brought will soon wipe them out.

One old Indian blames their troubles on the fact that they are no longer allowed to burn a white dog every year, according to ancient custom. The white dog, burned alive, purified their souls and carried away their diseases, a sort of canine scapegoat. But the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, another white invention, made them stop that. The last white dog was burned alive 20 years ago in a stove in the Onondaga "Long House," which is the reservation's legislative hall and executive mansion. Times have been bad, health poor, with no more white dog burnings.

This gigantic nation of 123,000,000 complains of its depression. It never burned a white dog officially, but it did burn a good many billions of dollars in a stupid way, that makes all Indian cruelty seem child's play.

The whites should be ashamed to complain, gigantically prosperous with too much of everything, coal, oil, cotton, wheat, money, everything but courage.

You may have heard the foolish rhyme beginning, "What's the use of Syracuse?" Learn that it has more than nine hundred industrial uses, besides admirable public schools and unlimited energy. At this moment, $30,000,000 are spent moving the railroad five blocks to the

Continued on Page 2, Column 1

FULL PAGE POPEYE COMIC IN TODAY'S AMERICAN

BRIDE HACKED TO DEATH

Woman Accuses State Trooper

7 P.M. STOCKS FINAL RACES

WEATHER

Fair tonight and Sunday, cooler tonight. Fresh northwest winds coming southerly.

Details on Page 5.

High tide today—11:39 a. m.; 11:58 p. m.

Sun rises 5:00; sets 6:38.

Light all vehicles at 6:58.

BOSTON EVENING AMERICAN

A HOME PAPER FOR PEOPLE WHO THINK

VOL. 28—No. 24 Published Daily by N. E. Newspaper Pub. Co. Entered as 2d Class Matter at Boston P. O. BOSTON, SATURDAY, APRIL 18, 1931 2 CENTS SOME PRICE 3 CENTS

The American is the only Boston daily paper using Universal Service and International News Service.

LATE NEWS FLASHES

Race Results——Sporting News

WOMAN ACCUSES STATE TROOPER

State police officials today are conducting an exhaustive investigation into an alleged attack made upon Mrs. Charles A. Moulton of Mountfort st., Back Bay, by a state trooper. The woman charged that the trooper choked her.

3 ALARMS IN 4 MINUTES KEEP FIREMEN BUSY

Three fire alarms in four minutes kept firemen busy in Allston and Brighton today. The first was for a grass fire in the rear of 70 Union st. The second, three minutes later, was for a grass fire on Litchfield st. The third, a minute after, was for a fire in the cellar of the frame house in Allston st., Allston, occupied by Joseph A. Emond and family. This was due to an overheated furnace. Damage was slight.

STAR CHAMBER SESSION DENIED GILLETTE CO.

Judge Pierce in the Supreme Court today denied a motion by counsel for the Gillette Safety Razor Co. that newspaper men be barred from hearings in New York where witnesses will be questioned in connection with the $21,000,000 suit of minority stockholders of the company against the directors which is in the Massachusetts courts.

FORMER SPEAKER HELD IN $17,000 THEFT

Bridgeport, Ct., April 18 (AP)—John H. Hill of Shelton, Fairfield county commissioner and former Speaker of the Connecticut House of Representatives, was arrested today on a bench warrant charging him with embezzlement of $17,000 from the city funds of Shelton while serving as tax collector. He was held in $5000.

PUBLISHER FOUND IN POOL OF ACID

Union, N. J., April 18 (AP)—George H. Guerin, publisher of the Union Local Press, was found today lying face down in a pool of acid in his office. The office was in disorder, with furniture smashed and papers scattered on the floor. Revived at a hospital, Guerin was unable to tell what had happened to him.

EDWARD ROBINSON DEAD

New York, April 18 (AP)—Edward Robinson, director of the Metropolitan Museum of Art since 1910 and for many years connected with the Boston Museum of Fine Arts, died today after an illness of several months. He was 71 years old. Mr. Robinson was born in Boston.

SHERIFF'S WIFE BLOCKS LYNCH MOB

Huntingdon, Tenn., April 18 (AP)—Mrs. J. C. Butler, wife of the sheriff of Carroll county, outwitted a mob today and prevented an attempt to storm the jail and lynch Henry Mauford, a negro, accused of shooting an officer.

SANDINO BLAMED FOR NICARAGUAN SITUATION

Philadelphia, April 18 (AP)—Creation of the situation in Nicaragua, which, he said, "has resulted in the shocking murder of unoffending private American citizens," was credited today by Walter C. Thurston, chief of the division of Latin-American affairs of the State Department, solely to the insurgent leader, Sandino.

SWEEPSTAKES TICKETS SEIZED AT FITCHBURG

Fitchburg, April 18 (AP)—A block of tickets for the first annual charity bazaar sweepstakes of the Army, Navy and Marine Club of Cohoes, N. Y., were seized today by Chief of Police Thomas J. Godley. The lottery was for $200,000, the tickets indicated, and drawings were to be made May 16 in Cohoes.

JAP EMPEROR CABLES HOOVER THANKS

Washington, April 18 (AP)—Emperor Hirohito of Japan today cabled to President Hoover his appreciation of the reception given Prince Takamatsu and his Princess consort.

RACE RESULTS AT HAVRE DE GRACE

(Race Selections and Scratches on Page 15)

1—Levante 4.80, 2.90, 2.40; Margaret Mc 5.00, 3.20; Tanored 3.60

AT JAMAICA

1—Beau Jolie, Clock Tower, Camper

FIRE TIES UP 'L' 3 HOURS

FACTS ABOUT AUTOPSY SOUGHT

Bay State Probers Demand the Truth About Murder Medical Reports

By JAMES J. SMITH

Fall River, April 18—The Boston Evening American learned today that Massachusetts officials investigating the slaying of Verna Russell, pretty student nurse, are not satisfied with the reports they have received on the autopsy performed on the girl's body.

While officials are withholding information on the case because of the agreement between Dist. Atty. Crossley of Bristol County and Atty.-Gen. McLyman, of Rhode Island, it is known that certain medical aspects of the case warrant much further investigation in the belief of Massachusetts probers.

It was learned that, whatever these angles are, they will require at least several days of probing before they are thoroughly straightened out.

The Massachusetts officials have not yet received full details of the autopsy. Although Dr. George

Continued on Page 4, Column 5.

FAIR WEATHER FOR WEEK-END

The holiday week-end in Boston will be enjoyed under ideal weather conditions, according to promises from forecasters today.

Today's clear skies will continue tomorrow, with slightly lower temperatures tonight, to be followed by warmer weather.

As the highways were clogged with motorists en route to New Hampshire, Maine and Cape Cod, Registrar of Motor Vehicles George A. Parker issued a warning against reckless and drunken driving over the holiday, and promised drastic action against drivers responsible for accidents.

Rich Gambler Shot to Death by Gang

Chicago, April 18 (INS)—A gang of six thugs in two cars shot and wounded, perhaps mortally, George Turner, wealthy West Side gambler today. Police viewed the shooting as a renewal of gambling wars.

The Evening American will not Publish Monday, April 20 Patriots' Day

HUNDREDS DELAYED BY BLAZE

Firemen Fight Fire on Forest Hills Elevated Trestle as Throng Looks On

PICTURES ON PAGE 3

Fire on the elevated structure at Washington and William sts., near Forest Hills, halted service between Dudley st. and Forest Hills for almost three hours this morning.

Power on the south bound main line track was cut off at 8:37, and the north bound power was shut off a few minutes later. It was not until 11:24 that the third rails were again alive, and service was resumed.

Surface car power was cut off within a few minutes and thousands of riders were forced to use buses hurriedly pressed into service.

THIRD RAILS MELTED

Clouds of black smoke, billowing from the blazing ties, blanketed the neighborhood, and several frame

Continued on Page 2, Column 7

CHINESE TO BAR TONG WARS

New York, April 18 (AP)—Behind locked doors at the Chinese consulate in New York the great men of the Chinatowns along the Atlantic seaboard met this week and read the constitution of the Chinese Peace Association, which is designed to end tong wars in the Eastern United States.

The meeting was a secret one. Even the day on which it took place could not be learned today. No one would say whether or not the constitution was adopted.

Under the terms of the constitution, quarrels between tongs in one city could not be taken up by their tongmen in other cities. The Chinese also would bind themselves to appeal to the American police if any tong rebelled against a decision of the peace association.

The constitution set the blood money to be paid if Tongs send out their fighting men—$5000 to be paid to the victim's family by the Tong responsible for the murder of a neutral, $2000 if he is permanently crippled, doctor bills and compensation if he is wounded.

The constitution provides that every Chinese east of Chicago shall pay $2 a year to support the association.

Even as the peace meeting was in progress, it was said today, word came that a Tongman named Tee Wah had been murdered in Pittsburgh.

Driver Jumps as Truck Is Ditched

Nicholas Battista, 35, of Faxon st., Newton, operator of a 5-ton truck unloading dirt on Concord ave., Belmont, narrowly escaped death today when the brakes became released and the truck plunged over the 65-foot cliff into a pond.

Battista, when he saw the truck moving, jumped from his seat. The truck was entirely submerged in the water. It is owned by Otis A. Treuer of Watertown st., Watertown.

'SLAIN TO GRANT HER PLEA'

Mrs. Esther Colledanchise, young bride, who was found slashed to death in her Somerville home today. Her husband told his brother "she had begged him to kill her." He was found poisoned and is held by police charged with her murder.

BRIDE HACKED TO DEATH IN SOMERVILLE; MATE HELD

Husband, Poisoned, Tells His Brother She "Begged" Him to Kill Her

A Somerville bride was hacked to death in her Hudson st. home today and her husband, following what police say was an attempt at suicide by poison, is held in Somerville jail charged with her murder.

The slain 22-year-old girl was Mrs. Esther Colledanchise. Her husband, Salvatore, 28, an unemployed shoe worker, was taken to court from Somerville hospital after emergency treatment had counteracted effects of the poison.

Police were called to the third floor room occupied by the couple in Hudson st., Somerville, by Joseph Colledanchise, Salvatore's brother, with whom the young couple had made their home since their marriage last August.

KNIFE BESIDE BODY

On the floor of the bedroom they found the young wife dead, her face and throat slashed.

On the floor beside her was a shoe knife, identified by Joseph Colledanchise as part of Salvatore's working kit.

According to the story told police by Joseph and his son, Mercurio,

Continued on Page 2, Column 4

Texas Man Held in Lowell Shooting

Lowell, April 18 (AP)—A man who said he was Joseph Kane, 36, of Beaumont, Texas, was under police guard in St. John's Hospital today, held in connection with the shooting of Patrick J. Fallon last night. He was arrested after he had gone to a hospital for treatment of a bullet wound in his hand.

Police believe Fallon was mistaken for a chain store manager who lives next door to him.

2 GIRLS, 3 MEN HELD IN $15,000

PICTURE ON PAGE 9

Three men were arrested at gunpoint today by Patrolman Timothy J. Sullivan of the metropolitan police at the Cambridge side of Craigie bridge and two girls who fled were later taken into custody in a West End apartment.

All were taken to East Cambridge District Court, where the men pleaded guilty to drunkenness and all five pleaded not guilty to carrying a revolver.

The quintet gave their names as Lester J. Tyler of Putnam ave., Cambridge; George W. Bluteau of Washington st., Arlington; Laurence J. Gillespie of Huron ave., Cambridge; Genevieve Matthews and Alice Banville, both of Kennard ave., Boston. They were held in $3000 each for hearing April 24.

While being taken to the police station at the Charles river dam one of the men tried to pull an automatic pistol containing 10 bullets, according to the police.

The gun was taken away from him by Sullivan and the youth is declared to have said it was slipped to him by one of the girls before she fled.

BALANCES AND RECEIPTS

Washington, April 18—Today's treasury balance, $571,556,163. U. S. customs receipts, $18,245,915.

CAPitol 1800 will tell you the correct time, day or night. The only charge is for the telephone call.—Adv.

ANDERSON SEES DRY REPEAL

PICTURE ON PAGE 9

"If the United States government would undersell the bootleggers, it would put them out of business in a month."

This view was expressed at a breakfast at the Hotel Ritz-Carlton today by Col. Henry W. Anderson of Virginia, dissenting member of the Wickersham committee.

Col. Anderson is here to address the Massachusetts Republican Club tonight on his plan for government sale of intoxicating liquor.

PREDICTS REPEAL

"If I had 30 days in which to superintendent execution of such a plan, I could drive out 98 per cent of the bootleggers, the illegal manufacturers and the smugglers," he told newspapermen at

Continued on Page 2, Column 6

B. & M. Train Kills Autoist at Crossing

New Durham, N. H., April 18—A grade crossing crash on the Boston & Maine Railroad took the life of Charles Drew of Union, near here today. The car Drew was driving was demolished when struck by a gasoline motor train en route from Lakeport to Dover. The engineer said Drew apparently did not hear his siren.

In Today's American

Classified Ads	17
Crossword Puzzle	17
Radio	4
Society	5
Sports	14, 15, 16
Comics	17
Magazine, Fiction	13
Amusements	6, 7
Political News	4
Man About Town	3
Gossip in the Shops	5
Women's Club News	5
Mysterious Wave Story	16
Ship News	17
Church News	16
Ann Arden	5
Financial	10, 11

EVENING AMERICAN NET PAID CIRCULATION FOR MARCH

271,087

MADRID WAR THREAT WHIPS CATALONIAN CHIEF INTO LINE

BARCELONA TO JOIN IN ONE REPUBLIC

Basques May Be Won Over, Too; Ex-Premier Gives Up; Debts Are to Be Paid

Madrid, April 18 (AP)—Catalonia's battle for independence will be fought by its orators in the halls of a national constitutional convention and not by soldiers on battlefields in the sunny southern coast province.

The new provisional government in Madrid today hailed the victory of three of its ministers, who, after an airplane flight to Barcelona last night, obtained from the Catalonian president, Col. Francisco Macia, a pledge to submit Separatist demands and demands for "political autonomy to the projected constitutional convention, meanwhile cooperating with Madrid.

BASQUES MAY AGREE.

This accord removed the most pressing of the political problems facing the junta set up here by Don Niceto Alcala Zamora, provisional president. Alejandro Lerroux, minister of state, said the other pressing Separatist movement, that of the Basque provinces, had not taken definite form, but was causing no apprehension.

Col. Macia at Barcelona announced the accord with Madrid from a government house balcony to a cheering crowd, informing them that it had been decided the Catalonian republic would cease to exist for the time being, but would bear the name "Commonwealth of Catalonia," a unit in the Spanish republican federation.

Senor Lerroux had previously said the Madrid government would not have hesitated to use force to maintain Spain as a whole.

EX-PREMIER RESIGNS.

Gen. Damaso Berenguer, former Premier, gave himself up to police after learning that the government wanted him to answer for his responsibility for the execution of the two rebel leaders last December.

Miguel Maura, new minister of interior, told Gen. Berenguer no formal charges had been made against him and that he could go free until they were.

Maura has instructed provincial governors to report cases in which priests use their churches for spreading political propaganda.

Governors were told to remain neutral in questions relating to the church and not to attend ceremonies in their official capacities and always maintain maximum courtesy with the ecclesiastical authorities."

The provisional government has announced it would recognize all debts of the monarchy. The immediate effect was a strengthening of stocks and securities on the exchange.

U. S. LOAN HANGS FIRE

It was understood there had been no draft on a $90,000,000 credit arranged fo the previous government with the J. P. Morgan interests in New York.

Recognition of the new Spanish republic by Great Britain is expected soon by political observers.

It was recalled today that Great Britain recognized the Portuguese republic about a month after King Manoel had fled.

The Tax Assessment Season :-: By FRANKLIN COLLIER

1
ASSESSED VALUATION $3200.
TAXED FOR $93.27
2
IT IS GOING TO MAKE A WONDERFUL DIFFERENCE
CLYDE, FOR ABOUT $200. YOU COULD FIX UP THIS PLACE OF YOURS TO LOOK NIFTY. PAINT IT. AND PUT OUT A FEW SHRUBS
I THINK I'LL DO IT. I CAN WORK ON IT SATURDAY AFTERNOONS
3
NEXT FALL
TAX BILL CITY OF LUMMOCKS
REAL ESTATE VALUATION $8,980.53
TAX $278.63
HOW CAN THEY TAX YOU TWO HUNDRED DOLLARS FOR SPENDING TWO HUNDRED TEN ON YOUR HOUSE?
4
AH, HA! THIS WON'T DO! THIS PLACE IS ASSESSED FOR ONLY 3200.
WELL THEY'RE DOING IT!
GOOD ENOUGH FOR YOU. THEY SHOULDN'T HAVE TRIED TO MAKE THEIR PLACE LOOK RESPECTABLE!
SOME DIFFERENCE!

800 HUNT AGED WOMAN LOST IN WOODS

Boy Scouts Join Army of Volunteers in Search for Mrs. Jacobs, 76

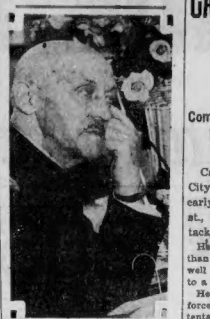
Bourne, April 18—Led by Chief of Police William Murdock, an all night search of the woods was made for Mrs. Sarah Jacobs, 78-year-old widow of Monument Beach, who mysteriously disappeared yesterday.

More than 800 Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, volunteer firemen and residents of several cities and towns participated in the search. A checkup of relatives in Orleans and this town failed to reveal her whereabouts.

Although most of the volunteers ceased searching at midnight, Police Chief Murdock and a small group of officers and residents continued throughout the night.

Mrs. Jacobs had a small amount of money when she left home.

Gets Last Call



Capt. J. J. Hoy of the City Point police station, died early today from pneumonia at the age of 61.

CAPT. J. J. HOY, POLICE VET, IS DEAD

Commander of South Boston Division Dies After Illness of Week

Capt. James J. Hoy of the City Point police station, died early today at his home, 95 Etna st., Brighton, following an attack of pneumonia.

He was stricken at his desk less than a week ago. He had seemed well on the road to recovery prior to a sudden relapse late last night.

He was appointed to the police force in 1895, at the age of 25, and tentatively assigned to the city prison. The next year he was transferred to Charlestown and served there until 1918, when he was made a sergeant. In 1926 he became a lieutenant. He was made a captain and assigned to the City Point station last February.

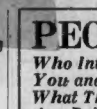
Capt. Hoy is survived by five children. Two sons are patrolmen. They are Fred C. Hoy, of the Back Bay station, and Joseph W. Hoy, of the Hanover st. station. Edmund J. Hoy is a member of Mayor Curley's secretarial staff, while a fourth son, John F. Hoy, is a student at Boston University. A daughter, Mrs. Lillian F. Hills, made her home with Capt. Hoy.

PEOPLE

Who Interest You and What They Are Doing

Baker Not Candidate for the Presidency

Cleveland, April 18 (AP)—Former Secretary of War Newton D. Baker will not seek the presidential nomination, but neither would he refuse it if should it come his way.



N. D. Baker

This was the general interpretation placed today on a statement by W. G. Gongwer, Democratic county chairman, who has held conversations with Baker recently. Baker is pleased over the mention of his name, but Gongwer said he did not believe "he has changed his former judgment on the subject.

Biddle Takes Sculptor for His Third Wife

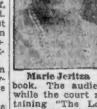
New York, April 18 (AP)—Miss Helen Sardeau, a New York sculptor, was married yesterday in municipal building to George Biddle, an artist, son of Mr. and Mrs. Algernon Sidney Biddle of Philadelphia. The bride's father is John Silberfeld.

Helen Sardeau

It was Mr. Biddle's third marriage. In 1917 he married Miss Anne Coleman of Philadelphia, the union ending in a divorce in 1924. His second marriage, that with Miss Jane Belo of Dallas, ended in a divorce last year.

Vienna Court Crowded at Jeritza Suit Trial

Vienna, April 18 (AP)—Sensation-hungry Vienna fashionables are crowding the courtroom here where the defamation of character suit of Maria Jeritza and her husband, the Baron Popper, against Roderich Mueller Guttenbrunn, author of the novel "Riffraff" is under way.



Marie Jeritza

The audience listened with avidity at the opening session yesterday when Judge Powalata read numerous passages from the book. The audience had to leave while the court read the part containing "The Love Life" of the singer Greta Levita, heroine of the story.

Woman Flays Plan to Draft Coolidge as House Speaker

Washington, April 18 (AP)—The suggestion that the House draft Calvin Coolidge to succeed Speaker Longworth tomorrow if the ill health of the dean of women Representatives in Congress, Mary T. Norton, Democrat, of New Jersey.

Mary T. Norton

"It would be a confession of weakness on the part of the Republicans of the House to be obliged to go outside their membership for the speakership," Mrs. Norton said. "The suggestion should be resented by Democrats and Republicans alike."

Representative Royal C. Johnson, Republican, of South Dakota, recently made the suggestion that an outsider be brought in to avoid a deadlock.

The domestic help problem is solved by taking a kitchenette apartment and one best are advertised daily in the For Rent columns.

LAWRENCE REDS WIN ON LEASE

Lawrence, April 18—Judge Albion Peirce in Lawrence District Court today ruled that Edith Berkman and her co-workers in the National Textile Workers Union have a legal right to occupy their headquarters at 234 Essex st., under the terms of a lease from their landlord, Mrs. Elizabeth Sugatt.

The judge's finding settled a suit brought by Mrs. Sugatt to abrogate the lease on the ground that the labor group was using the premises for illegal purposes.

Witnesses for Mrs. Sugatt, testifying at the hearing last week, told of loud talk and profanity in the building, which was raided some weeks ago by police as an aftermath of the Lawrence labor disturbances.

COL. ANDERSON SEES REPEAL

Continued From First Page

the breakfast tendered on his arrival by officials of the club.

He predicted repeal of the Volstead Act within 10 years, but said that if present conditions continue he believes Congress in five years will refuse to appropriate any more money for enforcement.

He explained that in brief his plan is for a federal commission to manufacture and import liquor and sell it to the states which vote to buy it. Each state would set up its own machinery for public sale.

Col. Anderson painstakingly replied to a barrage of questions, as he will also, at the banquet this evening, beginning by labeling himself a "dry."

"I have always been a 'dry' and am today in a sense, but society cannot stand still, society must go forward," he said.

UNDERSELL BOOTLEGGER

"I believe the plan that I have suggested would be far superior to Prohibition. My method would be to meet the enemy on economic grounds, undersell them. I think that's a practical way of doing it.

"If it costs only $1 to make a gallon of liquor and manufacturers can sell it for $15, you cannot stop them selling it. The profit is too great.

"And so the practical way to put bootleggers and manufacturers out of business is for the government of the United States to import and manufacture liquor and sell it, and if necessary sell it for 50 cents a gallon.

"My idea is to fix the highest possible price to keep the use of liquor within bounds, but low enough to undersell the bootlegger and smuggler.

"I would vote against repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment today unless something better was offered in its place on account of the confusion that would otherwise result. And no substitute plan must permit the return of the saloon. That would be a calamity.

"I would not let the states decide what is intoxicating liquor. There must be uniformity, which means that the Federal government should decide on this point."

'As long as there is a demand for liquor, there will be a supply. I believe my plan would promote temperance. The trouble with prohibition is that it is a rigid system. We have got to have a flexible system based on sound social and economic principles."

Informed of criticisms by Mrs. Henry W. Peabody who quit Massachusetts when the "Baby Volstead" law was repealed, Col. Anderson said he would be glad to answer any questions she may have for him.

Among those at the breakfast were John Richardson, president Gaspar G. Bacon of the Massachusetts senate, Maj. Judson Hannigan, president of the club, Judge Kenneth Johnson and Ernest J. Kerr.

FIRE ON 'L' TIES UP SERVICE

Continued From First Page

dwelling were endangered by the flames.

About 100 feet of the elevated structure was damaged by the fire, and third rails were melted in two places, so fierce were the flames.

Firemen, upon arrival, immediately communicated with elevated officials and power on both main line tracks was shut off.

With this danger eliminated, the firemen threw ladders up against the structure and began the battle to extinguish the blazing, creosoted ties.

Additional danger of the trolley wires running under the structure was eliminated a few minutes after the battle to subdue the flames began.

TRAFFIC TIED UP

With the trolley power cut off, surface cars along Washington st. and those serving Hyde Park, West Roxbury and the South Huntington ave. lines were put out of commission, adding to the general disruption of state of the company's service.

Buses were called into service on these lines to give emergency service to hundreds of persons on the way to work.

After more than an hour's battle the flames were subdued and service restored. The fire was believed to have been caused by cable trouble and Elevated officials are making an investigation.

Trains of the New Haven railroad, stopping at the Forest Hills station, picked up scores of passengers who were delayed by the fire. Taxicabs were at a premium, and many persons walked to Dudley st., where a special schedule was in operation.

About an hour after the fire broke out, trolley service along Washington st. was resumed. Wrecking crews rushed to the scene, and repaired the third rails, as well as the wooden structure.

Shoe Repairer Is Robbed in His Shop

Lowell, April 18—Peter Vasiliou, 30, a shoe repairer, was held up and robbed in his shop at 653 Merrimac st. early today by two armed, masked thugs who took $38 and fled.

Vasiliou told police he left his shop for a few minutes and when he returned was confronted by the two gunmen. While one kept him covered with a revolver, the other tied him with a handkerchief and shoestrings and tossed him on a couch. Police, under Lieut. Philip Dwyer, immediately began a search for the bandits.

WALKER STANDS ON HIS RECORD

New York, April 18 (AP)—Mayor Walker, finishing his reply to the charges of incompetency filed against him, has announced flatly that he intends to stand on the record of his administration.

"I want no attorneys, or counsel or advocates," he said. "Either the record that I am responsible for is good or it is bad. If the record's good, I'm good. If the record is bad, I'm bad."

The mayor stated his position at a meeting of the board of estimate when Stewart Browne, president of the United Real Estate Owners' Association, began an unsolicited defense of the present administration in City Hall.

The mayor's answer to the charge of condoning negligence and encouraging corruption probably will be filed with Governor Roosevelt Monday.

The investigation into the district attorney's office was widened yesterday with announcement that the inquiry, next week, will take up the "general conduct" of the office.

Jugoslavia Rocked by Earthquake Shock

Belgrade, Jugoslavia, April 18 (AP)—An earthquake of moderate intensity was felt at Novo Mesto, Slovenia, at 3:30 a. m. today. The population, panic-stricken, fled to the fields. There were no casualties and no severe damage was done.

Mexican Peso Falls

Mexico City, April 18 (AP)—The silver peso, which some time ago fell from its normal exchange rate of 2 per cent under the value of teh gold peso to 14 per cent, suffered a new collapse yesterday, when it was quoted at 18½ per cent less than gold. The fall is attributed to speculative activities.

TODAY

Continued From First Page

north, elevating it above the street.

Newspaper publishers will be interested to learn that their industry is thriving here, as represented by the Syracuse Journal.

It printed yesterday its biggest edition thus far, more advertising than ever carried before in spite of the fact that it prints this column.

H. H. Fris, publisher of the Albany Times-Union, another Hearst newspaper, came here for last night's Chamber of Commerce dinner and would like you to hear a few words about Albany.

Twenty million dollars are being spent by the cities of Albany and Rensselaer and the national government to make the Hudson river deeper, establishing at Albany a port available for ocean steamships. The two energetic cities are spending $10,000,000, and will be ready for ocean navigation this summer.

The water at the port will be 40 feet deep, the channel 400 feet wide. Ocean ships with pulp wood have already come from Nova Scotia and Russia. We seem to hear a good deal about Russia.

On May 6, California will send an ocean vessel with 4,000,000 feet of lumber for distribution inland. Great ocean ports will have their problems in competition, when all cities on the Lakes and other inland cities provide ports for ocean steamers, and great railroad terminals will have their problems when every flat area of ground or smooth inland water becomes a landing place for air traffic.

More important than all the above, as regards real civilization, is Albany's new junior high school, costing $1,300,000.

(Copyright, 1931, King Features Synd., Inc.)

BRIDE IS SLAIN IN SOMERVILLE

Continued From First Page

who slept in a room next that of the couple. Salvatore and his wife had had several disagreements during recent weeks.

Joseph heard loud voices from the room at 7:20 a. m. today followed by a woman's screams. He rushed into the room and found Mrs. Colledanchise dying on the floor. Joseph told the police his brother stood over her, the knife in his hand.

"BEGGED FOR DEATH"

"She asked me to kill her, and I did," Joseph quoted Salvatore as saying.

"Then I went down to call the police," said Joseph, "and when I came back Salvatore was sitting on the bed, moaning that he had taken poison."

According to his brother Joseph, the accused man had been out of work for two months and had shown signs of mental disturbance, fancying that a conspiracy among shoe manufacturers was keeping him from obtaining employment.

After a day's fruitless search for work, Salvatore would often refuse to eat, and would spend the evening muttering invectives against those whom he had asked for employment, his brother said.

Mercurio Colledanchise, nephew of the husband, told of frequent morning quarrels between the couple before Mrs. Colledanchise left for her work at the box factory.

Salvatore came to America 11 years ago from Italy, and has lived with his brother's family since.

Frat Raided and 3 Held on Rum Charge

New York, April 18 (AP)—Federal prohibition agents walked into the Delta Kappa Epsilon Club in East 51st st. yesterday, took 60 bottles out of lockers and arrested three men, two of them members. They were charged with illegal possession of liquor.

$50,000 GEMS LOST IN HOLDUP

Baltimore, April 18 (AP)—Jewels worth $50,000 were taken from the fingers and necks of the well-known Baltimore society women early today by two masked robbers who held them up as they were returning to their homes from an opera. A $30,000 necklace was included in the loot.

The robbery occurred in the driveway of the home of Miss Peggy Chew Stewart, who had driven home by her neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Miller, and their three daughters, the Misses Nancy, Grace and Edith Miller. Mr. Miller is a chemical manufacturer.

The robbers' car at first following for more than a mile halted behind the Miller machine in the drive. With faces masked the robbers pulled the rings from the fingers of the women and unclasped valuable necklaces.

The robbers then ran to their car and sped away.

Worcester Folk to Hear Famous Choir

Worcester, England, April 18 (AP) — Citizens of Worcester, Mass., and other cities in the United States probably will have an opportunity of hearing the famous "three choirs festival" next year.

Tentative plans are being made to transport the combined cathedral choirs, orchestras and conductors of Gloucester, Hereford and Worcester, to America where they will give a reproduction of the festival which terminates here on September 9, 1932.

'Bonesetter' Reese Greatly Improved

Youngstown, O., April 18—(AP) —John D. "Bonesetter" Reese, 75-year-old healer who has been seriously ill of heart trouble, was reported to be "greatly improved" today. He spent a comfortable night, it was said, and appeared much brighter and stronger today.

Ignatz Is Hunting for a Brick -:- The Mystic Quickly Turns the Trick -:- The Mouse -:-

TONIGHT FROM OLJETO, WHERE THE MOON BATHES EVERY SATURDAY NIGHT, HORSEEN EZY KUMM, THE MYSTIC OF MAITO, ARRIVES SEEKING AN EXCUSE TO MAKE MAGIC.
HA-HA-HAAAAAAA— PARDON ME FOR LAUGHING "MOUSE." HA-HA-HAAAA— PARDON ME——
Y'SEE, IN ALL THE PROVINCES OF TUSAYAN THERE IS NOT A "BRICK" TO BE HAD — HA-HA-HA — AND IT GIVES ME A GREAT GLOW BECAUSE THAT DEAR MAN'S PRETTY POLL WILL NOT BE THUMPED TODAY PEEP?

(Continued on Next Page)

BOSTON POSTOFFICE CONTRACT HELD UP

Missing Judge Crater Is Linked to Bond Firm in Probe

NEW CLUES IN SEARCH FOR N. Y. JURIST

Affiliation With American Bond & Mortgage Co. Revealed Here

BY BERT FORD

New evidence bearing on the mysterious disappearance eight months ago of Judge Joseph Force Crater of New York Supreme Court has been brought to light by counsel for New England owners of bonds of the American Bond and Mortgage Company, it was learned today.

The latest disclosures indicate that Judge Crater's disappearance may have been directly or indirectly due to financial affiliations with a corporation for which Massachusetts and Maine investors have applied for a receiver on the ground of insolvency due to alleged "gross mismanagement."

LINKED TO BOND FIRM

Judge Crater vanished in New York on August 6. The hunt for him, dead or alive, has extended over most of the country. Morgues and hospitals have been searched without avail. Early in the investigation several Broadway beauties were questioned. He was a former law partner of United States Senator Wagner.

Last September the New York authorities sent two detectives to Belgrade, Me., where Mrs. Crater was spending a vacation, Servants in the Crater summer home were questioned.

Now comes linking the missing jurist's name with the snarled affairs of the American Bond & Mortgage Co. in which so many New Englanders are intensely interested, and announcement that Department of Justice agents, who have been probing the corporation and certain of its high officials in Boston and other parts of New England for months, have forwarded a full report to Washington.

DISAPPEARANCE SIGNIFICANT

It is known that activities of William J. Moore, founder of the American Bond & Mortgage Co., and his son were investigated here.

HEARING TO REOPEN

In the very month that Judge Crater vanished, the Boston Evening American published a series of exclusive articles on the action taken by bond owners in North Attleboro and Plainville and also many in the agricultural sections of Maine to obtain appointment of a receiver for the Moore corporation, which was reputed to have done a $13,000,000 business in 20 years.

Atty. George R. Ellis of North Attleboro, who petitioned the Maine Supreme Court for a receiver for the American Bond & Mortgage Company, said today that hearings would be resumed before Chief Justice W. R. Pattangall at Augusta on May 14.

TROLLEY BANDIT HELD IN $50,000

Springfield, April 18—Charged with shooting a motorman during a $4 holdup on his car, Herbert L. Boldway, 25, of Windsor Locks, Conn., was held in $50,000 today after he had pleaded guilty to assault and robbery while armed.

Arthur Quick, victim of the bandit's gun, is in Springfield City Hospital with bullet wounds in his breast, arm and leg. He is not expected to live.

Hoover Arrives at Camp

Orange, Va., April 18 (AP)—President and Mrs. Hoover arrived at the Rapidan camp near here before lunch time today, after a motor trip from Washington.

FLAMES DRAW THE LIFE FROM 'L'S' DEADLY THIRD RAILS

THIS IS WHY THOUSANDS WALKED TODAY
Firemen and others looking at the havoc wrought by fire near Forest Hills when flames warped and melted third rails and tied up the Boston Elevated's lines there for hours.

COE DEVISED TAX WAR ON GANGS

New York, April 18 (INS)—Charles Francis Coe, author of gangster stories, admitted today that he was the man who originated the idea of having the Federal government strike at the racketeers of the nation through investigation of their income taxes.

Coe described for the first time, he said, how it happened that he put the idea into the minds of 16 prominent Chicago citizens that the best way to deal with the racketeers whose operations were disgracing the city was through the instrumentality of the income tax investigation.

Coe refused to disclose the names of the men who attended the conference or the individual to whom he suggested the plan.

"I advocated that the Washington agent have the Internal Revenue Commissioner assess the gangsters in terrific sums," Coe explained. "The income tax law is the only law in which the defendant must prove his innocence. The commissioner has the right to assess any citizen any sum he wishes and the individual must then prove he must not pay it. The minute he tries to prove the assessment erroneous he uncovers a treasure trove of evidence that will hang him."

Two Huge Rubber Mergers Rumored

Akron, O., April 18 (INS)—Two gigantic rubber company mergers were rumored in financial circles today. One report said Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co. would merge with United States Rubber, forming the world's largest rubber corporation with factories in all parts of the world and annual sales of $500,000,000.

The other rumor was that B. F. Goodrich Co. is planning to obtain stock control of the General Tire & Rubber Co.

Doak Reorganizes Employment Service

Washington, April 18 (AP)—Secretary Doak today announced complete reorganization of the United States employment service.

The secretary announced there would be 48 state employment bureaus and one for the District of Columbia to be operated under seven special divisions to cover various trades.

M'DONALD AND NEVILLE IN ROW

London, April 18 (AP)—A new political squabble has developed from a statement made by Prime Minister MacDonald in a speech in the Commons yesterday.

The Prime Minister said the Conservatives, throughout the present Parliament, had been trying to induce Liberals to vote with them against the government by giving them definite assurances they would not be opposed by Conservatives for election at the next election.

Sir Neville Chamberlain, who until recently was chairman of the Conservative party, answered today that the Premier's statement was absolutely baseless and that Mr. MacDonald should have been ashamed to make it without evidence.

Mr. MacDonald retorted that Sir Neville had better know what he was talking about before he said anything.

Cousin of Duchess of York Weds in Gown of a New Material

Beaulieu, Hampshire, Eng., April 18 (AP)—Wearing a bridal gown made entirely of a new material, "opeau d'ange," ivory color, with a nine-foot train, Miss Pamela Bowes-Lyon, cousin of the Duchess of York, was married today in the Parish Church here to Lord Malcolm Douglas-Hamilton.

The church was packed with leaders of British society. The keynote of the decorations and of the gowns was blue. The church was banked with hyacinths, and the six bridesmaids wore hyacinth blue ankle-length frocks with silver Juliette hats trimmed with forget-me-nots. The two attendants were frilly frocks of forget-me-nots blue.

One Mail Delivery Set for Holiday

Stations, branches and general departments of the Boston Postoffice will close at 10 a. m., Monday. The first delivery trip and the usual holiday collection of letters from street letter boxes will be made. Special delivery and perishable parcel post will be delivered as usual, it was announced by Postmaster William E. Hurley today.

SYLVIA JACKSON LILLIAN FETTLER
HUNDREDS WERE LATE BECAUSE THEY WALKED
Miss Jackson of Roslindale and Miss Fettler of Dedham shown trudging along after fire put their service on the "L" out of commission. Thousands of others were delayed for work, too. (Staff photos.)

Training Bout Fatal to Mexican Boxer

Mexico City, April 18 (AP)—A blow received in a practice match at the International Sports Club here proved fatal last night to Enrique Zavala Robles, Mexican lightweight, who died in the ring from a cerebral hemorrhage.

Lowell Bootblack Bound Up, Robbed

Lowell, April 18 (AP)—Two youths who entered the rooms of Peter Vazzilion, 30, bootblack, on Merrimack street today, trussed him with shoe strings and polishing cloths and fled with $58. Vazzilion, still bound, crawled to the street where passersby liberated him.

TREASURY DEPT. UNDECIDED WHAT TO DO

McCarl Rules Winning Bid Was Not for Work Offered All Original Bidders

Washington, April 18 (AP)—The $4,648,900 contract awarded the N. P. Severin Company of Chicago for construction of a new federal postoffice in Boston was held up by the Treasury today pending a decision as to what steps should be taken in view of a ruling by Comptroller-General McCarl that the contract was for work not offered to all original competitive bidders.

The ruling was handed down after complaints had been made by the Seklin Construction Company of New York, the low art bidder for granite-limestone construction. The Chicago company's contract calls for an all granite building.

HEATH TO TAKE UP CASE

Perry K. Heath, assistant secretary of the treasury in charge of public buildings, will take up the case Monday.

"Obviously," McCarl ruled, "the work which it is proposed to let to the N. P. Severin Company is not the work which was offered to all bidders by advertising for competition."

The call for bids, issued Dec. 12, specified granite construction to the third floor and limestone above that, and asked a second bid for granite construction throughout. Great pressure brought on the department, McCarl said, resulted in a change of specifications calling for all granite.

NEW BIDS REQUIRED.

Supplemental bids then were asked and the Severin Co. reduced its original bill by $1,029,600 and was awarded the contract.

"What is now determined," McCarl said, "that the material, etc., required by the specifications would result in a cost in excess of the amount believed available for the actual construction work all of the proposals should have been rejected and the work readvertised.

"Especially should this have been done when it was concluded to accede to the local demand and construct the building with granite instead of with limestone from the third story."

Air Chiefs Set Rules to Protest Crowds From Fliers

Washington, April 18 (AP)—The aeronautics branch of the Commerce Department today took action looking to preventing accidents that might injure persons at seacoast beaches.

Pilots of aircraft were warned that landing on beaches without taking extraordinary measures to prevent injury to persons was a violation of regulations.

Aircraft should not be operated from beaches without suitable precautions being taken to warn the public, said Gilbert G. Budwig, director of air regulation.

Noble's Brother to Visit Him in Jail

Lawrence, April 18—Russell Noble, held in the Essex County jail as the alleged hammer slayer of Mrs. Clara E. C. Ellis, will be visited tomorrow by his brother Charles, released from the Gale hospital in Haverhill late yesterday after a three weeks' convalescence from an operation.

George Bunting, keeper of the jail, said Dr. Clarence A. Bonner and Dr. L. Vernon Briggs, state alienists, would make their fifth mental examination of Noble next week.

BROWNS OUT OF TUNE NOW

DORIS EATON

NACIO HERB BROWN MRS. BROWN
"Singing in the Rain" may not suit the life of its author, Nacio Herb Brown, right now. Yesterday in Los Angeles he was divorced by his wife, Ruby Porter Brown. Cruelty was charge. The name of Doris Eaton, film actress, has been linked with Brown's. (International Newsreel photos.)

AMERICANS ARE IN FLIGHT

Puerto Cabezas, Nicaragua, April 18 (AP)—Americans in the Puerto Cabezas district, harried by insurgent and outlaw attacks during the last week, were reported today by R. J. Salassi, local manager of the Standard Oil Company, to be evacuating their homes and businesses following warning from Alvin T. Howe, American consul at Bluefields, that the United States government cannot undertake their general protection.

The message was received with consternation throughout this section, not only by Americans but by British subjects, who feel their problem of protection may be gravely complicated by the Washington decision.

Refugees from outside Puerto Cabezas say the insurgents seem most interested in killing Americans and Jamaicans and in destroying American property.

The steamer Cefalu with refugees and two bodies of men slain by bandits arrived at New Orleans today.

Three American naval vessels are on duty in the Bluefields-Puerto Cabezas vicinity and the cruiser Rochester was ordered to Bluefields last night from the Canal zone.

Thirty Skeletons in Pantheon

Rome, April 18 (AP)—Workmen engaged in restoring the ancient Pantheon, built in 27 B. C., today discovered 30 skeletons, buried beneath the ruins.

AMERICAN PILOT DIES AT POST

Cleveland, April 18 (AP)—The crack Lake Shore Limited, New York Central train, arrived here today from New York, with J. C. DeFoe, 65, the engineer dying in his cab, and with James Burns, the fireman, at the throttle. The passengers were undisturbed.

Burns said DeFoe slumped in his seat while the train was speeding 40 miles an hour through the loughby. Burns lifted DeFoe into the fireman's seat and, command of the cab.

"There wasn't anything that," the fireman [illegible] was at part of the day's work."

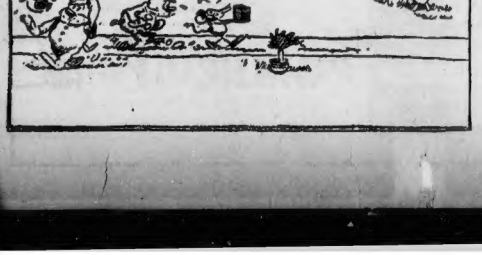
Coroner A. J. Pearse said DeFoe died of a cerebral hemorrhage. DeFoe and Burns began the run in Buffalo where they made their homes. DeFoe was a veteran of 35 years service.

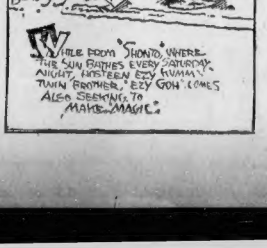
Pacifists Rebuked by Aide to Gov. Ely

Pacifists were rebuked today in an address by Secretary DeWitt Clinton DeWolf, secretary to Gov. Ely, addressing the latter at the mayor's reception to National Commander Paul G. Wolman of the Veterans of Foreign Wars at the Hotel Bradford.

"There are now men and women speaking generally in our churches, urging a policy which I regard as nothing short of treason," he said. "They would develop a generation of slackers, disloyal men and women, a disgrace to the nation.

Exults -:- But All in Vain -:- Another Mystic Roams the Plain -:- Presto, the Brick Is Gone Again





"HOAZY HOP" DID YOU EVER GET F....
PFFTTTTT
WHILE FROM "KHOTO, WHERE THE SUN BATHES EVERY SATURDAY NIGHT, HISTEEN EZY HUMAN TWIN BROTHER, EZY GOH, COMES ALSA SEEKING TO MAKE MAGIC"

OH, WELL, WHO KNOWS BUT WHAT GOOD FORTUNE IS JUST AROUND THE CORNER READY TO SMILE UPON ME.
JOY-V. SIX SEX HAVE BAKED A BEAUTIFUL BRICK.

GALA PROGRAMS FOR DOUBLE PATRIOT DAY

OUTSTANDING EVENTS ON PATRIOTS' PROGRAM

Sat.

7:45 p. m.—Old North Church, Salem st., hanging of lanterns and exercises.

Sunday

3 p. m.—Annual exercises of Lexington Historical Society, Cary Memorial Hall.

Monday

12:15 a. m.—Minute Men assemble on Lexington Battle Green. Sunrise, national salute fired at Concord.

8:45 a. m.—Start of program in Eliot sq., Roxbury, and North sq., North End.

9 a. m.—Flag-raising at City Hall and parade to North sq.

9 a. m.—Start of parades in Arlington and Medford.

10 a. m.—Start of parades in Lexington and Cambridge; patriotic exercises at Saxton C. Foss Park, Somerville.

10:05 a. m.—Exercises at Devotion Field, Brookline.

3:30 p. m.—Presentation of German field piece to town of Lexington by War Department in the Battle Green.

8 p. m.—Military dances in Lexington, Medford, Arlington and elsewhere.

Hanging of lanterns in Christ Church (Old North Church) in Salem st. at 7:45 this evening will launch a gala celebration of Patriots' Day in which eight cities and towns will participate.

Boston proper, Roxbury, the North End, Arlington, Concord, Cambridge, Brookline, Somerville, Lexington and Medford will have long and interesting programs for Monday, while scattered ceremonies will mark a quieter observance tomorrow.

Following the hanging of the lanterns this evening there will be a patriotic service in the Old Church by the North End in commemoration of that thrilling night of April 18, 1775. Congressman Robert Luce will be the principal speaker.

DUST TO BE PLACED

The House of the Angel Guardian Military Band will give its seventh annual concert this afternoon at the Lowell school hall, Exeter and Mozart sts., Jamaica Plain.

In the evening a bust of Henry L. Higginson will be placed in the Higginson auditorium of the South End municipal building, and at Lexington the historical society will conduct its annual exercises in Cary Memorial Hall.

Roxbury has laid lavish plans for the program, beginning at 8:45 a. m. Monday, "with a band concert, flag-raising and patriotic exercises preceding the start of "William Dawes" for Lexington. This program will last all morning, and will include a road race.

In North sq., site of the home of Paul Revere, ancient customs will precede and follow the start of "Paul Revere" for Lexington. Graves on Copps Hill will be decorated and the Veterans of Foreign Wars will unveil a tablet.

The Lexington program, which begins at midnight Sunday, is a long one, ending with the annual American Legion ball, and Concord's quiet observance will likewise close with a veterans' ball on Monday evening.

REVERE TO RIDE AGAIN

The arrival of "Paul Revere" in the various places along his route and the arrival of "Dawes" on his trek to Lexington will be features of the celebrations in the various cities and towns.

Outside of Lexington, the longest program of events for the holiday is in Medford, where there will be a forenoon parade, dedication of tablets, decoration of graves, exercises by school children and Girl Scouts will play leading roles in the Lexington celebration. There will be numerous dances and entertainments by various veterans' organizations in the evening.

"Paul Revere" may be seen along the following route: North sq., Prince st., Charlestown bridge, City sq., Park st., Warren st., Main st., Sullivan sq., Broadway, Winter Hill, Main st. to Medford sq., High st., to West Medford, Arlington Center, Massachusetts ave., Appleton st., Paul Revere rd., Massachusetts ave. to Lexington, arriving about 12:20.

"William Dawes" will go by way of Roxbury Crossing, Tremont st., Huntington ave., Brookline Village, Harvard st., Coolidge Corner, Allston station, Lincoln st., Franklin st., North Harvard st., Lars Anderson bridge, Boylston st., Cambridge; Harvard sq., Massachusetts ave., Arlington Center, Lexington, due about 12:25.

Suicide Asks to Have Gun Cleaned

Ithaca, N. Y., April 18 (AP)—Jere G. Baldwin, 20, of Paris, France, a Cornell University sophomore, who was found shot through the head in the Sigma Phi Sigma Fraternity House here yesterday, committed suicide, a coroner's inquest held today.

A terse note, "I did it on purpose. Please clean the gun. (Signed) Jere" was found among the student's personal effects, it was revealed.

4 Killed in Cave-in

Honolulu, April 18 (INS)—Four Japanese laborers were dead here today and four were suffering from serious injuries as a result of a cave-in of a tunnel at the Wahiawa Dam.

RUM FLEET LINK WITH SHORE BROKEN

Carlos Burnstein, special agent for the Department of Justice, surveys the radio broadcasting set seized in attic of house on Florence ave., Revere. Federal agents chatted with operators of several rum ships and gained much valuable information from them.

RUM RADIO AND LIST SEIZED

Boston business men, active in the restaurant and market trade, may face prosecution in federal court as a result of a raid by federal agents on a Revere bungalow, in which an elaborate radio broadcasting station, a quantity of liquor and a list of customers were seized.

Two men were arrested by the Department of Justice agents who swooped down on the bungalow on Florence ave, in the Beachmont section of Revere, early last night. They are Edward Seigel, owner of the bungalow, and Richard W. Fietz, alleged operator of the radio.

The federal men say that the seizure has broken the connection of liquor smugglers with a gigantic shore ring, composed for the most part of Boston men.

Seigel was charged with aiding and abetting the operation and maintenance of an unlicensed radio station and Fietz was charged with operating the unlicensed station.

Seigel appeared in Federal Court today charged with violation of radio laws and after a plea of not guilty was held in $5000. Feitz, owing to physical indisposition, could not appear, but posted bonds of $5000.

A John Doe warrant was issued for the arrest of a third man.

A curious feature of the raid was the fact that radio operators on several rum vessels unaware that the Revere station had been raided chatted and discussed plans with a federal agent. When the agent had concluded his conversations, he flashed out the signal BIG, conveying the news that the station had been seized.

Chesterton Hates to Quit Lively U. S.

New York, April 18 (AP)—Gilbert K. Chesterton, English author, is sorry to go home. In this country, he says, there is "good, eager, hot argument; it is very stimulating. In England it has become dull. No one seems to care about arguing any more."

Intuition's a Big Help, Anyway

By Arthur ("Bugs") Baer

New York professor asked Einstein a question that stymied the ancient prodigy.

Is intuition mental or emotional? That's the question. You can verify it by the question mark.

In a woman it's emotional. In a man it's mental. In Wall Street it's both, because first you get all hopped up and then you go nuts.

Intuition, Professor Einstein, means a guess that starts with a chill up your spine and ends with you doing cross-word puzzles on a fever chart.

Intuition is what made Alfonso take his foot in his hand and light out for Paris. Of course, the Republican mobs had been yelling outside the palace for six years, but it was an old Spanish intuition that warned him to oil up his bicycle.

In Alfonso's case, intuition was neither mental nor emotional. It was geographical.

Intuition is what compels a lady to have her nails manicured beautifully just before she fourtracks her rival's face with a series of neat, red scratches.

It's what makes a man cancel a railroad trip when he finds that he hasn't got the carfare. It makes a baby yell for his nurse, a candidate for a recount, and a broker for his lawyer.

It makes you fear for the worst, hope for the best and expect what you get. And while we are out of that valuable commodity sight now we expect another carload of it in the morning.

(Copyright, 1931. Distributed by Universal Service, Inc.)

Globe Girdler at Manila

Manila, April 18 (AP)—Edward Miles, circumnavigating the globe in a 37-foot boat, arrived here last night from Singapore, which he left April 2.

LONE RIDER A 'RAILBIRD'

Jane Davis, 11, daughter of Senator and Mrs. James J. Davis of Pennsylvania, is an ardent equestrienne. She is shown resting in a Washington park after a canter. She has resided all her life in Washington, her father having been Secretary of Labor for three Presidents. (International Newsreel photo.)

WARNS EDITORS FIGHT LOOMS

Washington, April 18 (AP)—Col. R. R. McCormick, publisher of the Chicago Tribune, urged in a speech before the American Society of Newspaper Editors today that newspapers avoid the possibility of failure because of rising competition, by improving themselves.

He cited the radio, the billboards, and the television as the newspapers' active competitors.

"I take it to be self evident," he said, "that newspapers which could barely succeed without these forms of competition will need to strengthen themselves to succeed in face of them, and that newspaper proprietors who stubbornly refuse to meet changing conditions will face the end which was reached by carriage manufacturers, canal properties and stage coach owners, who refused to see and participate in more modern forms of transportation.

"We must make better newspapers than we are making today, mainly by better editing."

Gets College Honor

Schenectady, N. Y., April 18 (AP)—Tyler Frederic MacMaster of Amherst, Mass., has been chosen valedictorian of the senior class of Union College.

TRUTH SOUGHT IN AUTOPSY ON NURSE

Continued From First Page

Burgess Magrath and Dist.-Atty. Crossley conferred with Atty.-Gen. McLyman at Providence yesterday, it was learned the Massachusetts officials are still awaiting the return of Dr. Charles W. Bryant, of Tiverton, from Chicago.

Dr. Bryant was in charge of the autopsy on the strangled nurse. His regular assistant was out of town and Dr. E. D. Peasley, of the Truesdale Hospital, aided him in the microscopic examination of the dead girl's organs.

PEASLEY IN ROW

Dr. Peasley was in conference with Dr. Magrath and Dist.-Atty. Crossley a few days ago. It has been learned that Dr. Peasley finally agreed to the three-cornered conference after a bitter wordy tilt between himself and Crossley.

When the doctor was first notified that his presence was desired at a conference he replied he would talk with Mr. Magrath alone at the Truesdale Hospital. Crossley told him he must appear for the conference at the district-attorney's office.

When Dr. Peasley finally appeared at the office he asked Dr. Magrath, and said he would like to speak with him privately. Dist.-Atty. Crossley told him he had no necessary for him, Crossley, to be present.

CONFERENCE SECRET

On the day the autopsy was conducted a representative of the Boston American was told that Dr. Peasley was attending it solely to protect the interests of the Truesdale Hospital, where the dead girl had been a student nurse.

This is one of the angles of the medical aspects of the case which has convinced Massachusetts probers that the case requires further investigation.

Further, Albert G. Winward, owner of the estate where the girl's body was found, has been questioned at length regarding the appearance and condition of her clothing.

Although no official comment has been made, it is also known that the renewal of interest in the missing raccoon coat of young Hathaway, charged with the girl's murder, is also a result of concentration on this phase of the probe.

The Massachusetts State officers are not convinced that the nurse bore bloodstains, it has been learned. They are satisfied that these stains were left on the coat when it was being worn by a man carrying the body of the nurse.

Fear for Safety of German Expedition

Copenhagen, April 18 (AP)—In view of increasing temperatures in northeast Greenland, where the breaking up of ice, considerable anxiety is being shown for Dr. Wegener and the German expedition in central Greenland. Nothing has been heard from him since October 2, 1930, when he left his base.

POLITICS

Notes and Gossip About People You Know

MURPHY FOR CONGRESS

Former Election Commissioner "Eddie" Murphy of Charlestown is being urged to be a candidate for Congress from that district. He is one of Charlestown's most prominent citizens and also has a large following in East Boston and the West End.

BUSY ON BUNKER HILL

City Councillor "Tommy" Green of Charlestown is busy arranging for the observance of the Battle of Bunker Hill in that district on June 17.

GLYNN VERY ACTIVE

Recent activities of former Fire Commissioner Theodore A. Glynn would tend to confirm a rumor printed in this column several weeks ago that he would in all probability be a candidate for sheriff in 1932. He is appearing as an after-dinner speaker each evening in the week, appears at socials and luncheons, and is distributing loving cups to various organizations.

HANLEY MAY RUN

It is rumored that Frank Hanley of the registry of deeds will be a candidate for City Council from Ward 3. He is one of the most popular young men in the South End and is past grand knight of St. James Council, K. of C. He is regarded as the political leader of that end of Ward 3, and should he decide to enter the fight, he would make it interesting for the present incumbent, Councillor John I. Fitzgerald, who will seek re-election.

O'KEEFE BEING GROOMED

Atty. "Jim" O'Keefe of Tremont st., South End, is being urged to be a candidate for City Council from Ward 9. He has been promised the support of several political organizations.

HOLLAND THE GOLFER

Neal Holland, principal assessor of the city, will play his first game of golf of the season on the Franklin Park links tomorrow. It is expected that a large group of spectators from that office will look on.

PETERS IN SENATE

Former Mayor Andrew J. Peters, visiting the Senate for the first time in years, sat on the rostrum with President Gaspar G. Bacon. The ex-mayor recalled that it was 26 years ago that he was a member of the Senate.

BREAKS SENATE RULE

The rules of the Senate are strict and sharp-eyed attendants see that they are not violated. As ex-Mayor Peters was leaving the chamber he was addressed by Senator Roger Keith of Brockton. Unintentionally violating a rule, Mr. Peters stopped at Keith's chair and started to converse. Upon being cautioned by the doorkeeper, the ex-mayor and the senator retired and finished their conversation outside the railing.

LARSON STILL IN TOUCH

Former Rep. Joseph L. Larson of Everett still keeps in close touch with legislation affecting his district. For eight years he was House chairman of the committee on education. He was in the delegation which accompanied Mrs. Reda Hallberg of Sweden to the State House on her visit to Governor Ely.

BILL WINS A LAUGH

A bill dealing with charter changes of the St. Jean Baptiste Society of Marlboro and with the duties of L'Union St. Jean Baptiste d'Amerique caused some merriment in the Senate. President Gaspar G. Bacon read it off fluently but the Senate clerk, William H. Sanger didn't fare so well.

RADIO PROGRAMS

Boston Stations

Kilocycles		Meters
1230	WNAC	244
990	WBZA	303
590	WEEI	508
1500	WLOE	209
830	WHDH	361
1410	WSSH	213
920	WBSO	326

For Those Who Dance

7:30—WEEI—Ted Lewis' Band.
8:15—WNAC—Baker dance music.
8:30—WBZA—Fuller Man.
9:30—WNAC—Cocoanut Grove music.

Ten High Spots

7:00—WEEI—Irish Minstrels.
7:15—WNAC—Ritz-Carlton music.
8:00—WEEI—Weber and Fields.
8:15—WEEI—Varieties.
8:30—WNAC—Silversmiths.
9:30—WEEI—General Electric hour.
10:00—WBZA—Cuckoos.
10:30—WBZA—Ciara, Lue & Em.
11:15—WBZA—R-K-O Review.
11:45—WEEI—Little Jack Little.

9:30—WBZA—Domino orchestra.
10:00—WEEI—Lucky Strike Orchestra.
11:15—WNAC—Denny Orchestra.
11:15—WEEI—Busse Orchestra.
11:30—WNAC—Lombardo music.
12:00—WNAC—Lown Orchestra.

Saturday, April 18

4:00 P. M.
WBZA—Organ.
WEEI—News; Russo Orchestra.
WHDH—Orchestra.

4:30 P. M.
WBZA—Stock quotations.
WHDH—Musical hour.

4:45 P. M.
WBZA—(4:50) "National Affairs."
WEEI—Soprano.

5:00 P. M.
WNAC—Melodies.
WBZA—McEnelly music.
WEEI—Children's concert.
WLOE—Dance music.

5:15 P. M.
WNAC—Ted and Greater Gang.

5:30 P. M.
WNAC—Merry-Go-Round.
WBZA—Little Orphan Annie.
WHDH—Broadcast to fishermen.

5:45 P. M.
WNAC—Saturday Nighters.
WBZA—Song program.
WHDH—Irish Minstrels.

6:00 P. M.
WNAC—Melodists.
WBZA—Bootblack; sport review.
WEEI—Ensemble.
WLOE—Mother Goose.

6:15 P. M.
WNAC—Matinee Idols.
WBZA—Riverside Ramblers.

6:30 P. M.
WNAC—Sports review.
WBZA—Blackbirds.
WEEI—(6:35) News.
WHDH—News.
WLOE—Junior Record hour; variety program.

6:45 P. M.
WNAC—Crime Club.
WBZA—Topics in Brief.
WEEI—Uncle Abe and David.
WHDH—Dooley's Orchestra.

7:00 P. M.
WNAC—Morton Downey.
WBZA—Amos 'n' Andy.
WEEI—Irish Minstrels.

7:15 P. M.
WNAC—Ritz-Carlton Orchestra.
WBZA—Tastyeast Jesters.

7:30 P. M.
WBZA—Joysters.
WEEI—Valspar Club. Ted Lewis.
WLOE—Song program.

7:45 P. M.
WBZA—Violinist.
WLOE—Gov. Winant.

8:00 P. M.
WNAC—Pryor's Band.
WBZA—Dixies Circus.
WEEI—Weber and Fields.
WLOE—Musical Maid.

8:15 P. M.
WNAC—Baker dance music.
WBZA—Baritone.
WEEI—Radiotron Varieties.
Lew Conrad, Reading; Melody Lewis, contralto; orchestra, under the direction of Freddy Rich.

8:30 P. M.
WNAC—Silversmiths.

8:30 P. M.
WBZA—Big Man.
Vee Lawnhurst, pianist vocalist; Earl Spicer, baritone; the Dandy Boys, vocal trio; orchestra, direction Don Voorhees.
WEEI—Weber and Fields reception.
WLOE—Song program.

8:45 P. M.
WNAC—Mary Charles.

9:00 P. M.
WNAC—Chevrolet Chronicles.
Trister Rum, personal experiences; Chevrolet Orchestra, direction of Speed Black.
WBZA—Variety program.
WEEI—General Electric hour.
Orchestra under the direction of Walter Damrosch; "Adventures in Science," Floyd Gibbons.
WLOE—Talk.

9:30 P. M.
WNAC—Cocoanut Grove music.
WBZA—Domino Orchestra.

10:00 P. M.
WNAC—Show Boat.
WBZA—Cuckoos.
WEEI—Lucky Strike Orchestra.

10:30 P. M.
WBZA—Ciara, Lue and Em.

11:00 P. M.
WBZA—Billboard; Hungry Five.

11:06 P. M.
WNAC—Baseball scores; news.
WEEI—News.

11:15 P. M.
WNAC—Denny Music.
WBZA—RKO Review.
WEEI—Busse Orchestra.

11:30 P. M.
WNAC—Lombardo music.

11:45 P. M.
WEEI—Little Jack Little.

12 MID.
WNAC—Lown music.

12:30 A. M.
WNAC—Nocturne.

Outside Stations

WEAN—Providence	780 Kil. 384 M.
WJAR—Providence	890 Kil. 337 M.
WORC—Worcester	1200 Kil. 250 M.
WTAG—Worcester	580 Kil. 517 M.
WCSH—Portland	940 Kil. 319 M.

6:00 P. M.
WEAN—Melodists.
WJAR—Highroad of Adventure.
WORC—Melodists.
WTAG—Bancroft Ensemble.
WCSH—Dinner Concert.

6:15 P. M.
WEAN—Matinee Idols.
WJAR—Hawaiians.
WORC—Matinee Idols.
WCSH—News.

6:30 P. M.
WEAN—Sports review.
WORC—Sports review.
WTAG—Sports report; music.
WCSH—Federal program.

6:45 P. M.
WEAN—Yankee Network recital.
WJAR—Uncle Abe and David.
WORC—Recital.
WTAG—Uncle Abe and David.
WCSH—Uncle Abe and David.

7:00 P. M.
WEAN—News.
WJAR—Tastyeast Jesters.
WORC—Morton Downey.
WTAG—Concert.
WCSH—Vocal soloist.

7:15 P. M.
WEAN—Ritz-Carlton Orchestra.
WJAR—Laws Safeguarding Society.
WORC—Ritz-Carlton Orchestra.
WTAG—Laws Safeguarding Society.
WCSH—Laws Safeguarding Society.

7:30 P. M.
WJAR—Ted Lewis' Band.
WTAG—Valspar Club; Ted Lewis.
WCSH—Valspar Club; Ted Lewis.

8:00 P. M.
WEAN—Pryor's Band.
WJAR—Weber and Fields.
WORC—Pryor's Band.
WTAG—Weber and Fields.
WCSH—Weber and Fields.

8:15 P. M.
WEAN—Ben Alley, with organ.
WJAR—Radiotron Varieties.
WORC—Ben Alley, with organ.
WTAG—Radiotron Varieties.
WCSH—Radiotron Varieties.

8:30 P. M.
WEAN—Rhodes on the Pantyuat.
WJAR—Silver Flute.
WORC—Goodman Orchestra.
WTAG—Bancroft Orchestra.
WCSH—Silver Flute.

8:45 P. M.
WORC—Mary Charles.

9:00 P. M.
WEAN—Chevrolet Chronicles.
WJAR—General Electric Hour.
WORC—Five Undercurrents.
WTAG—General Electric Hour.
WCSH—General Electric Hour.

9:30 P. M.
WEAN—Renard Orchestra.

9:30 P. M.
WEAN—Show Boat.
WJAR—Lucky Strike Dance Orchestra.
WORC—Show Boat.
WTAG—Lucky Strike Dance Orchestra.
WCSH—Lucky Strike Orchestra.

WEAN—Baseball scores; news.
WJAR—News.
WORC—Denny music.
WTAG—News.
WCSH—News.

11:15 P. M.
WEAN—Denny Orchestra.
11:30 P. M.
WEAN—Lombardo Orchestra.
WORC—Busse Orchestra.
WTAG—Silver Slipper Orchestra.
WEAN—Bert Lown's Orchestra.
12:30 A. M.
WEAN—Nocturne.

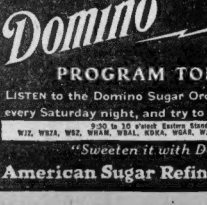
ON THE AIR

COMING OUT OF THE ETHER tonight. . . . Howls and moans will echo over the loudspeaker tonight when Fields, in the role of a jeenist, applies his "painless system" to Walter Winchell, WEEI at 8. . . . Cuban rumba music and the Viennese waltz will form the background for a new series, the Domino orchestra, heard over WBZA at 9:30. . . .

SUNDAY brings some luminous programs. A tribute to Knute Rockne will be paid by Joe Medicott, B. C. football coach, on WBZA at 3:15. . . . Explanation of "Oedipus Rex," the first musical drama to be broadcast from the stage of the Metropolitan Opera House, will be given by Leopold Stokowski, conductor of the Philadelphia Symphony, over WBZA at 8:15. The opus itself will be heard on the air the 31st. . . . As a contribution to Foot Health Week talks on the care of the feet will be heard on WEEI at 12:45.

MONDAY offers many first rate features. From WBZA at 10:30 p. m. the Right Honorable R. B. Bennett, prime minister of Canada will be heard during a meeting of the York Bible Association in Toronto . . . Homer Rodeheaver, for 20 yrs. song leader for Billy Sunday, starts a series of poem readings o'er WEEI at noon . . . Lowell Thomas comes to town to study the new England economic situation and his talks nightly will be heard as usual from WBZA at 6:45. Only this week his discourse will be based on the facts he has acquired while in town . . . Helene Madison and Georgia Helene Madison and Georgia Coleman, famous swimmers, will talk about their feats in the recent National Indoor meet, on WBZA at 1:35.

HOT AIR NEWS . . . When the Seth Parker troupe comes to Symphony Hall, April 28, Lizzie, the town gossip, will be conspicuous by her gabble. Lizzie in real life is Phil Lord's mother-in-law. . . . The CBS b'casts of the Sunday Philharmonic concerts end tomorrow, but will be back on the air the fall . . . B'casts from airplanes have been heard before but never a musical program. Such an affair is being attempted this afternoon at 2:45 when Reis and Dunn, radio entertainers, fly over N. Y. and sing to a WOR mike.—M. G. M.



Domino
No. 8
PROGRAM TONIGHT!
LISTEN to the Domino Sugar Orchestra tonight and every Saturday night, and try to keep your feet still!
9:30 to 10 o'clock Eastern Standard Time
WJZ, WBZA, WBZ, WHAM, WBAL, KDKA, WGAR, WJR, WLW, KYW, KWK, WREN
"Sweeten it with Domino"
American Sugar Refining Company

LISTENING POST

BILL WILLIAMS, who handles things having to do with the sporting world over at WBZ, was elated today when he informed us that the first time in the history of the famous Marathon on Patriots' Day the event would be broadcast. WBZ will have microphones at the finish line and reporters along the route. It will be manned by some of that listeners will hear who is in the lead. When the victorious beat and toe athlete crosses the tape, he will do his radio bit, according to Bill. That is, if he has the wind with which to say how it feels to win the great race.

* * *

FOR THE SECOND time on record, a radio station program has been employed to break down the defense of a man on trial for murder. The case is right here in New England, that of Elliot Hathaway. A witness told of a program he was listening to from WGY, Schenectady during which time he also states there was no car in the lane where Hathaway claims to have been. The station program checks with the assertion of the witness.

* * *

ONCE BEFORE, cut West, a defendant was practically acquitted when he claimed he was listening to Lowell Thomas at the time the crime was committed. He told what he had heard and his memory probably saved his life.

* * *

THIS NEW Columbia Feature, Fortune Builders, telling how rich men made it all, will perhaps aid many stragglers on the ladder of success.

* * *

NAMES IS NAMES: Alice Lamb, dramatic lady with WEEI, is quite gentle, never having been known to close her temper.

* * *

THAT MELODIOUS stage star, Rosetta Duncan, is heading the Boston or K. C. halfhour tonight from 11:15 to 11:45. This period has been extended from its usual 15-minute duration, owing to popular demand.

* * *

HERE ARE SOME additional call letters of stations and what they stand for:

WCCO—(Minneapolis) Washburn Crosby Co.

KSTP—(St. Paul) Just plain St. Paul.

WLS—(Chicago) World's Largest Store.

KTHS.—(Hot Springs) Kum Te Hot Springs.

WEBH—(Chicago—Where Everybody's Happy.

WHO CAN work out some more of these to help the "colyum?"

* * *

EVERYONE seems real elated over the fact that The Boston American came back to the air audience next Tuesday morning at 7:45 through WAAB (1410 Kl. 212.6 M.) time to Listening Peekers. Also remember the midnight party going out on the ether waves Monday night to celebrate the new station's debut.

* * *

LOWELL THOMAS bows to Boston on Tuesday, too. The famed Literary Digest radio narrator, is the guest of Advertising Club guest of honor at its luncheon in the Statler Hotel at 12:15.

N. F. T.

ENJOY AN EVENING WITH

SETH PARKER

AND HIS ENTIRE JONESPORT CAST

SETH PARKER...Phillips H. Lord
Ma Parker.....Effie Palmer
Lizzie.....Mrs. Phillips H. Lord
Cefus.....Bennett Kilpack
Justin Lawrie.....Justin Lawrie
The Colonel.....Raymond Buxton
John.....Norman Price
June.....Mary Merker
Mrs. Hooper.....Gertrude Foster
Organist.....Polly Robertson

SYMPHONY HALL
Tuesday Eve., Apr. 28, at 8:15
Tickets: $1.00, $1.50 and $2.00
Now on sale at Box Office

TRENDS may come and go. Styles shift like drifting sands in the winds of fashion, but Ram's Head blue—deep, rich, luxurious blue—is as lasting as the ages.

Lasting in wear and color, Ram's Head blues in cheviots, serges or unfinished worsteds, give you that satisfying smartness you seek in a neat blue suit.

American Woolen Company
Executive Offices, Boston, Mass.

RAM'S HEAD FABRICS
"STYLES THAT SET THE STYLE"

News and Gossip of Society Circles in and About Greater Boston

Hayden Girl Is Bride Today

Medford Junior Leaguer Weds Dr. Ludwig in Church Ceremony

THE LUDWIG-HAYDEN WEDDING takes place today at the Leslie Lindsay Memorial Chapel on Newbury st. at 4 o'clock and is to be followed by a reception at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Charles M. Hayden, at 43 Water st., Medford. Miss Hayden is being attended by her sister, Mrs. Richard L. Rablin (Jessie Hayden) and Dr. Ludwig has Dr. Eugene Charles Eppinger of Walla Walla, Washington, as his best man.

THE USHERS ARE EDWARD Ludwig, Dr. John Week Miller, Richard Loring Rablin, Dr. Joan Newall, Dr. Richard Collins and Arthur Force. Miss Hayden made her debut in the winter of 1926-27 and is a member of the Junior League. Dr. Ludwig was graduated from Harvard in 1926 and the Harvard Medical School in 1930. The couple will reside on Charles st. in Boston after their wedding trip.

THE MARRIAGE OF MISS Emily Logan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Puryear Logan, of Kansas City, Mo., to Frederick Humphrey Nichols, son of Mr. and Mrs. Humphrey Turner Nichols of Lime st., Beacon Hill, takes place today in the Chapel of St. George's Church in New York. Only relatives and a few friends are attending and the Rev. Karl Reiland is officiating at the ceremony. Miss Logan is a graduate of Westover school and is a member of the Kansas City Junior League.

MR. NICHOLS WAS GRADUATED from Harvard in 1924 where he was a member of the Institute of 1770, D. K. E., Mary Cudding and Signet Clubs. He was president of the Lampoon and Ivy orator of his class. He is a member of the Harvard Club of New York and the Tennis and Racquet of Boston. He is with the advertising firm of Batten, Barton, Durstine and Osborn, Inc., of New York. Mr. Nichols and his bride will make their home at 12 East 97th st., New York, after a trip to Bermuda.

George T. Rice of Westwood Weds in Ireland Today

AN INTERESTING WEDDING takes place today at Belgrade Castle, Clondalkin, Dublin County, Ireland, when Mr. George T. Rice of Westwood is married to Miss Sheila Cornwallis Maude, daughter of Capt. and Mrs. Anthony F. Maude. Many Boston people have gone over for the ceremony, among them Mr. Rice's mother, Mrs. Robert F. Herrick and Mr. Herrick, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur T. Lyman of Brookline, Dedham, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cunningham of Dedham, who are cousins of Mr. Rice. Mr. Rice is the son of the late George T. Rice. He is a member of the Somerset Club and the Norfolk Hunt Club. The bridal couple will travel in Europe after their marriage and on their return to this country will make their home in Westwood.

GRAFTON SMITH OF HAMILTON was given a birthday party by his wife and friends at the Mayfair this week, a large birthday cake being served by the management.

BLUE RIBBONS WERE awarded Miss Susan Flint for her lithographs and Mrs. Langdon Parsons for her hand-blocked wrap, at the recent exhibition held by the regional arts and interests conference in Worcester. Other awards were given to Miss Katherine Sturgis for pencil drawings, Miss Elizabeth Bolton-stall for charcoal sketches, Miss Nancy Adams for textile designs, Mrs. Lester Harding for book-plates, Mrs. Alfred Frenning for pencil sketches, Miss Marion Whiteside for water colors, Miss Aimee Lamb pastels and Miss Alida Gulick for needlepoint. Good for the Boston J. L.

Leaders to Conduct Annual Book Week for Merchant Ships

THE ANNUAL MASSACHUSETTS book week for the American Merchant Marine Library Association will be conducted by the Junior League of Boston from April 20 to April 25. The drive to collect books for this charitable organization which makes up traveling library boxes for distribution to merchant ships, lighthouses and life-saving stations is this year being directed by a library committee of the Junior League headed by Mrs. R. Gilpin Ervin as chairman, and Miss Elizabeth Scaife as vice-chairman. Among Boston women who have long been interested in this work are Mrs. I. Tucker Burr, Mrs. Theodore G. Bremer, Mrs. George R. Fearing, Mrs. Henry W. Harris, Miss Katherine Loring, Mrs. Carl L. Schrader, Mrs. Francis E. Slattery, Mrs. Stephen M. Weld, Mrs. Barrett Wendell.

BOOKS MAY BE LEFT AT any public library marked "for seamen" and the following Junior League girls will collect them: The Misses Marian Dalton, Alice Means, Adelaide Sims, Mrs. Thomas Howard, Mrs. Charles Higginson, Mabel Bell, Joanne Sargeant, Elizabeth Hovey, Elizabeth Wheeler, Katherine Watson, Isabel Potter, Mrs. Henry Kidder, Mrs. W. Edgar Crosby, Priscilla Simonds, Priscilla Bramhall, Katherine Hurd, Ellen Cushing, Elizabeth Harding, Katherine Harding, Katherine Rust and Rossmond Rust.

THE THEODORE FROTHINGHAMS with their daughter, Miss Dorothea, who have been spending the winter in Italy, will return in June and go to Bar Harbor for the summer, as they have rented their house at Islesboro for the season.

Betty Alden

SOCIETY GIRLS FIND BOOKS FOR SHIPS

MISS POTTER — Miss Isobel Potter, Miss Alice Means are on the Junior League committee to collect books for the American Maritime Association Library.

MISS HOVEY — Miss Elizabeth Hovey and Miss Potter's engagement to Mr. Richard Olney, Jr., was announced this spring. She is a member of the Junior League and Vincent Club and is active in local charity work.

MISS MEANS — was married today in Ireland to Mr. George T. Rice of Westwood.

Japs Offer $25,000 for Non-Stop Hop

Toyko, April 18 (AP)—A prize of $25,000 for the first foreigner making a nonstop transpacific flight between Japan and the United States proper was announced today by Asahi, one of the leading newspapers of Osaka and Tokyo.

In the event a Japanese is first to make the flight, the prize will be $50,000. The offer will hold until April 20, 1932.

GOSSIP IN THE SHOPS

About People You Know in Boston Stores

By FRANCES L. BAIRD

PLAN GOLF TOURNAMENT

The time and place for the annual June golf tournament for members of the Sales Managers' Club and of the Executives' Club of the Chamber of Commerce will be fixed at a meeting of the committee on arrangements, early next week.

This event is sponsored by the Retail Trade Board, and is eagerly anticipated by scores of business men now preparing to enter the contest. The committee this year is composed of Bert Hoxie, Shepard's; B. G. Hawkins, Jordan's; Harold Hodgkinson, Filene's and Frank Vorenberg, Gilchrist's. Henry Davis is president of the Salesmanagers Club and E. C. Johnson is president of the Executive Club Many courses are bidding for the tournament this year.

MISS HUMPHREY TO WED

Miss Grace Humphrey, who has been modelling for the Debonair Shop at Hollander's since its presentation, is leaving that organization today to prepare for her marriage next month.

She was given a farewell dinner party by her Debonair associates last night at the home of Miss Ruth McKinney, buyer, and presented with a token of their affection. Attending the party were Miss McKinney, Mrs. Mildred Jennings, Miss Esther Archer, Miss Kay Brown, Miss Jean Lawson, Mrs. Esther Lowe, Miss Anna Hayes, Miss Ann Doherty, Miss Faith Garrison, Miss Esther Uman, Miss Marie Reynolds, Miss Virginia Farnum, Miss Louise Belknap, Miss Betty Betts and Miss Gertrude Fitzherbert.

COYNE TAKES BRIDE

The marriage of Henry P. Coyne, merchandise manager for Hovey's Basement store, and Miss Ann Sadowski will be solemnized at 4 o'clock today at St. Peter's church, South Boston.

The bride will be attended by her sister, Miss Delia Sadowski, and Thomas Forristal of Auburndale will be best man. There will be no reception.

Immediately following the ceremony the couple will leave for Bermuda where they will spend their honeymoon.

MRS. ROGAL ADVANCES

A golf score of 97, made on the Belmont Country Club links yesterday, resulted in Mrs. Sidney Rogal, wife of the vice-president of Morgan's, being advanced to play on the second team of the central district of the Massachusetts Women's Golf Assn. Mrs. Rogal has outdistanced her husband in the game. She will play in team matches next Tuesday and again next Thursday, seeking the championship for her team.

PLAYLET AT SHEPARD'S

A playlet, entitled "Short Returns and Encores" was given by store members of Shepard's under the direction of Miss Caroline Hincks, educational director, yesterday for employes.

In the cast were Mrs. Millicent Roescher, infants' wear; Miss Frances Rubin, dresses; Miss Mary Cross, patterns; Miss Robina Alvarenga, men's store; Miss Jessie Mara, boys' department; Miss Mary Sharvan, linens; Mrs. Florence Woodward, dresses; Billy Bureau, silks; Miss Camille Brown, thoroughfare; and Fred Godkin, shoes.

SURPRISE PARTY

Members of Gilchrist's Basement Store surprised Benjamin Gainsborg, buyer of men's and boys' clothing, with an anniversary party at his home this week. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Levine, Mr. and Mrs. James Shanahan, Miss Rose Picard, William Canavan, Miss Rose Dollin, William Weber, Lou Miller, Nicholas Cardinelli, Frances Cohen, Miss Hedricks, Bernard Silber, James Prenergast, Jesse Simmons and Morris Givno.

DRIVERS HOLD DINNER

The importance of courtesy to customers on the part of drivers as well as salespersons was pointed out by William H. McLeod, advertising manager, at the annual Filene drivers' dinner, held at the Hotel Kenmore.

Laurence S. Bitner, store manager, Leonard Libbey, chairman, John Larkin, Harold Bross, Milton Sunderland and Joseph Kord were other executives among the 35 store members attending the affair.

COLTON AT LUNCHEON

Senator Frederick Colton of Lexington was honor guest at an informal luncheon, held at the Chamber of Commerce yesterday, by officers of that body and of the Retail Trade Board. In the group were Sidney S. Conrad, president of Conrad & Co., and president of the Retail Trade Board; P. A. O'Connell, president of E. T. Slattery Co. and vice-president of the board; Harold P. Janisch, vice-president of the National Shawmut Bank and a director of the Chamber of Commerce; Capt. John Parr, Jordan's men's store; Daniel Bloomfield, secretary of the board, and M. D. Liming, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce.

STORE SNAPSHOTS

Sidney Cook, president of A. Stowell's, and Donne Cook, store manager, attending Prof. McNair's lecture last night . . . A. M. Horn, treasurer of Shreve, Crump & Low vacationing in Bermuda . . . Mme. Fania Lurie, in charge of jewelry at Esther Abelson's, singing for the Women's Musicians Club last night . . . Will Brown, sales promotion manager for Hovey's, sipping coffee with Katharine Casey, New York stylist, in Schraffts . . . Harold A. Newton, publicity director for Summerfield's, and Mrs. Newton, starting for New York today . . . 40 buyers for Shepard's attending a fashion lecture by Miss Caroline Hincks, educational director, today . . . Ackley Slee, assistant service superintendent for Filene's, resolving to keep his golf score over 100 during the holiday.

Backache bother you?

If miserable with backache, Kidney irregularities and getting up at night, don't take chances! Help your kidneys at the first sign of disorder. Use Doan's Pills. Successful for more than 50 years. Endorsed by hundreds of thousands of grateful users. Get Doan's today. Sold by dealers everywhere.

DOAN'S PILLS

A DIURETIC FOR THE KIDNEYS

Added Touch Makes Gown Smart

By ANN ARDEN

"IT'S NOT so much what you do as the way you do it." And "the way" this season runs in the direction of all those little accessories which add interest to dressing. The dress itself, or the suit may be quite plain. Then it is the added touch that brings the whole thing into the limelight and makes of it a notable creation.

* * *

GREEN IS charming in a light shade, contrasted with accessories in a darker tone. The costume pictured has many style points of interest. It is a Vionnet model gown developed in flat crepe toned opaline green. The skirt portion has graceful fullness from the typically Vionnet square sections of material about the hipline; the little shoulder cape makes the frock so very versatile, and the soft drape of material about the neck is held by a cluster of gardenias placed in the new fashion. The black patent leather belt wears its buckle amusingly at the center back.

* * *

THE BAG is of black patent leather, smartly roomy; gloves and slippers are black. The hat is one of Agnes' casual wool affairs, rolled off the forehead and marked by cluster of formal flowers, repeating the patent note.

* * *

THE CAPELET idea seems to be growing for both evening and daytime wear. Any number of the new French evening costumes are topped by a colorful cape—often no longer than to cover the arms to the elbow. Louisboulanger shows a tiny cloth cape with a plaid taffeta daytime costume.

* * *

THE MORAL, if any, pointed by these charming frocks, is that two pieces are often better than one.

* * *

MME. AGNES seems to be going in for a bit of private horticulture this season. At least many of her newest hats have a posy charmingly placed on them and she suggests wearing the same flower upon the bodice of one's gown. A garland of camelias circles the rim of one model—two of the camelias are worn at the base of the frock neckline. A very fetching touch.

* * *

SINCE COLOR is the dominant theme of the entire spring mode, it is important that smart women do not make glaring mistakes in the colors which they contrast or blend.

* * *

HAVE YOU tried arranging spring costume flowers to carry out the color contrast scheme of your frock or suit? You can put several different shades of flowers together to form a nosegay. Costume flowers this season are much less tailored and much more feminine in arrangement. Festoons and garlands worn about the neckline are increasingly smart.

* * *

ANN ARDEN will answer questions concerning clothes, social customs or fashions generally. Address your questions to the Boston Evening American or the Boston Sunday Advertiser.

CHIC ACCESSORIES

MODEL from WM. FILENE'S SONS CO.—American Staff Photo

Clarence S. Coombs Dead

Haverhill, April 18—Clarence S. Coombs, 74, widely known real estate dealer of 731 Main st., died at his home last night.

Grain Man Willing to Bet Drouth Over

Chicago, April 18 (AP)—John F. Barrett, grain man, is looking to the rain drops for another free vacation. Garrett, who returned yesterday from a sojourn in California, paid for by persons who took his bet in January that there would be no more zero weather in this vicinity from that time until spring, said wet days were ahead.

"I've been studying the northwest winds and the way of the new moon," he said, "and there won't be any drouth. I offer wagers to anyone who wants them."

Jewish Club Gives Play Monday

By NANCY BREWSTER

The Boston Section, National Council of Jewish Women, will hold its annual drama day next Monday at Temple Israel Meeting House, Longwood ave. and Riverway, at 2 p. m. "Let It Go at That," by Essex Dane, directed by Freda Aitman, will be offered by a cast of club members.

The roles will be played by Mrs. Saul Berman, Mrs. Bernard Brody, Mrs. David Lewis, Mrs. Jesse Stern, Mrs. Samuel Rosen, Mrs. Raymond Ginsberg and Mrs. Harry N. Guterman.

Mrs. Harold Goldberg and Mrs. Berthold Stern have been named stage assistants. Mrs. Hyman Freiman, former president of the Boston council, will be the hostess of the afternoon.

CLUB CALENDAR

FOR MONDAY

ST. VINCENT'S ORPHAN GUILD: Mrs. Martin H. Fannon, president of the guild, announces another of the weekly bridge and whist parties to be held at the orphan home, 45 Guyette rd., Cambridge, with Mrs. Louis G. Cote in charge.

SOUTH END WOMEN'S CLUB: Mrs. S. S. Sutcliffe, chairman of the civil and community service committee will present at Monday's meeting in the assembly hall at 20 Union Park, at 2 p. m. Capt. John Anderson as the evening's speaker. Hostesses for the evening are to be Mrs. Jennie Howe and Mrs. Agatha Razoux.

FOR TUESDAY

ST. VINCENT'S ORPHAN GUILD: Another bridge and whist party, this to be held at the guild headquarters, St. Rose Hall, 17 Worcester st., Boston with Mrs. William H. O'Connell and Miss B. M. Riley as hostesses.

ST. JOSEPH'S HOME: Card party on schedule at the home, 321 Center st., Dorchester for 8:30 p. m. Mrs. John Dargin assisted by the Dorchester committee, in charge.

WOLLASTON WOMAN'S CLUB: Exchange program to be presented by the dramatic committee of the Milton Woman's Club for this membership at Masonic Temple at 2 p. m. Mrs. George Campbell heads the hospitality committee.

Little Entente to Hold Conference

Prague, Czechoslovakia, April 18 (AP)—A conference of the Little Entente has been summoned at Bucharest at the beginning of May to establish a uniform attitude toward the projected Austro-German economic union.

There Is No Substitute for Earnings

And in . . .

A REGULAR 7% plus the right to participate up to another 3%

Hearst Consolidated Publications, Inc.

7% CUMULATIVE PARTICIPATING CLASS A STOCK

Preferred as to Assets and Dividends

the careful investor will find a long history of high, stable earnings—earnings sufficient to assure an adequate, regular return in good years and bad.

During 1930, a year of generally retarded business conditions, earnings of constituent companies, available for dividends, amounted to over $4.00 a share on all this Class A Stock to be presently outstanding.

Many years of profitable operation, able and aggressive management, and signal achievement have made the twelve publishing enterprises of this group outstanding in their communities. These twelve enterprises include ten great metropolitan daily newspapers, plus The American Weekly, with the greatest circulation of any periodical in the world, and the American Newsprint Company, furnishing paper to the western group. These names are familiar to newspaper readers from Coast to Coast:

New York Journal
Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph
San Francisco Examiner
Los Angeles Examiner
Oakland Post-Enquirer
Chicago American
Detroit Times
San Francisco Call-Bulletin
Los Angeles Herald
Seattle Post-Intelligencer
—also—
The American Weekly
American Newsprint Company

These publications, reaching the prominent market centers of the nation, provide not only a virtual necessity of everyday life, but are recognized as a fundamental advertising medium.

Dividends are payable quarterly at the annual rate of 7% on this Class A Stock. In addition, the stock has the right to participate in further dividends, as declared, up to an extra 3%.

PRICE $25 A SHARE

ALSO AVAILABLE ON THE PARTIAL PAYMENT PLAN FOR AS LITTLE AS

$5 Down and $2 Monthly a Share

All payments earn 7% interest from the day received

Application will be made to list this Class A stock on the New York Curb, and the Chicago, San Francisco and Los Angeles Stock Exchanges. Dividends are exempt from normal Federal Income Tax.

HEARST CONSOLIDATED PUBLICATIONS, INC.

Subscription to this stock will be received at the New England Newspaper Publishing Company business office, Stock Sales Department, 5 Winthrop Square, Boston, Mass., or at the cashier's office of any Hearst newspaper, or corporation in the United States.

NEW ENGLAND NEWSPAPER PUBLISHING COMPANY,
Stock Sales Department,
5 Winthrop Square, Boston, Mass.
Kindly send full details about 7% shares.

Name .....

Address .....

.....

4-20

Stage ◆ Screen ◆ Music

VAUDEVILLE FLAPS ITS WINGS

By NICHOLAS YOUNG

THE SAGACIOUS and ancient gentleman who penned the famous line concerning clouds and their silver linings, could have had in mind no more than a passing thought for the poor old drama. For the better part of this season the theater's gilded ornaments have exhibited more tarnish than lustre, and everybody is still waiting for the clouds to turn silvery. But there is some consolation, if not encouragement. Ed Wynn has kept "Simple Simon" on the road since last September. And vaudeville, it seems, in approaching a rising market.

* * *

FOR SOME TIME there have been unmistakable evidences that sudeville, such as good old-fashioned knock-about frame singing sisters, condensed magic and what not, be coaxing paying audiences into our best palaces of cinema. More recently, in the higher sanctums of RKO, flesh and blood entertainment has been accorded official approval and a helping hand. There are many signs that vaudeville is anxious to once more take its place in the theatrical sun, and willing to put up a lively contest on its own behalf. Perhaps the silver lining of the drama's shaded hours may be discovered in this revival of interest in the song and dance man.

Nicholas Young

* * *

IF YOU ARE WILLING, for the sake of argument, to include impressive stage shows with what the old-time theatergoer termed as vaudeville, you are compelled to acknowledge the pulling power of flesh and blood in the better tabernacles of amusement. Of all the show places downtown, the four making full use of vaudeville and stage productions are the four box office leaders in the entire field. These, as you must know, are the Scollay, the Orpheum, the RKO Boston and the Metropolitan. At each of these houses, in one form or another, the motion picture is more or less subjugated to strictly stage acts. At the Scollay and the Metropolitan minitures musical comedy productions are danced before the eye, at the RKO Boston and Orpheum there is vaudeville of the brand that once upon a time got your grandpop all stirred up and sent him home in a fever.

* * *

JUST AS STYLES may be expected to change in shirts and shoes, so may styles change in entertainment. The rise of pictures and the decline of spoken drama are exhibits that tell their own story. Not more than a few seasons ago every thoughtful drama writer had said vaudeville was dead, just as some of us are now insisting that burlesque has had—and perhaps enjoyed—its own and obsequies. But vaudeville was not so much of a corpse as the doctors declared. And now I am wondering if we have not been a little hasty rushing burlesque into its mausoleum.

Music and Magic, Mirth and Murder Find Place in the New Week's Drama Schedule

MAIRE O'NEILL

MISS O'NEILL, is a loyal daughter of old Erin in "The Patch," at the Plymouth.

ANNA MAY WONG AND CRANE WILBUR

AN ORIENTAL touch is what Miss Wong seems to be applying to Mr. Wilbur. The lady is persuasive; the gentleman appears reluctant. However, it is all on view in "On the Spot," at the Wilbur.

JUAN VARRO, ROD LA ROCQUE AND GAVIN MUIR

TWO BATTLING lads in "Cherries Are Ripe" had not taken into account the friendly interest of Mr. La Rocque, who in good movis fashion checks an expected effusion of blood. (Colonial.)

ROSETTA DUNCAN

SPIRITED headliner in vaudeville is Miss Duncan now appearing at RKO Boston.

ALL SCHUMANN PROGRAM AT SYMPHONY

By MOSES SMITH

Hearing the program at this week's Boston Symphony concerts the listener realizes that he likes Schumann's music or he doesn't. For there is no other music to hear. Serge Koussevitsky, who does nothing by halves, arranged a miniature Schumann "festival," beginning with the Overture to Byron's "Manfred," ending with the First Symphony, and connecting the two with the 'Cello Concerto.

No doubt the soloist, Gregor Piatigorsky, Russian 'cellist not yet out of his twenties, occasioned this program by his choice of the Concerto. For his extraordinarily brilliant and musical playing, for his exhibition of faultless artistry mated with a virtuosity that was not vainglorious, we are grateful. A beautiful singing tone, ever mellow yet keen, helps to place him among the great masters of the world. His beautiful performance, assisted by an excellent accompaniment, was enthusiastically applauded by yesterday's matinee audience.

For the choice of the Concerto there is not as much to be said. Presumably 'cellists must pay homage occasionally to this work, product of a master. And of course there are beautiful pages in it. But with the gold is much dross. Often it is a bore. It did not gain yesterday by comparison, situated as it was between the Byronic moods and passions of "Manfred" and the vernal rhapsodies (quite seasonal, incidentally) of the "Spring" Symphony.

The Overture, a masterpiece of Schumann's maturity, was beautifully played, passionately, dramatically, as it deserved. Over-eagerness marred the very opening tones of the Symphony; yet, occasional over-zealousness aside, the playing here, too, was extraordinarily brilliant. We should have liked a less disjointed slow movement. But you can't please everybody.

In such company, the Concerto, conceived in Schumann's declining years, came off third best.

Holiday Matinee

The Copley announces a holiday matinee on Monday afternoon of "Apartment 33."

Lissome Lass

SYLVIA SIDNEY

MISS SIDNEY bestows both talent and beauty upon "City Lights," at the Metropolitan.

DOUBLE FARE AT SCOLLAY

Marlene Dietrich in "Dishonored," as well as an entirely new vaudeville bill will be presented at the Scollay tomorrow at a special midnight show. On this new vaudeville bill, which will be current at the Scollay all next week, are a group of well-known vaudeville stars, who comprise the bill of seven acts.

Hamtree Harrington and Cora Green in a comedy on color entitled "Don't Let Nobody Come Out"; McGrath and Deeds in "The High and Low of Any Show"; Masters and Grayce in a talking, singing, dancing skit "Oh Harry"; Tuck and Homer in "Nautical Nonsense" are the highlights on this new stage show. Three other big-time turns are also billed.

IN "SOUP AND FISH" HE KNOCKS THE HOME RUN TO RICHES

FOR UNFORTUNATE sufferers of inferiority complex, a visit is earnestly recommended to good ole' "Doc" William Haines, who may be seen five times daily at Loew's State this week (no appointment necessary).

* * *

That hardy annual "A Tailor Made Man," blooms again on the silver screen, with highly appreciative audiences in attendance. Sam Wood has done a very creditable job with Haines' latest adaptation of the well-known stage play starring Grant Mitchell. Fans will remember Charles Ray in the silent version years ago. Joseph Cawthorn, stage veteran, adds another feather to his cap with his characterization of Huber, the German proprietor of a tailor shop in modern New York. He has given the hand of his daughter, dainty Dorothy Jordan, to the stern Ian Keith, eminent author and doctor of philosophy.

William Haines

Mr. Haines, starting out as a pants presser in old Huber's shop, proceeds to demonstrate that all the luggage needed for the long hike down the royal road to success is the "gift of gab," one book of psychology (written by the doctor), one "borrowed" "soup and fish," and one unlimited nerve. "Crashing the gates" in his stolen finery, our hero meets the head of a big department store at a social function, and impresses him with bits of "lifted" philosophy.

Here Director Wood may be suspected of poking a little fun at the nouveau riche. Hedda Hopper and Marjorie Rambeau, two sophisticated society mammas, are quite deluded by the good looking, cocky imposter. Thinking the tailor's assistant a big financier, they become quite undignified in their pursuit of him as a "catch" for their daughters. As is to be expected, these two old favorites squeeze every ounce of humor out of their meagre parts.

By a series of fortuitous events Haines rises to a position of responsibility in Nathan's emporium. With a super-secretary, who even seems to think for him, and a barrage of telephones, Haines keeps his audience in an uproar during one of the office scenes.

It is to be seriously doubted if some of Haines' ideas of putting money into circulation to relieve business depression such as giving a waiter a $50 tip (hush money) would make much of a hit with mercantile magnates. All this is Rokeun and gets the laughs, while Mr. Haines goes on his way making premature releases to the newspapers and quashing labor troubles in the store.

Merry Maid

DOROTHY JORDAN

MISS JORDAN is one of the best reasons for "A Tailored Made Man." (Loew's State.)

TO SEE NAPLES IS TO LIVE

At the Fine Arts today the first talking and singing film from Italy, "When Naples Sings," will be screened. For those not familiar with the language the producers have introduced English sub-titles.

As an added feature to the regular film program Sunday afternoon, the management will present the Durrell String Quartette in a program of chamber music, consisting of selections by Schubert, Pechon, Borodin, Gosse, Bloch and Mendelssohn. The members of the quartet are Josephine Durrell, Edith Roubound, Anna Golden and Mildred Bulley.

Presenting Custom Made Magic

HOWARD THURSTON

REMOVING rabbits from gentlemen's hats is only a small part of Mr. Thurston's job at the Tremont. Of course, he does all that kind of thing—and much more. Sketched by Charles Schmidt.

Friendly Thoughts on Vitamins

SALLY BLANE AND BARBARA STANWYCK

PASSING from labor to refreshment, Miss Blane suggests to Miss Stanwyck that a bite in time will keep hunger away and make everybody happy. It's in "Ten Cents a Dance" at RKO Keith's.

Plays Remaining

"Apartment 33" at the Copley. (Second week.) A new title for the play known last week as "Monkey." Richard Whorf turns detective for a night and unravels a dirty murder mystery.

* * *

Thurston, the magician, at the Tremont. (Second week.) Many experiments in magic, all of which baffle and confuse the spectator.

* * *

"On the Spot" at the Wilbur. (Third week.) Drama of the Chicago underworld in which the head gangster yields just once too often to a pretty face.

* * *

Vilma Banky and Rod La Rocque in "Cherries Are Ripe," at the Colonial. (Third week.) Proving, generally, that it does not pay to permit a best friend to monopolize the family fireside while hubby is absent.

* * *

"The Patch" at the Plymouth. (Second week.) An amusing comedy in which the Irish not only wonde but make complete conquest of America. The last week.

The New Films

LOEW'S STATE—William Haines and Dorothy Jordan in "A Tailor Made Man."

* * *

RKO KEITH'S—Barbara Stanwyck and Ricardo Cortez in "Ten Cents a Dance."

* * *

METROPOLITAN — Gary Cooper in "City Streets."

* * *

RKO BOSTON—Bill Boyd in "Beyond Victory."

* * *

LOEW'S ORPHEUM—Leila Hyams and Adolphe Menjou in "Men Call It Love."

* * *

TREMONT TEMPLE—Emmett Moore with films of Ireland.

* * *

UPTOWN—OLYMPIA—FENWAY—Barthelmess in "The Finger Points."

* * *

FINE ARTS—"When Naples Sings."

* * *

SCOLLAY—"Dishonored."

* * *

PARK—"The Lightning Flyer."

* * *

MODEEN — BEACON—"Three Girls Lost."

MENJOU STAR IN FARCE AT ORPHEUM

By HARRIS MORGAN

Another popular stage farce reaches the screen, "Men Call It Love," Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's picturization of the sparkling Vincent Lawrence play, "Among the Married." The picture is now at Loew's Orpheum for its first showing.

Adolphe Menjou is featured in this smart marital mixup. In the role of the golf champion Don Juan he fits as snugly as his tuxedo shoulders. Always the suave boulevardier, Menjou walks away with this part as though it were cut to order for him. Leila Hyams plays the wife who tries valiantly to be unfaithful to her husband, Norman Foster, and Mary Duncan, as someone else's wife, starts all the commotion by flirting with Foster. The difficulty, it appears, is that Menjou actually loves the other man's wife and thus her virtue is protected by a gallant conscience.

Hedda Hopper in a supporting role scores a triumph in witty sophistry. Robert Emmett Keene offers a sympathetic characterization as Miss Duncan's downtrodden husband.

"Prologue of 1931," Gus Edwards' talent-packed production presenting his latest crop of juvenile stage discoveries, tops the attractions on the vaudeville program. The embryo stars featured in this miniature extravaganza look to be among the best ever sponsored by the celebrated "star-maker" and each gives an exceptional account of himself.

The entertainment offered is highly diversified and ranges from individual and ensemble singing and dancing numbers to impersonations of outstanding stage and screen celebrities.

Lee, Les, Lee and Lee, comedy dancing quartette, are the comedy hits of the bill. They present a riotous burlesque dancing and slapstick offering that has its climax in their "take-off" on a Russian hockey and football team in action. Phil Fein and Florence Tennyson offer an entertaining talking and singing radio skit that is unique because of its novelty. James Burke and Eleanor Durkin are pleasing in their unusual comedy singing act. Franco and La Pell in a series of daring aerial feats provide the thrills on the bill.

POOR LADY'S TRULY NOT TO BLAME

By HARLEIGH SCHULTZ

BE IT EVER so humble, there is, after all, no place like home. Probably Monroe Owsley is wholly to blame; certainly he gives his pretty screen bride, Barbara Stanwyck, a woefully mean runaround in "Ten Cents a Dance," feature film at RKO Keith's. Alack-a-day, poor distressed thing that she is! She goes, with the fearlessness of the fly accepting the spider's invitation into the parlor, to the home of the unbelievably good rich man, and there you have it all in a nutshell.

* * *

THAT TALL DARK gentleman whom the flappers so much admire, Mr. Ricardo Cortez, is this man of wealth. By a twist the scenarists often make with a license akin to that which the posts entitle the ins among the patrons of Terpsichorean merry-go-round where the gay whirl costs but a dime per dance. It is left to the blondes and brunettes to dig out the gold for the proprietor, and themselves. Quite obviously, Mr. Cortez falls for the charms of the bewitching Barbara. Meanwhile, the lassie is happy only in looks; under the bright lights she smiles and trips it beauteously on the light fantastic toe. Yet at home it's a distinction with a vast difference; for Mr. Owsley proves a most ungrateful hubby.

Ricardo Cortez

BURNING THE CANDLE at both ends, he sinks lower and lower. In the snare of the sirens and the bootlegger, he begins pilfering from his employer, none other than Mr. Cortez, who has conveniently provided a job that gives access to the Cortez millions. Mr. Owsley hooks sums little and large, and big; until the auditors begin going over the books. Then the husband gets into an awful stew! He vents his wrath on the dear devoted wifey. She, adorable and adoring, falls back upon that old ruse that thousands of women since Salammbo have adopted in emergency; to save her beloved, she will call upon Mr. Cortez in the dead of night, and implore him, for the sake of life Mr. Owsley over the rough spots. But the fellow is such a bad egg that he accuses his wife, and learns—too late, of course—that she had done what she did, for love of him, and not of Mr. Cortez. The course of true love is then made easy. Rich man and poor dancehall girlie embrace, kiss—and somebody begins singing the song which, we are informed was the basis of this offering.

* * *

COLUMBIA MADE this picture, but will not be proud of it, for it comes after those glorious box office successes strung along like gems in a row—"The Criminal Code" and "The Last Parade," for instance. "Ten Cents a Dance" is not even good photoplay, its appeal will be, not on any technical or dramatical merit, but to fans who want to see the saxy angles "touched up brown." The story, not new, is unconvincing, and Lionel Barrymore's direction is anything but classy.

Keith's has some excellent short films, notably "Duffer Swings," another cracking good Johnny Farrell golf special.

Man Determined; Woman Defiant

ADOLPHE MENJOU AND LEILA HYAMS

INDICATIONS point only to a moment of armed neutrality between Mr. Menjou and Miss Hyams. Miss Hyams is deliciously unafraid. "Men Call It Love," at Loew's Orpheum.

Stage ✦ Screen ✦ Music

BETTY BRONSON WINS ROLE IN NEW PICTURE

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS
Universal Service Motion Picture Editor
(Copyright, 1931, Universal Service, Inc.)

LOS ANGELES, April 18—I have been almost afraid to write the story that Betty Bronson is going to play one of the leading roles in "Lover Come Back." I had Betty all cast in a Columbia picture six months ago and then, through some mix-up, the part was snatched from her.

She was a fine little soldier about it and never complained, and that is one reason why Harry Cohn has kept his eye open to give her a good part. Betty's is one of the strangest cases in motion pictures. She made an overwhelming success as "Peter Pan." She was the little girl type and when they tried to put her in grownup parts somehow the public didn't like it. Then came the talkies and times were harder than ever for Betty.

Louella O. Parsons

She even did a play to prove she could talk, but producers are sometimes difficult to convince. But now that she is back, maybe times will change for her. We hope so.. In the cast with Betty is that excellent actor, Jack Mulhall, Constance Cummings and Jameson Thomas. Eric Kenton is directing.

• • •

ONE OF the most interesting things to watch in motion pictured this next 10 months will be whether or not Clara Bow can stage a comeback. Paramount is giving her as many good plays as possible, billing her, exploiting her and trying to help the naughty red-head to overcome her unfortunate publicity. The letters we receive are about 50-50 for and against her. Some are bitter against little Bow, others feel sorry for her and hope she can overcome all the notoriety. Charles Starrett, New York stage actor, will be her leading man in William De Mille's play, "The Woman," Clara's next. He played the juvenile on the stage in New York in "The Royal Family" and is a young actor of some prominence. Stuart Walker, well known stage director, will direct. Please remember and call "The Woman" "The Secret Call," its new title.

• • •

YOUD BETTER keep your eye on Charles Butterworth. He is destined to have a spectacular career in Film National Pictures. Mr. Butterworth did such a good job in "The Mad Genius," John Barrymore's last picture, that everybody on the First National lot is talking about him. He will now play the featured role in "Merry Wives of Reno," Robert Lord's story, which he is directing. Goodness gracious, that ought to be a knockout. Speaking of First National, Warner Brothers and what have you, Frank Fay has gone to New York to make personal appearances with his picture, "God's Gift to Women."

• • •

SNAPSHOTS OF Hollywood collected at random: Mrs. HENRY KING entertains at luncheon in honor of MRS. THOMAS MEIGHAN. MACK SENNETT getting ready to put on the Mayfair show with plenty of ideas, too. HEBE DANIELS and her brother, MRS. PHYLLIS DANIELS, leaving for New York. BEN LYON disconsolate. MAE TY KEMP working hard for the Thalian Club party. POLLY MO-

Movie Clock

Feature photoplays in the picture theaters and their starting times today are as follows:

ORPHEUM—"Men Call It Love"; a. m., 9:15; p. m., 12:15, 2:30, 5:30, 9:30.
RKO KEITH-BOSTON—"Beyond Victory"; a. m., 9:37; p. m., 12:51, 4:09, 7:23; 10:13.
FINE ARTS—"While Naples Sings"; p. m., 1:40, 3:45, 5:56, 8:09, 9:52.
BEACON AND MODERN—"Three Girls Lost"; a. m., 9:06, 11:25; p. m., 1:45, 4:05, 6:25, 8:45.
UPTOWN—"The Finger Points"; p. m., 1:30, 3:50, 5:55, 7:25, 9:30.
LOEW'S STATE—"A Tailor Made Man"; p. m., 1, 3:10, 5:25, 7:55, 9:50.
BOWDOIN—"The Prodigal"; a. m., 8:50; p. m., 1:25, 5:30, 9:12.
EXETER—"Fighting Caravans"; p. m., 2:13, 6:15, 9:15.
PARK—"The Lightning Flyer"; a. m., 10:22; p. m., 12:45, 3:02, 5:19, 7:36, 9:53.
METROPOLITAN—"City Streets"; a. m., 10:50; p. m., 1:10, 3:30, 5:50, 8:10, 10:30.
KENMORE—"The Finger Points"; p. m., 1:30, 3:18, 5:28, 7:33, 9:45.
RKO-KEITH—"Ten Cents a Dance"; a. m., 9:15, 11:14; p. m., 1:21, 3:28, 5:35, 7:42, 9:49.
WASHINGTON ST. OLYMPIA—"The Finger Points"; a. m., 9:15, 11:20; p. m., 1:25, 3:30, 5:30, 7:35, 9:40.
SCOLLAY—"Ten Nights in a Barroom"; a. m., 11:34; p. m., 2:20, 6:40, 9:35.

RAN feeling much better. URSULA PARROTT arriving in town and being entertained at luncheon by NANCY SMITH. MR. AND MRS. BASIL BROWN getting ready to go to South America. They finish their trip by motoring from Mexico City to Los Angeles. That's all today.

Dead Composer Will Be Honored at Concert

The last concert of the Tuesday afternoon series by the Boston Symphony Orchestra will take place in Symphony Hall next Tuesday at three o'clock. Dr. Koussevitzky will then honor the memory of George W. Chadwick, who recently died, by performing "Noel" from his "Symphonic Sketches." Schumann's First Symphony will also be performed, and Stravinsky's "Capriccio for Piano and Orchestra" which has been introduced to America this season by Dr. Koussevitzky.

Horowitz Tomorrow

Vladimir Horowitz will give a recital, his only one of the season, tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 in Symphony Hall. The great pianist announces the following program: Liszt's Sonata in B minor; Bach's Chorale in G minor; Hummel's Rondo in E-flat major; Prokofieff's Toccata; Two Mazurkas, Two Etudes, and Polonaise in A-flat major, by Chopin.

Love Ties Score at Tie-Pulling

MARION DAVIES AND SIDNEY BLACKMER

THE SCENE is from Miss Davies' latest picture, "It's a Wise Child," in which the star is said to top all her screen triumphs. It will be shown in Boston theaters in a short time.

SCREEN CUE IS TO BELIEVE IT, OR NOT

"The Finger Points," brightlighting the name of Richard Barthelmess, holds its place on three screens, as the feature for the Olympia, the Uptown and the Fenway, following in the wake of "Dishonored." The new photoplay is another gang picture, one in the series evidently inspired by the slaying of Jake Lingle in Chicago last summer. Mr. Barthelmess is seen as the film reporter who becomes enmeshed in crookdom's toils. From down Dixie way he comes to the big city, proving so brilliant a newsgatherer, that his signed stories are splashed all over the front page. Thus does he open up on the vice ring in this absurd plot.

Richard Barthelmess

A very able director, John Francis Dillon, does his best against the odds of such a plot; where he can, he swings and sweeps his cameras with telling effect. Several sequences are tautly and tensely stirring, such as when the hero of the tale "gets his"; or when the auto crashes into a window after its driver is snuffed out of his mortal coil. The film is an unfortunate miscasting of the star; it becomes merely one of his minor pieces. Miss Wray is decorative, and the acting honors fall to Regis Toomey, as the tippling reporter, and to Clark Gable, as the gang leader. The dialogue is very faulty; the photography is very fine. H. S.

RING CHAMP AT HOWARD

Beginning with the midnight show tomorrow, the Old Howard will star the Italian fight champion, Primo Carnera. He will be assisted by boxing partners at every performance. Carnera, the "man - mountain," is the biggest man in fighting circles today and stands six feet, seven inches, and weighs 265 pounds. He has a reach that measures 84 inches and yet his waist line measures only 38 inches. There will be three complete burlesque shows on Monday and Saturday, beginning at 1:00, 4:30 and 8:00 p. m. Three midnight performances will also hold forth, Sunday and Friday.

Primo Carnera

Apart from the champion, the management offers a Mutual burlesque, "Cabaret Girls." The comedy is placed in the hands of Frank H. Silk. Others in the line-up are Frank Dufrane, Eloise Dwan, Armode Monte, Muriel Curtis, Tertra Schaffer, and Paul Jerome.

The vaudeville offers Marshall and Ford, and Peggy and Jack Roberts. The pictures are "Girl of the Port" and "Black Watch."

Bowdoin Square

There will be a midnight show at the Bowdoin Square tomorrow. Primo Carnera is the star. There will also be a special stage show, with seven big acts. The picture features are "East Lynne" and "Don't Bet on Women."

Pops Season to Open on Wednesday, May 6

Following the close of the 50th anniversary season of the Boston Symphony Orchestra, the Pop concerts will begin in Symphony Hall on Wednesday, May 6, at 8:30. This will be the 46th season of the famous Pops. The orchestra of more than 80 Symphony players will be conducted by Arthur Fiedler. This will be the second season under the talented young leader. Fiedler announces popular programs of a wide variety.

Amusements

THE OLD HOWARD
Boston's Leading Mutual Burlesque Theatre. Always Something Doing 1 Till 11
TOM'W (Sun.) Midnight Show at 12:01 A.M.
PRIMO CARNERA IN PERSON
The Italian Heavyweight Champion will show his goods at every performance assisted by boxing partners. This giant of the ring stands 6 feet 7 inches in height, weighs 265 pounds and is twenty-four years old.
SPECIAL PROGRAM, FOR WEEK
Sunday—Midnight Show at 12:01 A. M.
Wednesday—Midnight Show at 11:30 P. M.
Friday—Midnight Show at 11:30 P. M.
EXTRA PERFORMANCES FOR WEEK
Monday, April 20th, and Saturday, April 25th
There will be 3 Complete Burlesque Shows Commencing at 1:00 P. M., 4:30 P. M. and 8 P. M.
CABARET GIRLS' MUTUAL BURLESQUE
Here's a show that's the "Big Works" all right with Frank H. Silk and a cluster of lookers who can't be put for a goal. Also big continuous vaudeville bits and pictures. Always something doing 1 till 11 at the Old Howard.

Paramount Publix THEATRES
UNLIMITED PARKING DOWN TOWN AFTER 6 P. M. HAN. 6713
METROPOLITAN
The Greatest Underworld Story Ever On the Screen!
CITY STREETS
Paramount's Swift, Red-Blooded Drama!
SYLVIA SYDNEY-GARY COOPER
PAUL LUKAS-WILLIAM BOYD-WYNNE GIBSON
LULU McCONNELL with ROBERT WYMAN
Virginia Hunt & Grace Toby in "CAMPUS SPORTS"
MIDNIGHT PREVIEW SUNDAY APRIL 19—Tallulah Bankhead—Olive Brook in "TARNISHED LADY"

OLYMPIA FENWAY UPTOWN
You Can't Kill a Reporter!
RICHARD BARTHELMESS in "The Finger Points" with FAY WRAY Regis Toomey
By the Author of "LITTLE CAESAR"

SCOLLAY SQ.
BIGGEST SHOW VALUE IN TOWN
Ends Today
TEN NIGHTS IN A BARROOM
7—VAUDEVILLE ACTS—7
Starts Sunday
Marlene Dietrich
More Beautiful Than Ever in Paramount's drama
"DISHONORED"
WITH VICTOR McLAGLEN
Warner Oland-Lew Cody
7—Vaudeville Acts—7
SUNDAY-MIDNIGHT SHOW!
"DISHONORED"
NEW GIGANTIC VAUDEVILLE BILL
Free Dancing Classes NOW!

MODERN BEACON
STARTS TODAY!
BIG DOUBLE FEATURE PROGRAM
A Great Comedy Romance!
Night Life—Temptation—Love
"THREE GIRLS LOST"
with Loretta Young—John Wayne
Joan Marsh—Joyce Compton
AND BIG FEATURE
"TRAPPED" NICK STUART PRISCILLA DEAN

RKO Keith BOSTON
IN PERSON
Rosetta DUNCAN
"Queen" of the Dancing Sisters
STUART and LASH
Dorothy and Walter
The Yellow Jackets Waiters Cavaliers
RKO- "BEYOND VICTORY"
Pathe's With Bill Boyd and big cast
4 Complete Shows Daily Mat. 2:30

fine arts theatre
STATE THEATRE BLDG. MASS. AVE.
NOW PLAYING!
NAPOLI CHE CANTA
(WHEN NAPLES SINGS)
GLORIOUS ITALIAN FILM
WITH ENGLISH CAPTIONS

Today, in the real estate columns of the Classified Ads, you will find scores of opportunities for profitable investment.

Amusements

SYMPHONY HALL
TOMORROW at 3:30
HOROWITZ
Liszt, Sonata; Bach, Chorale; Hummel, Rondo; Prokofieff, Toccata; Chopin, 2 Mazurkas, 2 Etudes, Polonaise.

THURS., APRIL 23, at 8:30
ROLAND HAYES

OPENS WED., MAY 6
2ND SEASON
POPS
ARTHUR FIEDLER
Conductor
80 SYMPHONY PLAYERS
Reserved Seats 75c and $1.00
Admission 50c
REFRESHMENTS—SMOKING

BEST SEATS $1.50 — COPLEY — BEST SEATS $1.50
KENmore 1200
Evgs. at 8:20
Holiday Mat. Monday, 2:20
"APARTMENT 33"
HILARIOUS DETECTIVE COMEDY
BEST SEATS $1.50 — BEST SEATS $1.50

Amusements

PLYMOUTH LAST WEEK
THE COMEDY HIT OF THE TOWN!
Robert V. Newman Presents
ARTHUR SINCLAIR and MAIRE O'NEILL
IN
'THE PATCH'
A New American Comedy by PATRICK KEARNEY
Staged by JOHN D. WILLIAMS
Evgs. 50c to $2.50
Thurs. & Sat. Mats. 50c to $1.50
ONE WEEK MORE and then
EDGAR WALLACE'S
Sparkling Comedy Hit
ON THE SPOT
with
Crane Wilbur—Anna May Wong
Glenda Farrell and the rest of the Broadway Cast Will Leave the WILBUR THEATRE
and Trek for CHICAGO to Play an Engagement on THE HOME GROUNDS!

Beg., Mon., Apr. 27—Seats Now
The Professional Players Present
Billie BURKE and Ivor NOVELLO
In the Rollicking Laugh Hit
"THE TRUTH GAME"
A Comedy by Mr. Novello
with VIOLA TREE
Staged by G. Hamilton Gay
Evgs. 50c to $3; Wed. and Sat. Mats. 50c to $2.50

SHUBERT—Last 2 Times Mat. Today 50c to $2.00
ED WYNN
"The Perfect Fool"
Presents Himself
In ZIEGFELD'S Musical Comedy Hit
"SIMPLE SIMON"
Harriet Hoctor and 25 Others

Amusements

SHE TRADED GOLDEN MOMENTS FOR SILVER DIMES . . .
This ten-for-a-dollar darling captivated a thousand men yet only one could thrill her!
Barbara Stanwyck
IN TEN CENTS A DANCE
A Columbia Picture with
RICARDO CORTEZ
"DUFFER SWINGS" the 2nd of RKO-Pathe's golf lessons by JOHNNY FARRELL
HOLIDAY MIDNIGHT SHOW
SUN., APR. 19th
All Seats 65c
Daily 9 to 1 P.M.—30c
Children All Shows 25c
RKO KEITH'S RKO

COLONIAL—LAST WEEKS
Evenings at 8:30, Matinees Wednesday and Saturday at 2:30
ARCH SELWYN (in Association with Selwyn Prod., Inc.) Present
THE FAMOUS HOLLYWOOD STARS
VILMA BANKY IN PERSON ROD La ROCQUE
"CHERRIES ARE RIPE"
SELL-OUT PRICES
Nights 50c to $2.50
MATINEES WED. SAT.
50c-$1-$1.50

TREMONT LAST 10 TIMES
EVENINGS AT 8:20 — MATS. WED. & SAT. AT 2:20
25th ANNUAL ENGAGEMENT
The WONDER SHOW OF THE UNIVERSE
THURSTON
THE FAMOUS MAGICIAN
AND DAUGHTER JANE
50 MILLION PEOPLE HAVE SEEN THURSTON
NOTHING LIKE IT IN THE WORLD
FUN—THRILLS—DRAMA—MYSTERY
Entertainment For the Whole Family
20—NEW MYSTERIES—20
ALL NIGHTS & SATURDAY MATS. ENTIRE ORCHESTRA $1.50 FIRST BALCONY $1.75 SECOND BALCONY 50c WED. MATS. $1.75-50c

NEW GAYETY TODAY
5 BIG VAUDEVILLE ACTS 5
2 TALKING FEATURES 2
JACK BARRY-JUNE MORGAN-DICK RUTH ROLAND in "RENO"
BOWDOIN 7 Vaudeville Acts in Person
Lawrence Tibbett, Esther Ralston—"The Prodigal"
BEBE DANIELS, BEN LYON in "HY PASS"
Fox Sun.—"Just Lynn"—"Don't Bet on Women"
Midnight Performance Apr. 19—Cavalcade in Person

EXETER The place where you forget your troubles
GARY COOPER in "Fighting Caravans"
EVELYN BRENT in "Madame of the Streets"

The domestic help problem is solved by taking a life-mate to apartment and the best are advertised daily in the For Rent columns.

Today at Your Neighborhood Theatre

ALLSTON
CAPITOL — ANN HARDING-CONRAD NAGEL-CLIVE BROOK in "Son Daughter" Lawrence Tibbett "THE PRODIGAL"

ARLINGTON
REGENT Ar. 1197 — "Dancing Sweeties" ROCK JONES in "DAWN TRAIL" Sat. Nite—YOUVIL

BRIGHTON
PUBLIX EGYPTIAN STADIUM 6800 — "FATHER'S SON" Lewis Stone-Irene Rich "DRAGO" Adventure Drama Cont. 1—11 Mat. 2-11 — Free Parking

CAMBRIDGE
PUBLIX CENTRAL SQ. CAM. 0262 — Ann Harding "EAST LYNNE" Conrad Nagel-Clive Brook "IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE" Norman Foster-Carol Lombard
HARVARD HARVARD 0058 — Mary Astor-Grant Withers in "OTHER MEN'S WOMEN" Ed Wynn in "FOLLOW THE LEADER" Sat.—"Wing of the Wind"
UNIVERSITY PORTER 4560 HARVARD 58 — CHARLES FARRELL and ELISSA LANDI "The Easiest Way" GEORGE O'BRIEN "The Seas Beneath"

JAMAICA PLAIN
PUBLIX JAMAICA JAM. 3280 — CHARLES FARRELL and ELISSA LANDI "BODY AND SOUL" "ALOHA"

MALDEN
GRANADA MALDEN 1541 — CHARLIE CHAPLIN in "CITY LIGHTS" "THE PRODIGAL" with Lawrence Tibbett
STRAND MALDEN Tel. Mal. 0071 — ANN HARDING in "EAST LYNNE" Ann Harding "It Pays to Advertise" with Norman Foster

MATTAPAN SQ.
PUBLIX ORIENTAL MIL. 1200 — "EAST LYNNE" Ann Hardin-Conrad Nagel "It Pays to Advertise" Norman Foster-Sketch Gallagher

REVERE
REVERE AND CRESCENT GARDENS — Ronald Colman in "DEVIL TO PAY" with Loretta Young "CONSTELLATION" with Tom Moore-Lois Lane

ROSLINDALE
PUBLIX RIALTO — George Farrell-Elissa Landi "BODY AND SOUL" BEN LYON in "ALOHA"

DORCHESTER (Cont.)
PUBLIX LIBERTY TAL 5280 — "The Painted Desert" BETTY COMPSON in "The Lady Refuses"
PUBLIX MORTON — RONALD COLMAN "DEVIL TO PAY" "SCANDAL SHEET" Ray Francis-Clive Brook
PUBLIX SPARD UPHAMS COR. — ANN HARDING in "EAST LYNNE" with Clive Brook-Conrad Nagel Lawrence Tibbett in "THE PRODIGAL"
EGLESTON SQ. — BEBE DANIELS "HY PASS" "White Hell of Pitt Pale" Graham McNamee Talking Sat. Night Is Gift Night
EGLESTON SQ. at Logan Sq.
HYDE PARK — CHARLES FARRELL and ELISSA LANDI "BODY AND SOUL" "ALOHA"
EVERETT SQUARE EVE. 1258 — Edmund Lowe-Jeanette MacDonald "DON'T BET ON WOMEN" "DRAGO" The Wonder Picture Everyone Night
JAMAICA PLAIN — CHARLES FARRELL and ELISSA LANDI "BODY AND SOUL" "ALOHA"
MALDEN
GRANADA MALDEN — CHARLIE CHAPLIN in "CITY LIGHTS" "THE PRODIGAL" with Lawrence Tibbett
STRAND MALDEN Tel. Mal. 0071 — ANN HARDING in "EAST LYNNE" Ann Hardin-Conrad Nagel "It Pays to Advertise" with Norman Foster
MATTAPAN SQ.
PUBLIX ORIENTAL MIL. 1200 — "EAST LYNNE" Ann Hardin-Conrad Nagel "It Pays to Advertise" Norman Foster-Sketch Gallagher
REVERE
REVERE AND CRESCENT GARDENS — Ronald Colman in "DEVIL TO PAY" with Loretta Young "CONSTELLATION" with Tom Moore-Lois Lane
ROSLINDALE
PUBLIX RIALTO — George Farrell-Elissa Landi "BODY AND SOUL" BEN LYON in "ALOHA"

ROXBURY
HIGGINS DUDLEY ROXBURY — BRIAN AHEAD" Ralph Forbes-Loretta Young and Fred Kohler in "DEAD MEN REMAIN" "BETTY, Queen of Fruits"
ROXBURY HUMBOLDT CAR. 1600 — WM. BOYD in "HER PRIVATE AFFAIR" Evelyn Brent in "SILVER HORDE" Bill Haines
PUBLIX FENWAY BIG 0100 — ANN HARDING Clive Brook-Conrad Nagel "EAST LYNNE" "IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE"
PUBLIX SHAWMUT SHA. 1750 — BUSTER KEATON "Parlor, Bedroom and Bath" Wm. Boyd-Helen Twelvetrees "PAINTED DESERT"

SOMERVILLE
PUBLIX CAPITOL BROADWAY SOM. 2700 — DOROTHY MACKAILL "ONCE A SINNER" "BRIDGE OF THE BIG GRANDE" Evelyn Brent-Neil Hamilton
DAVIS SQ. THEATRE SOM. 0294 — Marie Dressler-Wallace Beery in "MIN AND BILL" Edmund Lowe-Lilyan Tashman "PART TIME WIFE" Jack Oakie Sun.—"Hell's Island" and "Night"

SOUTH BOSTON
PUBLIX BROADWAY at Broadway BOSTON — "DAMAGED LOVE" with JUNE COLLYER "THE MAN FROM CHICAGO"
PUBLIX STRAND at Dorchester BOSTON — "STOLEN HEAVEN" Nancy Carroll-Phillips Holmes "WESTWARD BOUND" Buddy Rogers-Marceline Day Lucy Doraine

SOUTH END
NATIONAL THEATRE TRINITY 5E — GRETA GARBO "INSPIRATION" Walter Huston "THE CAT CREEPS" Cpt. Hoyt's 375 on Ice Free
PUBLIX EMBASSY WALTHAM — CLAUDETTE COLBERT "Honor Among Lovers" WARNER OLAND "Drums of Jeopardy"

WALTHAM
Wed. Only

Watch This Directory And Patronize Your Neighborhood Theatres

TONIGHT
GRAND OPENING
at Egypt's Beautiful
Dreamwold Hall Inn
$3,000,000 Home of The Late Thomas W. Lawson
LOBSTER — CHICKEN — STEAK
SPECIAL 8-COURSE $2.00 DINNER
Henry Palter's Broadcasting Orchestra
Dine and Dance — No Cover Charge
Just a pleasant spin from Boston along the SA Expy. to Keyes Garage and then left 1/2 mile to road. FUN—FAVORS—NOISEMAKERS.

TERRACE GARDEN
Special MENU
CHOICE OF FRESH FRUIT COCKTAIL
HALF BROILED SPRING CHICKEN
FRENCH FRIED POTATOES
VEGETABLE SALAD
BEANS or LETTUCE & TOMATO
Hot or Cold Rolls & Butter
Coffee or Tea
$1.25
Served Daily 6 P.M. to 8 P.M.
HOT OR ICED TEA OR COFFEE
HOLLYWOOD
POST ROAD WAYLAND MASS.
BRIDGE ACCOMMODATIONS. NO EXTRA CHARGE

YEN HO
Chinese-American Restaurant
248 TREMONT ST.
Noon Luncheon
TONIGHT
Full Course Dinner $1.00
SUNDAY
Full Course Dinner $1.25
Special Holiday Dinner
(served all day Monday)
Leo Lissard and His Orchestra broadcast daily 1 P. M. to 2 P. M., WHDH, direct from the restaurant.

Amusements
LOEW'S STATE
Massachusetts Ave. at Norway St.
3RD of the APRIL SHOWER OF HITS
WM. HAINES
In the sparkling comedy
"A TAILOR MADE MAN"
DOROTHY JORDAN—MARJORIE RAMBEAU
JOSEPH CAWTHORN
Screenings 1:00-3:25-7:35-9:50

LOEW'S ORPHEUM
Washington St. and Hamilton Place
3RD of the APRIL SHOWER OF HITS
"MEN CALL IT LOVE"
Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's Sophisticated Story of Life and Love with ADOLPHE MENJOU
LEILA HYAMS—NORMAN FOSTER
LATEST BUS EDWARDS COMEDY—NEWS
On the BUS EDWARDS' "POSTPONED WEDDING" Stage Show
Lee, Lee, Lee & Lee—Burns & Burton—Others

Man About Town

By AL DUFFY

This department has just discovered that it has a deviated septum and it doesn't just know how to take the news.

* * *

High Spots in a Low Life

Batting around Hartford with Dick Bartholomew when he was a student at Trinity—and one night in particular when we took two girls home to Bloomfield and almost missed the last car back to town. . . . Armistice Day, 1918. . . . Playing the part of the bell-boy at a Saturday matinee of "Oh Boy!" when Jack Osterman didn't show up for the performance. . . . Interviewing Mary and Doug at Winchell Smith's home in Farmington when they were honeymooning. . . . Eating tinned horsemeat and finding it not bad at all. . . . My first circus.

* * *

Complaints

We are in a pettish mood tonight and we think we have a good reason for it. "Dese, dose and dems" do not ordinarily upset us but we do think that there are occasions when a little regard for English as she is spoke should be shown. Last night, for instance, our entire evening was spoiled by the announcer who was handling the midnight broadcast from Cook's ballroom in Springfield. He just would persist in saying "orchester" and "the summer you hear'd her beau lissenin' to" and many other such things. There are two places where sloppy diction is out of place—the theater and on the air, and last night was certainly an example of how the English should not be masticated.

* * *

Things We Hope to Do Some Day

Inhale the odor of jasmine blown to us from the Island of Bali . . . Ride across Europe from the Hook of Holland on the luxurious Rhinegold Express . . . Discover why they put green lights in front of police stations . . . Bass a managing editor . . . Live the life of a country gentleman . . . Eat a rarebit at midnight and go to bed and sleep the night through . . . Lead a band . . . Catch up on our back reading.

* * *

Score: 1 to 1

George (Daily Record) Mackinnon will edit Jane Desmond's "Passing Show" after it completes its metamorphosis.

* * *

Refrain

The sky is blue as blue can be,
And bright each garden-plot.
Someone walks and wears with me
A lover's knot.

The sky is sad as sad can be,
The little gardens rot.
No one walks this way with me.
A lover's not!

—HALL DANA.

* * *

Buddy Rogers is slated to become master of ceremonies at the Brooklyn Paramount for four weeks starting soon . . . A man named Conn is promoting a 4000-seat movie palace in Providence . . . The local Fox Film Exchange is planning to move to larger quarters . . . Betty Bell, 10-year-old daughter of Floyd (Met. p.t.) Bell, has seen the circus 104 times. Her pappy used to publicize the Ringling show . . . The large broadcasting studio at WNAC was designed by Stanford White . . . The "spite fence" erected six years ago between the palatial Sarasota estates of John and Charles Ringling is being razed . . . Crane ("On the Spot") Wilbur is all broken up because existing contracts forced him to turn down a sweet offer for the talkies . . . Beacon Hill cabs will soon have a stand on Tremont street in front of the Met . . . The Scollay Square Theater has bought the scenery of Ed Wynn's "Simple Simon," which folds here tonight . . . What m.c. ad libbed in very poor taste at the Cushman Club benefit at the Colonial Friday afternoon?

The Weather

For Boston and vicinity—Fair tonight and Sunday; cooler tonight; moderate to fresh northwest winds diminishing Sunday and becoming southerly Sunday afternoon.

For Massachusetts and Connecticut—Fair tonight and Sunday; cooler tonight with light frost.

For Maine—Generally fair tonight and Sunday; cooler in southwest portion tonight; rising temperature in the interior Sunday.

For New Hampshire and Vermont—Fair tonight and Sunday; cooler tonight; rising temperature in north portion Sunday.

For Rhode Island—Fair tonight and Sunday; cooler tonight; rising temperature in north portion Sunday.

Atlantic coast north of Sandy Hook—Moderate northwest winds and weather fair tonight and Sunday.

FIRE WEATHER BULLETIN

Fair tonight, Sunday, and probably Monday; cooler tonight; moderate to fresh northwest winds diminishing Sunday and becoming southerly or night; combined low humidity and considerable danger of forest and grass fires.

WEATHER CONDITIONS

There were light to moderate showers yesterday and last night in eastern Canada, and slight amounts of rain occurred here and there southward as far as New Haven. Pressure is high throughout the country east of the Mississippi excepting the New England section, where it is low. The temperature yesterday and today at 75 eastern stations reported this morning was 20 to 74 at Grand Rapids, Michigan. There is a well marked area of low barometer extending from Manitoba to New Mexico and Arizona, but it has produced practically no rain in the northern districts and only rather small amounts at some stations in the Southwest. It is cooler today in Ontario and from Michigan and Indiana to about the Hudson and Champlain valleys.

Farther west in the central valleys the early morning temperatures were high, being above 50 degrees above zero as far north as Winnipeg.

OBSERVATIONS AT BOSTON AT 3 A. M.

Barometer	30.42 inches
Temperature	54 degrees
Wind	Northwest, 8 miles
Weather	Clear
Max. temperature yesterday	73 degrees
Min. temperature	50 degrees
Humidity	84 per cent
Precipitation previous 24 hours	None

CALENDAR FOR SATURDAY, APRIL 18

Eastern Standard Time

High tide.....11:39 a. m.; 11:58 p. m.
Height of tide..10.8 ft. a. m.; 10.1 ft. p. m.
Sun rises.....5 a. m.
Sun sets.....6:38 p. m.
Length of day.....13hrs. 38 min.
Moon rises.....12:16 a. m.
Moon sets.....7:26 p. m.
First qr.....April 25, 6h 46m, morning. W
Full moon.....May 2, 6h 14m, morning. W
Last qr.....May 9, 7h 48m, morning. W
New moon.....May 17, 10h 32m, morning. W

Lights all vehicles tonight at 6:26 o'clock.

POPEYE

Popeye vs. The Great Tinearo

An Exclusive Feature Every Saturday in the BOSTON EVENING AMERICAN

I'M YOUR TRAINER AND DE BLOKES DAT LISTEN TO BATTLING MEGNAT COME OUT ON TOP-NOW GET DIS, WE GOTTA USE STRATEGY
STRAGEDY ME EYE!
GO 'WAY AN LEMME BE, I GOT SUMPIN ELSE ON ME MIND JUS' NOW SAY, FELLA, YA GOTTA GETCHASELF IN SHAPE, SAVVY?
SO YOU ADMIT HE'S GOT YA LICKED EVEN BEFORE YA GET IN DE RING? FRAID OF 'IM, EH?
AVAST, YA UNDERSIZED HALF PINT. DON'T PAY NO 'TENTION TO WHAT I TELLS OLIVE OYL - I'M JUS' WORKIN' ON'ER SYMPTHITY
HONEY LE'S YOU AN ME SET OVER ON THE SOFA
I'M NOT IN THE MOOD FOR PETTING, POPEYE
YOU REALLY THINK HE'LL TAKE YOU APART?
I WOULDN'T BE SUSPRISED - KISS ME
AW, FER CRYIN' OUT LOUD!!
WELL, I AIN'T POISON, CAN'T YA PUT YER ARM AROUN' ME?
NO
YOU'D BETTER GO NOW. I'VE BEEN SITTING HERE FOR HOURS CRYING MY EYES OUT
YA MAY NOT GET NO CHANCE TO PUT YER ARMS AROUN' ME AFTER THE FIGHT ON ACCOUNT OF I MAY GET KILLED
OH, POPEYE, DO YOU THINK THERE'S A CHANCE OF YOU GETTING KILLED?!
ABSOLWKELY!
I NEVER HAD SO MUCH FUN IN ME WHOLE LIFE
YA GOTTA FORGET DE DAMES AN' HIT DE HAY OILY OR YA GOT NO CHANCE WID TINEARC
TINEARO-POOOOOOOO-HE'S THE MOST CHEESE I EVER DID SEE
TO BE CONTINUED
© 1931, King Features Syndicate, Inc., Great Britain rights reserved.
ISN'T POPEYE A DEAR? HE'S GIVEN ME FLOWERS EVERY DAY THIS WEEK - AND I'LL BET I GET ANOTHER BOUQUET TO-DAY
YOU'RE LUCKY TO HAVE SUCH A LIBERAL SWEETY
I'M TELLIN' YA, MISTER OYL - THIS TINEARO, WHICH I GOT TO FIGHT IN THE RING, IS A HECK OF A SWELL GUY - HE'S OKAY!
SOUNDS FUNNY TO HEAR YOU SAY THAT AN FOR SOME REASON OR OTHER HE LIKES ME - I HATES TO FIGHT A SWELL MAN LIKE HIM
WELL, I'LL BE —! I WONDER WHAT'S GOT INTO HIM?
HELLO, POPEYE, ARE YOU GOING TO BRING ME MORE FLOWERS TO-DAY?
SURE, HONEY, I'LL HAVE A SWELL BUNCH FOR YA AFTER AWHILE
WE'VE BEEN SENDING FLOWERS TO POPEYE EVERY DAY - I'LL BET WE'VE GOT HIS GOAT COMPLETELY - I WON'T SEND ANY MORE - I'VE SPENT $500.00
I IMAGINE HE FAINTS EVERY TIME HE GETS A BOUQUET WITH MY NAME ON IT
WE'VE RUINED HIS MORALE - NO DOUBT ABOUT THAT GETTIN' DEM BLOSSOMS DON'T WORRY YOU, DOES IT, POPEYE? YA TEAR TINEARO'S TAG OFF AND GIVE 'EM TO YER SWEETY DONTCHA?
YEAH, BUT DON'T TELL TINEARO I'M GIVIN' 'EM AWAY BECAUSE HE'S ME FREN YA DUMB EGG, GET WISE - SENDIN' DEM POSIES IS DE SAME AS SAYIN' YER GONNA BE DE MAIN BOZO IN A FUNERAL
FUMERAL ME EYE! THA'S HOW MUCH YOU KNOWS ABOUT IT - TINEARO'S A SPORT - HE WANTS US TO BE FRENS
HE'S SENDIN 'EM TO SHOW THERE'S NO HARD FEELINS EVEN IF WE ARE GONER FIGHT - THA'S IT
I'M WAITIN' FOR A BOKAY NOW
AW, WHAT'S THE USE ARGUIN' WID 'IM? IGNORANCE IS BLISS — LET 'IM BE HAPPY
I'M VERY MUCH DISAPPOINTED - HE HASN'T BROUGHT ME ANY FLOWERS TO-DAY YET
IF HE DOESN'T SHOW UP WITH SOME IT'LL BE THE FIRST DAY HE'S MISSED IN A WEEK
I WON'T WAIT ANY LONGER - THE SUN'S ALMOST DOWN - I'LL GO SEE WHAT'S WRONG
THE MORE I THINK OF THAT FLOWER STUNT THE FUNNIER IT GETS HAW! HA! HAW! HA! HA! HA! HA! HA! HA! HO! HO!
AIN'T IT THE TRUTH? HA! HA!
YOU MAD AT ME, TINEARO? YA DIDN'T SEN' ME NO FLOWERS TO-DAY
4-19
TO BE CONTINUED
© 1931, King Features Syndicate, Inc., Great Britain rights reserved.

MAKE-BELIEVE -:- -:- By FAITH BALDWIN

Mary Lou Decides to Keep Her Job

By FAITH BALDWIN
Author of "The Office Wife," "Alimony" and Other Famous Serials.

WHAT HAS HAPPENED SO FAR

Mary Lou Thurston, a beautiful and vivacious girl of the "home" type, orphaned by the death of her parents, lives with her aunt and uncle, Clara and Howard Sanderson. The former is private secretary to a publisher, and the latter an engineer. Larry Mitchell, energetic young newspaper reporter, is Mary Lou's pal. Sanderson gets a wonderful business chance to go to the Orient and take his wife as secretary. Mary Lou is to stay temporarily with Grandma Jennings. Clara's mother. Larry is eager to marry Mary Lou and take care of her, but Mary Lou convinces him they are merely good pals and asks him to help her get a job. She applies at the Lorrimer's and is claimed by the son of the house as his war bride, named "Delight." Mary Lou qualifies as companion for Travers, who seems to find her different from his remembrance of his wife." The Lorrimers plan for the first gay Christmas since the war. Mary Lou discovers her love for Larry.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

MARY LOU loved him . . . she loved him . . . terribly. And she was living a lie . . . a false Delight.

Somehow or other that evening, which had commenced so happily and which suddenly changed to an interminable nightmare, ended. When the good-byes had been said and the voices of departing guests faded and the purr of motors grew fainter, Mary Lou finally reached her room. She undressed, endured Mrs. Lorrimer's friendly "May I come in, just to see that you're not too tired to cover yourself up?" and, after the older woman had gone, she lay awake, wretched, too miserable for tears, staring at the dim shapes of the furniture, wondering what she could do, what she must do . . .

Only Thing to Do

As she lay there it grew clearer in her tormented mind that there was only one thing possible to do.

She rose, stipped into her negligee, ran barefoot across the thick rug and switched on the light above the desk in the little living room; there, after a long pause, she selected pen and paper; dipped the pen in the ink—waited, shaken with a tearless sobbing. Presently, the ink having dried, she made a few unintelligible scratches on the paper, crumbled up the sheet, cast it away, dipped her pen and started afresh.

Only one thing to do—

"Dear Mrs. Lorrimer," wrote Mary Lou, holding her chin high so the tears might not blot the sheet. "Don't think too badly of me. I can't stay any longer. It is impossible. Things have happened which have made it so. Please forgive me and thank you a thousand times for all you have done for me. I can't explain, I'd rather just leave this note and slip away. I'll never forget you or cease to be grateful but I can't stay on."

She signed it, firmly enough. "Mary Lou."

Sat Quite Still

After she had written the note, sealed and addressed it, Mary Lou sat quite still at the desk until her hands and feet grew cold and turning out the light she shivered and groped her way back to bed. Once there she lay awake again for, it seemed to her, a very long time. She clasped her hands in the darkness and miserably, after the way of youth, wished herself dead.

The letter was in the desk drawer. She would wait for an opportunity, when, say, Mrs. Lorrimer would be in New York and Lorrimer perhaps busy about the place, then she would put the note in Mrs. Lorrimer's room and slip away, escape somehow from the knowledge of a love which could

Continued on Page 13, Column 3

GREATER BOSTON NEWS
BOSTON EVENING AMERICAN
A HOME PAPER FOR PEOPLE WHO THINK
2D SECTION
BOSTON, SATURDAY, APRIL 18, 1931

GIRL BURNED BY EXPLODING COMBS GIVEN $65,000

Two Newport Women Race to Bedside of Dying Father by Plane

DRY LAW FINDS NO FAVOR

COL. HENRY W. ANDERSON GASPAR G. BACON

Col. Henry W. Anderson, member of the Wickersham Law Commission, who favors modification of the Volstead Act, was greeted by Gaspar G. Bacon, president of the State Senate, when he arrived here today. Col. Anderson is to be a speaker at the banquet of the Republican Club of Massachusetts tonight. (Staff photo.)

STORY ON PAGE 1

VETERAN FLIER PILOTS THEM TO CANADA

Roy Keeley Comes to Airport for Clearance Papers in Dash Across Border

Roy Keeley, veteran Taunton aviator, hopped off from Newport, R. I., before noon today with two Newport women as passengers on an emergency flight to Windsor, Ont., where the women's father is dying.

The passengers, Mrs. Susan Paul and Miss Mary Paul, both nurses, were informed this morning of the serious illness of their father, and immediately chartered Keeley's plane for the flight.

Keeley estimated that between three and four hours will be necessary for the air dash across the border. Keeley flew from Taunton to Boston Airport to arrange clearance papers with customs officials, and then left for Newport for his passengers.

Errand of mercy flights are no novelty to the flyer, he having jumped to Bethel, Vt., last month with serum for a girl who was stricken with diphtheria.

CLUTCHED BY STRONG ARM OF THE LAW

GENEVIEVE MATTHEWS MATRON MARY SHUGRUE ALICE BANVILLE

Two girls, who were arrested after their flight from an auto in which police arrested three men at pistol point. They and the men were held in $3000 each. The girls gave their names as Genevieve Matthews and Alice Banville, both of Kenmard ave., Boston. They are shown in the custody of Police Matron Mary Shugrue. (Staff photo.)

STORY ON PAGE 1

BEAUTY GIVEN $65,000 FOR COMB BURNS

Former Radcliffe Student Gets Big Check to Settle Her Suit

A settlement for $58,000 was made today by Miss Eleanor Greenfield, 22, of Atlanta, Ga., former Radcliffe College student, for injuries she received when two combs exploded while she was drying her hair near a heater.

She brought suit in Federal Court against F. W. Woolworth Co. for $250,000, alleging negligence in selling explosive combs.

A check covering the settlement was paid today in the law offices of Hurwitz & Hurwitz in Pemberton sq., in the presence of Miss Greenfield and her personal attorney, Samuel D. Howlett, of Atlanta.

CHECK PHOTOGRAPHED

The Atlantic National Bank, on which the check was drawn, made a photostatic copy of the check before it was turned over to Miss Greenfield's lawyers. A record of "judgment for the defendant" will be entered in Federal court early next week by agreement of counsel, despite today's settlement.

Miss Greenfield, who was regarded as one of the most beautiful girls in Atlanta, is a daughter of Max P. Greenfield, wealthy real estate operator of that city. She was forced to give up her studies at Radcliffe while in her senior year on account of severe burns to head, neck and face sustained from the explosion of the combs.

STILL UNDER TREATMENT

Since the explosion she has been in seclusion, having undergone several skin grafts by Boston specialists in an effort to save her beauty. She is still undergoing treatment. The physicians who are treating her say they hope to prevent her from being permanently disfigured.

Miss Greenfield claimed she purchased the combs at a five-and-ten-cent store January 25, 1930, washed her hair, placed the combs in her hair and then sat near a heater to dry her hair. She alleged that without warning the combs exploded and then burst into flames, seriously injuring her.

LYNN BOY HELD IN GIRL ATTACK

George J. Hallissey, 21, of Summer st., Lynn, pleaded guilty in Lynn District Court today to serious charges involving a six-year-old girl and was held for the grand jury in $8000 by Judge Ralph W. Reeve.

Hallissey, the police allege, enticed the young girl into a motion picture house last night and his actions attracted the attention of the manager. The police were notified and Special Officer Benjamin J. O'Connor arrested Hallissey.

Trains Change to Daylight Saving

Effective at 2 a. m., Sunday, April 26, and continuing until Sunday, September 27, the train schedules of the New Haven railroad will be changed to conform with the Daylight Saving law of Massachusetts and New York City, and many other cities served by the road.

All offices, including freight offices, shops, storehouses and other departments will open and close one hour earlier.

Caspy Club Will Have Spring Dance

The spring dance of the Caspy Club of the Boston Y. M. C. A. will be held in the auditorium of the Y. M. C. A., 140 Clarendon st., on Tuesday evening, April 28. Miss Kathleen McDonald and Everett Benjamin head the committee in charge.

Motorist Fined $60

Walter J. McLellan, 23 of Howard st., Watertown, was fined $5 in Newton district court yesterday on a charge of driving while under the influence of liquor and $10 for drunkenness.

TWO HELD IN 60 CENT HOLDUP

Two youths are under arrest in Lynn today charged with armed robbery in connection with an early morning holdup which netted 60 cents from two Malden couples parked on a lonely road in the Lynn woods.

The pair, Earl Salkins, 22, and Irving H. Hemeon, 23, both giving an address on George st., Lynn, denied the charge, but the victims have made positive identification, according to the police.

The men were arrested by Sergt. Leo Nihan and Patrolman Leon E. Wilson of the Lynn police.

The victims of the holdup are Miss Edith Collis of Lebanon st., Miss Elizabeth Eller of Lebanon st., Emerson Dudley of Main st. and Charles Toomey of Franklin st., all Malden.

They told police they were sitting in their car on Reservoir st. when a masked pair, one carrying a revolver, demanded their money.

In addition to the 60 cents in cash the loot included two fountain pens, three watches and two rings. The bandits, according to the victims' story, then discussed the value of the loot with them and departed.

"Our Boston" and the "Breeze" Merge

"Our Boston," women's civic and club magazine published by Dorothy Worrell, which had suspended, has been revived, and merged with the "Breeze," a weekly magazine of society. The new publication appeared today. It will be published as a weekly paper, known as the "Boston Breeze."

TRIO ADRIFT AT SEA SAVED

Three young men, adrift in a stalled motorboat in Boston Harbor were rescued by the United States quarantine boat, George B. Loring, which was heading out from Gallup's Island to meet the steamer Lady Drake, from the West Indies.

Capt. Richard Learson, sighted the small boat more than two miles away. He could make out the forms of three persons signalling frantically.

Running close to the craft, a 16-foot motorboat, the "Biddy D" from the Milton Yacht Club, he discovered that it was stalled.

The three young men, Wesley Barrus, 24, of 20 Rockwell ave., Milton, brother of the owner of the boat; George Adams, 26, of 7 Marion st., Medford, and Richard Flynn, 21, of 117 Walworth st., Brookline, were taken aboard and the boat towed to the Army Base.

Duane Will Speed Construction Work

Due to continued delay in the completion of the new headquarters of the Waltham wires department on Church st., Mayor Patrick J. Duane yesterday notified the contractor, John B. Dolan, of Boston, that unless certain work is done within three days, the city will make good the deficiencies and deduct the cost from payments due the contractor.

Poor Brakes Cost Motorist $20 Fine

Charles R. Parker, of Winter st., Weston, driver of the automobile that collided with the motorcycle of Patrolman John J. Murphy, of Newton, was fined $20 in Newton district court yesterday on a charge of operating with defective brakes.

Auto Values Decrease $1,500,000 in Newton

There was a drop of about $1,500,000 in the aggregate value of automobiles owned by residents of Newton in 1930, according to the annual report of the Board of Assessors, issued today.

7 FLEE FIRE IN NIGHT CLOTHES

Three families were driven to the street early today when fire broke out in the three-story brick dwelling house in Cabot st., Roxbury.

Patrolman Burke, who discovered the fire, aroused the occupants. The fire started in an unoccupied suite on the third floor.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Catella, 63 years old, were driven out from the second floor. Miss Eva Whiddup, Miss Louise Cushing and Mr. and Mrs. William F. Thompson and their son, George Thompson, 11, also fled in their nightclothes.

Curley Asked to Lift Football Ban

The City of Boston Hotel Men's Association in a letter to Mayor Curley today asks him to reconsider his refusal to permit Dartmouth and Stanford to play at the Harvard Stadium next fall.

The association says in its opinion Boston could have two major games on one day without financial detriment to either, and the hotels need such "big days" to average up on lean periods. Mayor Curley banned the Dartmouth game on the ground it would curtail attendance at the Boston College-Holy Cross game the same day.

News in Want Ads

—A living room set will be given to the purchaser of a five-room bungalow in West Roxbury. The price is $5500.

—A garage, gasoline station and accessories shop is for sale. It is all equipped and can be bought for $3500.

—A property owner offers a proposition by which a carpenter can obtain free tenancy in Newton or an equity in a well-rented Revere house. The owner desires to have a garage built in exchange.

—A well-stocked grocery and delicatessen store, doing a weekly business of $250, may be bought for $900 cash.

TODAY'S WANT ADS

Mrs. O'Shea, 59, Dies at Cambridge Home

Mrs. Ellen T. O'Shea, 59, of 36 Frank st., North Cambridge, for 40 years active in Cambridge civic and social life, died today at her home. Mrs. O'Shea was the wife of Timothy J. Shea and was born in Ireland.

She is survived by a son and four daughters. Funeral services for Mrs. O'Shea will be held Monday morning at St. John the Evangelist Church at 9 o'clock. Burial will be in St. Paul's Cemetery, Arlington.

IJAMS LAUDS THE AMERICAN

Col. George E. Ijams, national director of the U. S. Veterans' Bureau, who arrived here today, extended his personal thanks to the Boston Evening American for its assistance to the department and to the veterans in connection with the veterans' loans.

"Establishment of special offices to facilitate the filing of applications, which was done by the Evening American and also by other Hearst papers throughout the country, was an invaluable aid," he said.

Col. Ijams also thanked the personnel of the Boston regional division of the Veterans' Bureau through Co. William J. Blake, its chief, for the many hours' extra work they did without compensation during the rush of applications.

Col. Ijams is here to inspect the field, including the new hospital at Bedford. He said a total of $349,158.89 has been paid out on the new loans, which, with $472,505.494.79 previously loaned under the old law, makes a total of $822,054,631.68 distributed to the veterans.

Runaway Horses Crash Six Autos

Two horses attached to a wagon of the Cambridge Ice Company ran away in Cambridge today, damaging six parked automobiles and throwing pedestrians into a panic before they were stopped.

The horses bolted when their driver, Frank Gammell, alighted to pick up a dropped pair of ice tongs at Massachusetts ave. and Bigelow st. They turned on Bigelow st., the wagon careening against the parked cars. A wild scramble of pedestrians nearby to escape the oncoming horses ensued.

Woman Found Dead in Gas-Filled Kitchen

After sending her 12-year-old boy out to play, Mrs. Lucy De Grotta, 31, of Newbern ave., Medford, was found dead yesterday in the gas-filled kitchen of her home. Her husband, Joseph De Grotte, told police his wife had been in ill health for some time.

Shortly after Joseph, Jr., 12, went out to play, Mrs. Anna Mercurio, who lives in the apartment above that of the De Grotte's, smelled gas and notified De Grotte at his shop.

SKIPPY

It's Papa Who Pays By Percy Crosby

$50 Weekly for News Tips

Do you want to get money for being alert? If so, the Boston Evening American offers the opportunity. Each week $50 in prizes will be given for news and picture tips telephoned in to the News-Tip Editor at Liberty 4000.

What is a news tip? It's the information that something of interest to Greater Bostonians has taken place or will take place. Do you know, for instance, that an interesting picture is to be obtained, that an accident or an unusual event has happened, that there is going to be a business merger? That's a news tip.

If you have a camera, take a picture of some news event while it is happening. Bring your pictures to the American quick. Delay often spoils them for use.

There will be $15 given weekly for the best or the most unusual event news tip received; $10 for the next best; $5 for the next best, and $2 prizes for each of the 10 next most valuable tips.

Financial Market News, Stocks, Bonds, Commodities and Comment

Melville Shoe Had Record Easter Trade

Head of Company Explains Policy; Salesmen Seek New Ideas

—By B. C. Forbes—

New York, April 18—That live les organizations and salesmen e on the lookout for new ideas s abundantly ought out by he immediate sponse to the olumn publish- d here last week on the welve magic ams." A great any letters are eing received rom corporate ons having arge sales ecords, as well s from sales- en. Here are xtracts from a typical letter:

B. C. Forbes

"I have been in sales work since 1913. Your article on 'Twelve Magic Beams' certainly should be an inspiration to every salesman. It has been more of an inspiration to me than any sales promotion talk I have ever listened to. Tomorrow morning twelve beams go into my vest pocket. Thanks for helping me."

• • •

Ward Melville, president of the Melville Shoe Corporation, a chain of 484 stores located in 214 cities in 36 States, tells this column that his stores did the biggest Easter week's business in their history. He says:

"We do not allow unfavorable business conditions to blunt our sales aggressiveness. Last November we announced a 10 per cent reduction for the duration of the depression, and telegraphed every one of our store managers and salesmen that their jobs were safe and that wages would be maintained at current levels. We urged every employe to 'help sell' in your community, the things which you and your family normally require."

"The response was very gratifying. Our men threw themselves into their jobs with greater enthusiasm. We sold nearly three hundred thousand more pairs of shoes in November and December than in any like months in our history. This production year and above the company output of the company's factories meant the creation of approximately 4000 extra days' work for operatives."

• • •

R. H. Faulkner, president of the Auburn Automobile Company, writes that all their factories are operating at full capacity, with most department's on a 10-hour basis. He says:

"Manufacturers have always faced the necessity of giving every consideration to the trend of public taste and their attitude as to what constitutes sound value for the dollar they spend. More than a year ago Mr. Cord outlined for our company a program which has been carefully followed. It has resulted in our having shipped since the first of the year 11,527 cars, or 32.8 per cent of the entire total of 13,693 cars shipped in 1930.

"It seems to me that for 1931, it behooves all manufacturers in every line to give greater value per dollar, and at the same time, to introduce new merchandise of outstanding style. I believe that more manufacturers who pursue this policy, the quicker will come a real revival of business."

• • •

After referring to the fact that their March, 1931, sales increased 32 per cent over March, 1930, C. E. Pask, of Wayne Candies, Inc., manufacturing confectioners, Fort Wayne, Ind., informs this column:

"Our success has been made possible by a complete change in our manufacturing methods, the revamping of our sales procedure, and more aggressive sales efforts.

"The results obtained to date strengthen our belief that efficient manufacture, coupled with fine quality and aggressive sales effort, will always increase both sales and profits."

Mr. Pask adds:

"The first eight days of this month are over one hundred per cent ahead of a year ago."

• • •

George Matthew Adams, in a letter to this column, says:

"It does seem as though what this country needs more than anything else at this time is for fighting bunch of leaders to go to the front and reassure our people. I have felt all along that fear had more to do with the depression of the world than anything else. I would like to see an electric sign extending from New York to San Francisco, high up in the heavens, where everybody could read it from both near and far, and this is what I would put on that sign: 'Let's go!'"

TAX RETURNS RECORD LOSSES ONLY IN PART

By FRANK H. MELOON

U. S. income tax figures for 1929 have been made public, and have naturally been the subject of considerable comment. One writer says in a weekly magazine that, according to the Treasury figures, the stock market's rise and fall produced speculative profits of $2,239,765,714 and losses of $661,777,366.

• • •

The fact is that the Treasury figures do not give us the stock market losses of 1929. They give only that portion of them which got entered on income tax blanks for that year.

The great crash, as most of us will recall, came late in October. Many thousands continued to hold their shares. Many have continued to hold them at prices close to 1929 highs. And theirs were "paper losses," they did not have to go down on the income tax returns. In fact, they could not.

T. B. Macaulay

• • •

President T. B. Macaulay of Sun Life Assurance Co. of Canada is still one of the world's leading action proponents of well-selected common stocks for the "long-pull." President Macaulay's views on this subject were set forth initially at a great gathering of the company's representatives at Swampscott.

• • •

The Sun Life's portfolio as of most recent date lists issues held with their market value of Dec. 31, 1930. It includes Boston Edison, of which more than 6000 shares are carried at $244 a share. Over 38,000 shares of Dallas Fruit appear at $52.

• • •

Shortwave & Television Corp. announces William Dubilier, inventor of the famous "Dubilier condenser," has joined the company and television fields is well known, has accepted appointment as technical advisor.

• • •

Here's an argument for the advertising agent's job, taken from a book just received:

"There are 27 mountains in Colorado higher than Pikes Peak, but few ever heard of them,—they were not advertised."

• • •

At annual meeting of Boston Associates of Boston Exchange firms the following officers were elected:

Chairman of the board—Albert P. Everts of Hemphill, Noyes & Co.

Vice chairman—John R. Chapin of Kidder, Peabody & Co.

Members of the executive committee:

Ralph Hornblower of Hornblower & Weeks.

James Nowell of Lee, Higginson & Co.

Lester Watson of Hayden, Stone & Co.

Freeman Hinckley of Wrenn Bros. & Co., was elected treasurer, and Charles W. Hubbard, Jr., of Hayden, Stone & Co. was elected secretary and assistant treasurer.

• • •

Another high score for the Pine Tree State. Visiting Boston, Ma. A. W. Spaulding, a director and member of the executive committee of the Bangor & Aroostook Railroad, says:

"Not a bank failure has occurred in Maine during the past two years. The banking situation in Aroostook County is in excellent shape. Crops have been very few foreclosures against farm properties and bankruptcy proceedings are the rarest in my recall. Savings accounts and certificates of deposit have been increasing steadily."

Today's News of Live Stocks in Wall Street

Industrial stocks as a whole were not affected today by the collapse of Auburn and Industrial Rayon, since in both cases pool manipulation is believed to have been the main factor behind their sensational advances. Auburn reached its peak for the present move on Monday of this week, at 295½, and the day's price was 100 points lower before the stock rallied.

Cord Interests Reported Selling

Wall Street heard that the Cord interests were disposing of a block of 20,00 shares, recently purchased, but it was impossible to check the accuracy of the flood of rumors which poured into the brokers' offices while Auburn was dropping another 40 points today.

Motors, Utilities Rally Leaders

Motors and utilities were the leaders in a slight rally near the close today.

Utility Favorites Perform Better

Outside of the fast moving specialties, the stock market remained steady today with a better demand for the railroad and copper stocks. Moderate gains were recorded in the second hour in a number of the utility favorites, including American Water Works, National Power & Light, Consolidated Gas and Public Service.

Steel Earnings for First Half About $2

U. S. Steel shorts must buy back the stock they have sold, but for the time being the market action of the stock will depend largely on the earnings prospects of the big Corporation in the balance of the year. United States Steel will earn about $2 a share in the first half of 1931, according to current estimates, and must earn $5 a share in the second half to cover dividend requirements.

Political Affairs Unsettle Utility

American & Foreign Power was unsettled by South American political conditions and lost over a point more.

Small Investment Buying Is Steady

Some of the Wall Street houses today reported a steady good investment buying of the best grade in lots from 10 to 50 shares.

Stocks Are Above January Average

Stocks at the week-end hold above the January low level, and the over-sold condition of the market suggests at least a temporary rally.

Du Pont to Maintain Present $4 Dividend

Notwithstanding widespread reports to the contrary, it was definitely learned that directors of E. I. DuPont plan to declare the regular quarterly dividend of $1 a share on the common stock at the forthcoming meeting. Incidentally, it was learned that due to month-end adjustments earnings for the initial quarter will be slightly in excess of dividend requirements.

Columbia Carbon Gets Big Contract

Columbian Carbon is understood to have made a contract to supply Columbia Gas & Electric with an additional 2,000,000 cubic feet of natural gas daily.

"L" SHARES ARE BIG FEATURE IN BOSTON

Boston Elevated issues were features in today's dealings on the Boston Stock Exchange. The common rose over 2 points and closed the session at 69¾. The preferred advanced 2 at 82 and the second preerfred was 1¼ higher at 84.

General tone of the market was firm. Brown & Co., preferred, soared 3 points to 33 and American Telephone was 1¾ higher at the closing price of 188.

United Fruit surged 2 points. Hygrade Lamp dipped 2½ and closed at 24½. Warren Brothers was down around 2 points and Edison dropped 1.

Textile shares were firm with Amoskeag closing the week unchanged and Pacific Mills easing fractionally. Copper issues were steady. Total sales for the short session were 20,198.

MacAndrews Forbes Profit Is Larger

Net profit of MacAndrews & Forbes Co. for 1930 was $1,004,092 after depreciation and federal taxes. Consolidated net profit, including subsidiaries, for year ended Dec. 31, 1930, was $1,602,182, including minority interest of $6787 and after depreciation and federal taxes.

Boston Stocks

	High	Low	Close
A
Am Can	118¼	117	118¼ +1
Am For Pwr	35⅞	34½	35½ — ½
Am & Cont Cr	15¼	15	15 —
Am Founders	3⅞	3⅝	3⅝ + ⅛
Atchison	168¾	166¼	168¾ — ¼
Am Tel	188	185⅝	188 +1¼
Am Wool pf	33	33	33 —
Amoskeag	8⅛	8⅛	8⅛ —
Anaconda	32¾	31⅛	32¼ + ⅛
Avia Sec Corp	4	4	4⅛ —
B
Bendix	19¼	19	19¼ —
Beth Steel	48⅛	48¼	48¼ + ⅛
Bigelow-Sanf	25½	25¼	25¼ —
Bos & Albany	182½	182¼	182¼ — ¼
Bos Elev	69⅝	68	69¾ +2¾
do pf	84	84	84 +1¼
do 1 pf	101	101	101 —
do 2 pf	84	84	84 +1¼
B&M 5 pf	102½	102¼	102¾ — ¼
Briggs	17⅞	17¼	17¾ — ⅛
Brown&Co pf.	33	33	33 +3
Chrysler	21	19⅝	21 +1⅛
Cities Service.	17¼	16⅞	17⅛ + ⅛
Col Gas	36	35	36 +1
Col Graph	10¼	10¼	10½ —
Cmwth So	9⅛	8⅛	8⅝ — ⅛
Con Gas	95½	95½	95¾ — ⅛
Cop Range	6¼	6¼	6¼ —
Curtiss W	4	4	4 —
E G & Fuel	22½	21¾	21¾ — ¼
E G & Fl pf	93	92¼	92¼ + ¼
E G & Fl pf. 82	82	82	—
Edison	207	207	207 —3
Employ Grp	17⅞	17	17⅞ + ⅛
G
Gen Alloys	5⅝	5½	5½ + ⅛
Georgian pf.	11	11	11 —
Gen. Elec Spe	11⅝	11¼	11⅝ —
Gen Elec	44¼	43¾	43¾ — ¼
Gen Foods	53	52⅞	53 + ⅛
Gen Motors	43¼	42⅝	43¼ + ⅛
Gilchrist	20	20	20 —
Goodyear	40⅝	40⅜	40⅝ — ⅛
H
Hudson Mot.	19	18⅝	19 — ⅛
Hygrade Lp	24¼	24¼	24½ —2½
I
Int Tel	29⅞	28⅝	28¼ + ⅛
J
Jenkins Televis	4⅛	4⅛	4⅛ + ⅛
K
Kreuger & Toll	28⅞	28⅜	28⅝ —
L
Loew's Theat	8⅛	8⅛	8⅛ —
M
Mass Util	4⅝	4⅝	4⅝ —
Mergenthaler.	80½	79⅝	80 — ⅛
Mont Ward	23⅝	19⅝	20¾ + ⅛
N
Nash	35	34⅝	35 — ⅛
N E Tel	138	138	138 —
Northern Nti	112	111	112 —
No American	71¾	71¼	71½ — ⅛
North Butte	1⅛	1⅛	1⅛ —
No Texas pf	15c	15c	15c —
P
Pacific Mills	8⅝	19½	19½ — ⅛
Packard	8⅝	8¼	8¼ — ⅛
Penn Rlt	55½	55⅛	55⅜ + ⅛
Q
Quincy	7¾	7½	7¾ —
R
Radio Corp	20⅛	19¾	20 —
Radio K O	3⅛	2⅞	2⅞ + ⅛
S
Std Brands	18	17⅞	17¾ —
Stone & Web	43¼	42	42 — ⅝
Torrington	43⅞	43⅞	43⅞ + ⅛
Tower	40c	40c	40c—10c
U
Un Gas Co	8	8	8 —
Un Shoe	23¾	23¼	23¼ — ⅛
Un Carbide	58⅛	57¾	57¾ + ⅛
Un Corp	22¾	22	22¾ + ⅛
Un Founders	2	2	2 —
Un Fruit	60¾	59	59 —2
Un Gas & Imp	31	30⅞	31 — ⅛
Un Shoe	53	51¾	52 —1¼
U S Ele cPwr.	5¾	5¼	5¼ + ⅛
U S Steel	131¾	130¼	131¼ +1
Utah Apex	7⅞	7¾	7¾ + ⅛
Utah Metal	35c	35c	35c —
Util Equit pf.	78	78	78 —
Venuela H.	1	1	1 —
W
Warner Pict.	10⅞	10⅜	10⅝ + ⅛
Warren Bros.	33⅛	31¾	31¾ —1⅞
Westinghouse	77¾	77¼	77½ — ⅛
BONDS
Chic Junc 5s	103	102	103 + ⅛
Chic Junc 4s	95¼	95¼	95½ + ⅛
N E Tel 5s	101⅝	101⅛	101⅛ —

New York Bonds

	High	Low	Close
Lib 3½s 32-47	101.25	101.25	101.25
Lib 1st 4¼s 32-47	102.23	102.23	102.23
Lib 4th 4¼s 33-38	103.31	103.29	103.29
Treas 3⅛s 46-56	105.25	105.25	105.25
Alleghany Corp 5s 49	77	77	77
Allegheny Corp 5s 44	77	77	77
Alls Chal 5s 37	101¼	101¼	101¼
Am Ice 6s 43	97½	97½	97½
Am I G Chem 5½s 49	100¾	100¾	100¾
Am Internat'l 5½s 49	92	92	92
Am Metal 5½s 34	92¾	92¾	92¾
Am Rad & St S 5½s 47	102¾	102¾	102¾
Am T&T 5½s 43	110¼	110	110
Am T&T 4½s 29-66	107⅞	107⅞	107⅞
Am T&T 5s 60	108⅛	108	108⅛
Am T&T 5s 61	108⅛	108	108⅛
Am W W & Elec 6s 75	106¾	106¾	106¾
Arm & Co 4½s 39-43	97¾	97¾	97¾
Arm & Co cnt 4½s 39	91⅝	90	90
Atch 4s adj 95	85¾	85¾	85¾
A C Line 4½s 64	100¾	100	100¾
At Gf & W I 5s 59	102¼	102	102
Balt & O 5s 2000	101¼	101¼	101¼
Balt & O 4s 2000 D	101¼	101	101¼
Balt & O 5s S W div 50	103¾	102¾	103¾
Boston & Me 5½s 33	103¾	103¾	103¾
Bklyn Man Trans 6s 68	101¼	101¼	101¼
Bklyn U G 5s 41 S	100¾	100¾	100¾
Can Nat Ry 4½s 57	100¾	100¾	100¾
Can Nat Ry 5s 69	106¾	106¾	106¾
Can Nat Ry 5s 69 Oct	106¾	106¾	106¾
Can Pac 4s 4s perp	88¼	88	88¼
Can Pac 4½s 60 cnt	97	97	97
Chic & N W 4s 87	93	93	93
C B & Q 4½s 77	102	101¾	101¾
Chic & St P 5s 26	57	57	57
Chic & N W 5s 54	20	20	20
C M St P adj 5s 2000	22	22	22
C M St P 4½s 89	61¼	61¼	61¼
Chic & Nor W 5s 37	98¾	98¾	98¾
Ch & West Ind 4s 52	88¾	88¾	88¾
Cin Gas & E 4s 44	93	93	93
Cin Un Term 4½s 77	98¾	98¾	98¾
Col & So 1st 4½s 25	101¼	101¼	101¼
Columbia G&E 5s 52 May	101¾	101¾	101¾
Com'l Inv Tr 5½s 49	87¼	87¼	87¼
Cons Gas 4½s 57	101¾	101¾	101¾
Cuba No Ry 5½s 42	41¾	41¾	41¾
Cuba No Ry 5½s 42	41¾	41¾	41¾
Cub Dom Sug 7½s 44ww	7	6	6
D & R G 4½s 36	88¾	88¾	88¾
Del Ed cnt 5s 32	103¼	103¼	103¼
Del Ed 5s 59	103¾	103¾	103¾
Det Unit Rys 4½s 62	80	80	80
Det Int Bdge 4½s 52	85	85	85
Donner 2d rfg 7s 42	98	98	98
Duquesne L 4½s 67	103¾	103¾	103¾
Fisc & Sm 5s 53	61	61	61
Fla E Coast 4½s 59	70¾	70¾	70¾
Fed Lt 5s 42	70¾	70¾	70¾
Gen Bak 5½s 40	55	55	55
Gen Theat 6s 40	84	84	84
Goodrich F 6s 45	55	54	55
Gt Nor 7s 36 A	103¾	103¾	103¾
Gt Nor rcts 7s 36 A	103¾	103¾	103¾
Gt Nor 6½s 77 E	96¼	96¼	96¼
Gt Nor 4½s 77 B	94¼	94¼	94¼
Hud & Man adj inc 5s 57	77	77	77
Hud & Man adj inc 5s 57	77	77	77
Hum Oil & R 5s 37	102¾	102¾	102¾
Illinois Cent 4s 55	87	87	87
Ill Cent rfg 4s 55	85¾	85¾	85¾
Ill Cent 4s 52	87¾	87¾	87¾
Inland St 4¼s 78 A	95¾	94	95¾
Int Cem 5s 48	95¾	95¾	95¾
Intern R Tran 6s 32	59	57	57¾
Int Rys 5½s 41	57¾	57¾	57¾
Int Rys rfg 5s 66 stk	72¾	72¾	72¾
Int Rys 5s 56	72¾	72¾	72¾
Int Paper rfg 6s 55 A	91¾	91¾	91¾
Int Paper rfg 6s 55 B	91¾	91¾	91¾
Int T & T cvt 4½s 39	74¾	74¾	74¾
K C Ft S & M 4s 36	74¾	74¾	74¾
K C Southern rfg 5s 50	97¾	97¾	97¾
Kelly-Spr 6s 41	97¾	97¾	97¾
Kendall 5½s 48 A war	97	95	95
Kendall 5½s 48 B war	97	95	95
Lautaro Nitrate 6s 54	64¾	64¾	64¾
Leh Val Coal 5s 33	101¾	101¾	101¾
Lorillard Co 5s 51	92¼	91¾	91¾
Manat R rcts 6s 43 A	104¾	104¾	104¾
Manat Ry con 4s 99	55	55	55
Market St Ry 7s 47	105¾	105¾	105¾
McCormick Hrv Mc 6s 34	101¼	101¼	101¼
Minn St Ry 5s 45	101¾	101¾	101¾
M K Tex pr in 5s 62 A	99¾	99¾	99¾
Mo Pac 5½s 49 A	81¾	81¾	81¾
Mo Pac cvt 5½s 49 A	81	81	81
Mo Pac 5s 50 B	81¾	81¾	81¾
Mo Pac 5s 80 H	81¾	81¾	81¾
Mo Pac 5s 77 A	87¼	87¼	87¼
Mont Pow rfg 5s 43 A	104¾	104¾	104¾
Nat Dairy 5½s 48	105¾	105¾	105¾
Nat Dairy 5½s 48	105¾	105¾	105¾
N O F S ne ctf 5s 53	105¾	105¾	105¾
N Y Chic & St L 4½s 78	101¾	101¾	101¾
NYC&HR deb 4s 34	101¾	101¾	101¾
NYC&HR deb 6s 34	101¾	101¾	101¾
NY Ch & StL 4½s 78 C	93¾	93¾	93¾
NY Edison 5s 44 A	104¾	104¾	104¾
NY GELH&P con 5s 48	111¾	111¾	111¾
NYNH&H inc 4½s 98 A	73	73	73
NYNH&H deb 4s 47	73	73	73
N Y Rys 4s 49	73	73	73
N Y Tel rfg 5s 41	108¾	108¾	108¾
N Y Tel con 4½s 39	104¾	104¾	104¾
N Y Tel gen 4½s 39	103¾	103¾	103¾
Norf & W gen 4s 96	101¾	101¾	101¾
Nor Am 4 West div 4s 48	93¾	93¾	93¾
Nor Am Edison 5s 57	104¾	104¾	104¾
Nor Pac gen 4s 2047	87¾	87¾	87¾
Nor Pac gen 3s 2047 C	103¾	103¾	103¾
Nor Pac gen 3s 2047	103¾	103¾	103¾
Ohio Cities Gas 5½s 47	101¾	101¾	101¾
Ohio Edison 5½s 47	104¾	104¾	104¾
Ohio Edison 5s 48	104¾	104¾	104¾
Ohio Power 5s 52	104¾	104¾	104¾
Ohio Public Ser 5s 54

STEEL LEADER IN A MILD WALL STREET RALLY

Approximate sales today, 1,300,000 shares
Week ago, 800,000
Year ago—Holiday

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE

1931 to date, 198,182,975
1930 to date, 266,885,410
1929 to date, 347,295,470

Dividend Earned by Corn Products

Corn Products Refining Co. first quarter business was about 50 per cent under the first three months of 1930. Profits decreased in about the same proportion. Net was probably about $2,400,000, just about covering the common dividend of 75 cents a share. Last year Corn Products earned $3,152,343, or $1.07 a common share, the first quarter.

Texas Gulf Sulphur Management Hopeful

New York, April 18—Earnings of Texas Gulf Sulphur Co. for the first quarter are estimated at slightly over $2,500,000, or a few cents a share less than requirements of $1 a share on 2,540,000 shares for the period. Management believes dividend will be fully earned this year.

Chilean Nitrates' Merger Ratified

Stockholders of Anglo-Chilean Consolidated Nitrate Corp. and Lautaro Nitrate Corp., meeting at Wilmington, approved adherence of these two companies to the Chilean Government's plan for the consolidation of the Chilean nitrate industry into a single company. Compania de Salitre de Chile (Cosach)

Reynolds Metal Co. Net 46 Cents Share

Earnings for the quarter ended March 31, of Reynolds were 46 cents a share on the common, as against 49 cents a share in the first quarter of last year, according to C. K. Reynolds, vice-president.

Dome Mines Income Shows a Large Gain

Dome Mines, Ltd., reports for quarter ended March 31 total income of $1,772,839, equal to $2.63 a share on the 666,902 shares, against $1,768,726 in the first quarter of 1930.

Shenango Valley Operations Steady

Operations at Shenango Valley plants maintained their improved tone the past week. While no improvement was shown in schedules there was no reduction and steel men were optimistic.

Shoe Production Up in February

Production of shoes during February, surveys sc, 23,626,000 pairs, against 19,589,000 pairs in January and 25,898,000 pairs in February, 1930, according to Hide Exchange figures just released.

North Western Net $28,939,050 in 1930

Pamphlet report of teh Chicago & North Western Railroad Company for 1930 showed net income of $28,939,050. After dividends there was a balance amounted to $436,982

Peoples Gas Light Net Shows a Gain

Chicago, April 18—Peoples Gas Light & Coke Co. reports for quarter ended March 31 net profit of $1,772,839, equal to $2.63 a share on the 666,902 shares, against $1,768,726 in the first quarter of 1930.

Shenango Valley Operations Steady

Operations at Shenango Valley plants maintained their improved tone the past week. While go improvement was shown in schedules there was no reduction and steel men were optimistic.

Shoe Production Up in February

Production of shoes during February, surveys sc, 23,626,000 pairs, against 19,589,000 pairs in January and 25,898,000 pairs in February, 1930, according to Hide Exchange figures just released.

COPPER IS SOLD AT 9½ CTS.

New York, April 18 (AP)—Trade circles today reported that a sale of copper has been made by a custom smelter at 9½ cents a pound, a concession a quarter of a cent from the ruling quotation yesterday and equal to the low figure recorded in the depression of 1921.

Other custom smelters were said to be open to bids at 9½ cents a pound. Producers, however, continued to hold their metal at 10 cents, delivered, and the export price remained at 10.30 cents.

Meanwhile, the American Bureau of Metal Statistics reported an increase in production for March, a development interpreted in the trade as bearish. World output last month was placed at 138,655 tons against 128,685 tons in February and 139,390 tons in January.

Production in the United States last month likewise showed an increase, totaling 77,226 tons against 55,229 tons in February and 58,429 tons in January.

N. E. Power Sets Production Up

All records for power production by New England Power Association were broken during the first half of April, the current period, as production of the system, water power and steam was in excess of 56,000,000 kilowatt hours, substantial increase over any other period of 15 consecutive days in history of the system.

Magma's Quarter in Earnings $111,425

Magma Copper Co. reports for quarter ended March 31 net earnings of $111,425 after expenses, and depreciation, but before federal taxes, against $388,676 in the first quarter of 1930.

Flying in Red

Curtiss-Wright Flying Service, Inc., reports for 1930 net loss $3,597,771 after interest, inventory adjustments and other charges.

ADVICE TO INVESTORS IS FREE

Before you buy or sell stocks or bonds, you ought to secure unbiased expert advice. Send your investment inquiries with stamp to Frank H. Meloon, Financial Editor, Boston Evening American, 5 Winthrop Sq., Boston. All replies are made by mail direct.

MAY MEAN CHANGE

A. M., Everett—What is your opinion of Northern Pacific? I have twenty-five shares much above current levels.

Ans.—The decline in Northern Pacific to a level where the yield is more than 10 per cent indicates, we think, uncertainty over continuance of current 25 dividend paid from 1922. Preliminary report indicates earnings of $4 a share, against $8.78 in 1929 and $8.52 in 1928. For two months ended February 28, 1931, deficit from operations was $61,602, compared with net operating income of $368,671 for similar two months of 1930. According to official statement, "Present indications are that no improvement will occur before the end of 1931."

EARNINGS DROP

L. J. Athol—What is your opinion of Packard Motor? I have some of the stock at much higher levels.

Ans.—Though the past record of Packard Motor is a good one, the stock is a speculation. Because of profit reductions production last year was dropped to 60 cents a share, against $1.28 a share in 1929. The present stock paid $1 a share annually from September, 1929, but with quarterly payment of 15 cents a share from December 1, 1930. It was reduced to current 60 cents basis. Any attempt to judge future prices would be unavailing.

A SPECULATION

G. R., Randolph—As a reader of your paper I want advice. Commonwealth & Southern has been suggested as a good stock to buy now. What do you think of it?

Ans.—Commonwealth & Southern is a speculation. Against current annual dividends of 80 cents a share, earnings in 1930 were $1 cents a share. In 1929 stock dividends totaling 2¼ per cent were paid. Though the company has an interest in several well-established public utility enterprises, earnings so far are nothing to get excited about. Do you want to make an investment? How much can you spend? The late Michael Friedsam

KENNECOTT'S REPORT GIVEN

New York, April 18 (AP)—Kennecott Copper Co. and subsidiaries for 1930 reported net profit of $18,585,-736, before depletion and inventory and metal adjustments. Charges amounting to $7,626,826 for inventory adjustments and $2,000,000 were made directly against surplus account. In 1929 net profit before depletion was $23,010,000, equal to $5.55 a share on 3,385,849 shares outstanding at the end of the year. United Verde Copper Corp. subsidiaries for 1930 reported net income of $208,462, against $481,133 in 1929.

White Rock Mineral Springs Co. for the quarter ended March 31, reported net income of $212,526, against $257,182 in the first quarter of 1930.

Westvaco Chlorine Products Corp. and subsidiaries for the first quarter reported net profit equal to 68 cents a share on the common, against 89 cents a share in the like period last year.

Smelting Copper Production Up

World smelter production of copper, as distinct from refinery output, in March was 138,685 short tons, comparing with 128,685 tons in February and 154,044 tons in March a year ago.

Daily rate of world copper output in March amounted to 4608 short tons, against 4596 in February and 4969 tons in March, 1930.

Bar Silver Firm With Buying Good

New York, April 18—Bar silver today was 3 cents, unchanged at 29¼ cents an ounce. London reported good buying there and orders increased here with offerings limited.

Burke Akman's Head

John R. Burke was elected president of N. Akman & Co., succeeding the late Michael Friedsam.

(a) Optional stock or cash. (b) Partly extra. (c) Extra stock and cash (d) Extra in stock (e) Including extras. (f) Payable in Warrants attached. (ww) Without warrants. (x) Ex-dividend. (xr) Ex-rights. (z) Paid when earned (h) 18 per cent in stock. (i) 6 per cent in stock. (k) 8 per cent in stock. (m) 4 per cent in stock. (n) 5 per cent in stock. (p) 2 per cent in stock. (r) 3 per cent in stock. (s) 5 per cent in stock. (t) 7 per cent in stock. (v) 10 per cent in stock. (w) 15 per cent in stock. (x) 20 per cent in stock. (y) 25 per cent in stock. (z) 30 per cent in stock.

Copyright, 1931, by Standard Statistics Co., Inc.

THIMBLE THEATER Starring POPEYE

Now Showing—"The Diplomat" Tuesday—"It's the Same in Any Language" By Segar

A Full Page POPEYE Comic Appears Today in Another Part of BOSTON AMERICAN Look For It

CASTOR SAID THAT YOU GIVE THE PRETTY GIRLS WHO COME INTO YOUR CHARITY BANK MORE MONEY THAN YOU DO THE HOMELY ONES. IS THAT THE TRUTH?
WELL, YES AN' NO

I WANTS YA TO REMEMBER ONE THING, OLIVE—AN' THIS THIS—THE REASON I SMILES AT OTHER BRUNECKS IS BECAUSE I'M THINKIN' OF YOU REALLY?
AW-SO-LIKE-LY!

KRAZY KAT Double Size Comic Today in Another Part of This Paper

WEDDING BELLS

First Twenty Years

EVER SINCE YOU GAVE YOUR WIFE THAT CABINET FOR HER WEDDING ANNIVERSARY MY WIFE DOES NOTHING BUT RAVE TO ME ABOUT WHAT A GOOD MAN YOU ARE SHE DOES?
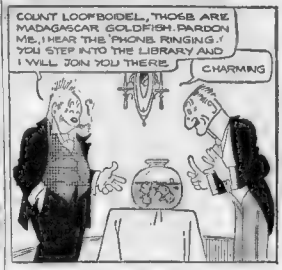
WELL, YOU GOTTA BE GOOD TO STAY IN THIS RACKET TWENTY YEARS
TWENTY YEARS, HEH?

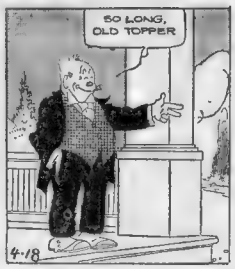
BRINGING UP FATHER

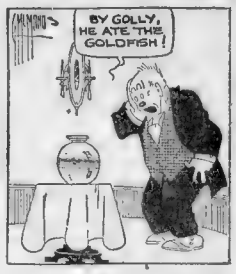
The Count Had a Fish Dinner

By George McManus



COUNT LOOFBOIDEL, THOSE ARE MADAGASCAR GOLDFISH. PARDON ME, I HEAR THE 'PHONE RINGING. YOU STEP INTO THE LIBRARY AND I WILL JOIN YOU THERE.
CHARMING





TIM TYLER'S FLYING LUCK

An Ounce of Prevention

By Lym Young

WITH THE MOTOR "DEAD" THE SHIP GRACEFULLY AND SILENTLY SPIRALS DOWN TO THE SMOOTH HARD SURFACE OF THE GLISTENING BEACH. WHAT KIND OF A RECEPTION AWAITS IT?
THERE'S A STRONG GROUND WIND FROM TH' NORTH
DO YOU THINK WE'LL BE SEEN, SPUD
IT'S HARD TELLIN', TIM—IF HE'S HAVIN' ENGINE TROUBLE AN' TRYIN' TO FIX IT UP, CHANCES ARE HE'LL NEVER KNOW WE'RE DROPPIN' IN ON HIM—!
I WAS JUST THINKING—WOULDN'T IT BE GREAT IF MISS MOLLYD ESCAPE WITH THE JEWELS AND MEET US WHEN WE LAND? THEN WE COULD FLY AWAY, QUICK—WITHOUT ANY OF US GETTING HURT!
THAT'D BE SWELL, TIM, BUT—HEY, ROY—I'M GONNA STRAIGHTEN OUT FER A LANDIN' ON TH' NEXT TURN—
TIM—BRING US A COUPLE OF PISTOLS AND A HALF DOZEN CLIPS OF CARTRIDGES FROM MY LOCKER BOX NEVER MIND A GAT FOR ME, ROY, I'D RATHER SWING MY MITTS—!!

COOK-COOS

By TED COOK

Copyright, 1931, for the Boston Evening American.

College authorities are advocating restriction of student bodies by using more care as to who they let in.

This will help—but the American college won't be entirely satisfactory until it's more careful who it lets out.

• • •

Sign in a Cincinnati hotel—

Wash Out Your Own Tub This Ain't the Ritz

Moronis, the office flapper, says she buys her clothes by instalments and only wears the first instalment.

NOTE ON THE NORM

Our nation, it appears, is reeking
With people brazenly self-seeking,
To those who say it is not true
Our answer is "Pooh! Pooh! to you."

• • •

Add best gaggies of the month—

"Why are Coolidge and King George alike? They both have beards except Coolidge."—O. O. McIntyre.

"It is said Clara Bow sends Daisy De Voe three magazines regularly, LIBERTY, OUTDOOR LIFE AND TRAVEL."—Walter Winchell.

• • •

"Anyway," mutters Genevieve, the kitchen cynic, "it's comforting to consider the fact that a movie actor can't respond to an encore every time some smug applauds."

• • •

BULL-ONEY Classified Ad

REPORTING is fascinating and full of romance. Open the way to these exclusive [illegible] Day and night classes. 612 Ivy Hall.

Song of the Road

TRUNK LOST—Between Chicago and Joliet, Ill., one Hudson trunk and two suitcases. One suitcase contained a uniform and cap marked Good Samaritans of Wisconsin, the other containing the colonel's daughter's clothes and a pocketbook. Finder please phone Broadway 2151, Milwaukee, Wis. Reward paid.

• • •

Let us fare forth, you and I,
Seeking trunks beneath the sky;
Faring South, as did Marquette
Between Chicago and Joliet.
You can find the trunk, etc.;
Take the reward, and I will go forth
Through the trees along the water
Looking for the Colonel's daughter.
—W. J. Jordan

• • •

Milestone on the path to civilization—

MADRID—Police today clashed with several hundred university students and laborers and broke up the procession by using rubber clubs and sabers.

• • •

It would be a swell idea if the next war could be fought with rubber sabres.

• • •

With the cavalry on rocking horses.

• • •

DAILY DOUBT

(Address)—"Positions on the so-called vice squads have never been wanted and always have been filled with difficulty."—N. Y. Police Commissioner Mulrooney.

• • •

My gal is quite an oddity,
She likes to cook and sew
Which makes up for a lot of things
She doesn't seem to know.

• • •

It's bad enough to have to smoke cigars made of cabbage. Why do you suppose they have to put garlic in them?

• • •

FAMOUS LAST WORDS

You're quite right, Bishop Manning; but I'm not sure it's a very significant point.

POLLY AND HER PALS

The Early Bird

By Cliff Sterrett

LITTLE ANNIE ROONEY

Monkey Shines

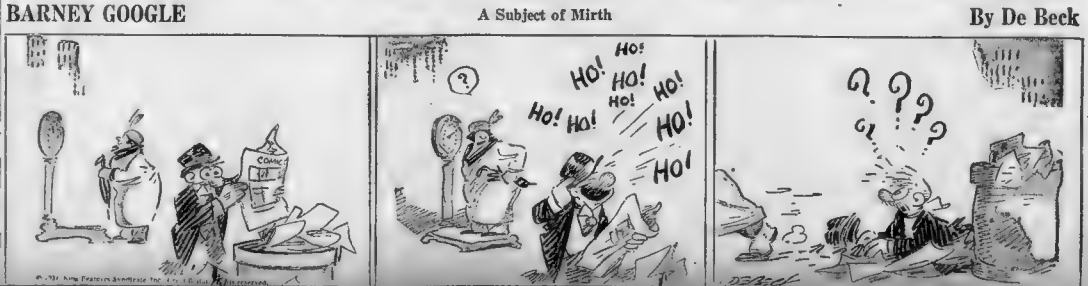
By Darrell McClure

WHEE—AN ORGAN-GRINDER—AIN'T IT SWELL?—THAT MEANS WINTER WAS—AND SPRING IS
HEY—YOU LITTLE FATHEAD—WHY DON'T YOU PICK ON SOMEBODY YOUR OWN SIZE? I DON'T NOTICE YOU HAVING FUN CHASING POLICE DOGS AROUND!!
HERE'S A DIME, MISTER—AND PLEASE EXCUSE ZERO—I GUESS HE THOUGHT YOUR SWELL LITTLE MONKEY WAS JUST A CAT WITH AN EXTRA LONG TAIL
CHUCK CHUCK
G'WAN, ZERO—SHAKE HANDS—AND LET HIM KNOW YOU'RE SORRY 'CAUSE YOU DIDN'T HAVE SENSE ENOUGH TO MIND YOUR OWN BUSINESS
DARRELL McCLURE

BARNEY GOOGLE

A Subject of Mirth

By De Beck



TODAY'S TRUE STORY

WEIGHED IN THE BALANCE

Fur Coat Is Best Clue

WHEN TWO bandits walked into the First National Bank of Adamsburg, tapped the watchman bone too gently on the head with the butt of a gun, trussed and gagged the cashier, then rifled the vaults of $15,000—the 5000 residents of the town were stunned.

The consensus was that the "job" had been the work of New York gunmen. For those who argued that it appeared thugs to venture into such a small town, the wiser replied that $15,000 Adamsburg money was as good as any other currency.

So when a week after the robbery, Russel Wandertalk, part time police commissioner and silk jobber, entered the bank with his entire force of five men, and placed a pair of handcuffs on the cashier—the town was literally volcanoed

Abner Gorman, the cashier, was about 55, a simple hearted, childless widower, who had grown stoop-shouldered in the service of the bank He was known and loved and trusted.

Many argued that there must be some mistake in that arrest and more skeptical spirits hinted that something had happened to Wandertalk's sense of right and wrong since he had cast eyes on that attractive housekeeper who had just been engaged by the neighbors of Abner Gorman, and who was such a magpie.

But Wandertalk stuck to his guns and locked Abner behind the bars of the county jail

"We're holding him," he said in metropolitan style, "as a material witness."

A week after the gentle, graying cashier had been jailed, Wandertalk was interviewed by the reporter for Adamsburg Weekly.

"We have no clues to the actual perpetrators of the crime," he admitted, "but we're looking for a fur coat."

"A fur coat?"

"Oh, well," replied the part-time police chief, "the coat may be on the back of a young girl. We'd like to talk to the girl, too."

"What kind of girl is she?"

"Pretty, after a fashion. Brunette, straight hair, dark eyes, olive skin. Quite alluring."

"What does she do for a living?"

"Gold digging from all we could gather. She is supposed to have married a waiter—perhaps we should call him a bartender."

"Where is she now?"

"Supposed to have gone South with said ait. Oh, yes, with a diamond ring, too. Worth about $600.

"How long ago did she leave?"

"About a month, as far as we could learn."

"That's about a fortnight before the robbery," calculated the reporter, somewhat confused, "then she couldn't even have been a decoy. What's it to do with Abner Gorman?"

"Wait and see," retorted Wandertalk.

Then he put on his hat and coat and the reporter saw him stroll over to where the attractive, but too-talkative Mrs. Helen Burnap, and engage her in conversation

Just as the storm was getting too uncomfortable, Wandertalk announced the arrest in Trenton of two men. The two were to be formally accused of assaulting the Adamsburg First National watchman.

And when the town had time to get its bearings came the finale

For Abner Gorman, the quiet, unassuming, graying cashier—had confessed. It was he who had turned the two prisoners to stage the robbery—to slug the watchman and to bind and gag him—and to open the vaults—that were already empty. And the reason there were empty was because Gorman had pocketed the $15,000 long ago

And now the cryptic statements of Wandertalk became clear. The fur coat which graced the neck of the brunette was paid for by Gorman. The diamond ring that glittered on her manicured finger was paid for by Gorman. And the "love nest" which now housed her waiter-bartender husband was paid for by Gorman

For the old adage of there being no fool like an old fool proved true in the case of Abner Gorman.

And now Adamsburg tendered a dinner to its part-time police chief.

Wandertalk came resplendent to the dinner, with the attractive Mrs. Burnap on his arm.

"Gentlemen," he remarked, at his after-dinner speech, "you are all anxious to know how I solved the robbery. Simple—quite simple. With the help of back-fence gossip. One person knew of the fur coat he had bought and of either or the diamond ring and a third had once seen him in Trenton with the brunette. I wanted to see one to run down all the gossip and learn the truth. So I engaged—this lady seated at my left—me—an operative of a well-known detective chain. And she certainly turned out swell Scotland Yard.

"And incidentally," added Wandertalk, in a mellower tone, "she has just resigned from her position and has decided to remain permanently in Adamsburg. Well, don't press me too hard for the reason

(All names of characters in this story are fictitious.)

King of the Slack Wire Artists

DRAWN BY Nell Brinkley

BETWEEN THE hearts, and the different natures, of a man and a woman, Love, to stay Love, must keep the most delicate kind of a balance. Or off he goes, to be shattered in plentiful pieces. And you know, of course, that he is a relative of Humpty-Dumpty—that is to say, he has the same strange peculiarity as that egg-shaped character—once broken, he is UNmendable! Once he is apart, NOTHING, as the scholarly-sconces in matters of Love say, NOTHING can get him together again—save in the most unsatisfactory way that feels nobody and is liable to fall apart again at the slightest jar.

NOTHING—not even all those King's horses and all those King's men, all the best intentions, the most honest struggles, the most desperate pains, can make as good as new the dear little god who airily treads the slack-wire — sometimes the tight-rope — between two lovers, once he has plunged off and flattened himself pitifully on the hard, cold earthy-earth of unlovely fact.

However, he is the best there is at skipping the most difficult path in the world. And the world sits back, the world—that is to say, THEIR FRIENDS—sits back and wonders and applauds at the spectacle of this airy boy-fairy keeping his place on the delicate thread from one heart to another for years and years —and forever and aye, as he sometimes does.

Balanced there, lightly trembling, sometimes apprehensive, but never saying so, while the man and the woman change slowly from the "Shepherd and His Love" lapped in romance, through the figure of "The Family" with romance slightly dimmed by the hard light of care, to "Darby and Joan" with snowed-upon heads going back into "The Dream" again together.

And he never falls off, to the wonder and delight of the believers in the possibility of undying Love! Until the rest of his act have no need of him longer: when he finds his little "Celias" and his heart-string, and goes—WHITHER?

Where does the Love, who never fell, as Humpty-Dumpty did, and was broken, through the life of a man and woman who are true lovers, go, when the lovers themselves are gone?—NELL BRINKLEY.

Recipes of Round Table

SIX AWARDS of $1 each will be published each Saturday for the best contributions chosen for this column during the week The household suggestions may include not only recipes, but any sort of helpful hints for housewives—economical cookery or housekeeping in any of its forms.

Address all contributions to Martha Lee, Boston Evening American, 5 Winthrop sq., Boston.

MAPLE SUGAR CAKE

1 cup maple sugar
½ cup butter
1 egg yolk (reserve white for frosting)
¾ cup milk
4 tsps. baking powder
½ tsp. salt
2 cups flour

Cream butter and sugar well, being sure there are no lumps of sugar in mixture add egg yolk and milk. Sift dry ingredients twice, add last together with 1 tsp. vanilla. Beat well, bake in loaf tin about 40 minutes in moderate oven.

Maple Frosting

One cup sugar, ½ cup water, boiled until it spins a thread. Pour over beaten egg white, beating all the while, until cool and firm enough to spread on cake.

MRS. GLADYS MARSHALL.
423 Massachusetts ave., Boston.

RICE CREAM

One-half cup rice, 1 cup water, cook in double boiler until dry, then add 1 pt. hot milk and cook 1 hour. Add ½ cup sugar and a little salt. When cold add ½ pt. cream, whipped. Pack in mold and serve cold with hot maple syrup.

MRS. M. J. METTLER
108 Grover ave., Winthrop

Tomorrow's Table

BREAKFAST
Iced Grape Juice
Dry Cereal
French Toast with Maple Syrup
Coffee

DINNER
Fruit Cocktail
Fricasseed Chicken
New Potatoes with Parsley
Green Peas
Currant Jelly
Tomato Salad Lemon Pie
Coffee

SUPPER
Omelet with Creole Sauce
Hot Buttered Rolls
Strawberries with Cream
Cake Tea

Garden Girl Says

WHEN YOUR peas are about 4 inches high, they should have the soil banked up again. Then run cotton strands above your head. They begin to send out their climbing tendrils to take hold of the brush you have provided. Poultry wire is a fair substitute.

Daily Pattern

By Marian Martin

To Cure Spring Fever

PATTERN 9024

THERE IS nothing like a new frock to cure that languid, restless feeling we all get at this time of the year

Pattern 9024 may be ordered only in sizes 16, 18, 20, 34, 36, 38, 40 and 42. Size 18 requires 4 yards of 39 inch fabric

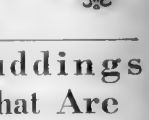
To get a pattern of this model, send Fifteen Cents (15c) in coin or stamps (coins preferred) Please write very plainly your name, address, style number and size of each pattern ordered.

Address all orders to Boston Evening American Pattern Department, 233 West 18th st., New York City.

Puddings That Are Popular

By MARTHA LEE.

ONE OF the most fascinating restaurants I know specializes in good old-fashioned home made puddings. "What will you have in my day—chocolate cake ice cream, apricot, pie or rice pudding?" And if you are an habitue of the place, you promptly reply "rice pudding." I know in that you will get a serving of creamy, rich pudding that is even better than the kind that mother used to make.



Martha Lee

APRICOT BREAD PUDDING

3 cups rich milk
1 cup stale bread crumbs
1 cup sugar
1 tbsp. melted butter
3 eggs
½ tsp. salt
Few gratings nutmeg
Apricots or apricot jam

Scald milk, when cool add crumbs, beat yolks until light and lemon colored, add butter, salt and nutmeg. Mix with crumbs and milk and pour into buttered pan and bake in a slow oven, 275 deg. F until pudding is set. Spread cooled stewed dried apricot jam over top. Cover with a meringue made from the stiffly beaten egg whites and 2 tbsps. powdered sugar. Place in a 350 deg. F. oven until meringue is a delicate brown about 20 minutes.

Faithfully yours,

Martha Lee

Week's Winners

AWARDS OF $1 each to Mrs. I. Sutman, 7 Baird st., Dorchester, Mint on Baking Potatoes; Mrs. C. Henderson, Tenant's Harbor, Maine, Rhubarb Marmalade; Miss G Claven, 48 Cauphey st., Waltham Salmon Fluff, Mrs. Katherine McGovern, 11 North st., Haverhill, Date Pie; Mrs. M. Mazzucotelli, 21 Bonad rd., Milton, Italian Spaghetti, and Mrs. E. L. Riordeau, 466 Groveland st., Haverh ll, Hints on Raincoats, Italian Furniture, Windows, etc.

Honorable Mention

OTHER RECIPES and household hints deserving honorable mention came from Miss Julia B. Marsters, East Sandwich; Mrs. E. M. Drake, 433 Warren st., Roxbury; Mrs. O. R. Cook, 9 Garfield ave., Stoneham; Mrs William J. Daley, 37 Winchester st., Brookline; Mrs. W. D. James, 74 Myrtle st., Somerville; Mrs. Katherine Simpkins, 22 Hayes st., Cambridge; Edna Resena, 7 Baird st., Dorchester; Mrs. M. Bates, Salisbury

MRS. W. C. SINCLAIR, 53 Cedar st., Framingham; Mrs. J. L. Moore, 70 Almont st., Winthrop; Mrs. B. Forsyth, 226 Beacon ave., Melrose; Mrs. H. Maggiacomo, 28 Charnock st., Beverly; Mrs. Cora Meserve, 59 Portland st., Portland, Me.; Mrs. F. B. Demavanville, 243 Bay st., Taunton; Miss Theresa K. Connors, 5 Evergreen rd., Billerica; Mrs. Josephine Tessier, 15 Plain st., Natick; Mrs. A. Burkhardt, 15 Merchant st., East Boston; Miss Eleanor R. Olson, Rock st., Wrentham; Miss Ida F. Clarke, 43 Plantation st., Worcester.

MRS. W. M. COOLIDGE, Bolton; Miss Alice Murray, 20 So. Maple ave., Bradford, Grace E. Good, 6 Hayes st., Framingham, Mrs. L. M. Sweeney, 378-A Eastern ave., Lynn; Mrs. Ann Campbell, 25 Fourth st., No. Boston, Mrs. E. M. Donnelly, 22 Oaks, K. Derry, N. H.; Mrs. M. R. Nickerson, 54 Second st., Hingham; Mrs. Bernard Crosby, 22 Gardner st., Arlington; Mrs. L. F. Mason, 37 Pine st., Framingham; Mrs. A. Wood, 5 Prescott pl., Newport, R. I.; Mrs. Alice Bertha Ferris, 1859 Columbus ave., Roxbury

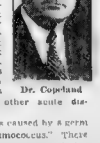
M. F. MORAN, 304 Washington st., Norwich, Ct.; Mrs. A. Carlan, 48 Kilburn st., Revere, Mrs. F. W. Merry, 69 Green st., Watertown; Mrs. Margaret F. Rostron, 14 Harold st., Boston; T. S. Burkhardt, 15 Merchant st., Portsmouth, R. I.; Miss F. Velino, 28 Cherry st., W. Somerville, Gladys Marshall, 423 Massachusetts ave., Boston; Mrs. M. J. Mettler, 105 Grover ave., Winthrop, Ellen O'Connor, 46 Franklin st., Arlington; Mrs. Ina Yates, 21 Lexington st., Chelsea; Elizabeth Nelson, 96 Thorndike st., Arlington

MRS. EDITH WHITCOMB P. O. Box 95, Norfolk Downs; Mrs. C. E. Pace, 350 Wayland ave., Providence; Mrs. Ruth Dunn, Box 378, Newport, Vt.; Mrs. F. H Greaney, 194 Lexington st., Woburn; Mrs. Christine Wood, 20 Second st., Biddeford, Me.; Mrs. Ida Lee Cook, R. I.; Mrs. James Watson, 74 Second st., Andover, Mass.; Mrs. A. Pelletier, 58 St., Brookfield; Mrs. E. Bailey, 169 Oak st., Wakefield; Mrs. Adrian Petito, 14 Bickford ct., Hanson; Mrs. Christine Bonner, 53 Telegraph st., New Boston; Miss Lena Logan, 20 Ward st., So. Boston; Mrs. L. C. Harding, River rd., Hudson and Mrs. Frank Sullivan, 119 S aratoga st., Lawrence.

More Danger of Pneumonia in Weak Body

By DR. COPELAND.

OF ALL the acute infectious diseases, pneumonia has always been most feared. It is more common and more fatal than any other infectious disease. It is as widespread in its devastating career as tuberculosis.



Dr. Copeland

Pneumonia differs from other infectious diseases in that one attack does not give immunity to a second attack. In fact, it seems to work the other way. Recurrence is more common in pneumonia than in any other acute disease.

The disease is caused by a germ called the "pneumococcus." There are four different types of this germ. They differ in their mode of attack and in severity of the disease.

The germ enters the body through the nose or mouth. This germ is found in the atmosphere and in much of the dust with which we come in contact.

For some reason, not yet clearly understood, but all persons are stricken with pneumonia The disease manifests itself when the body has become weakened and rendered susceptible to infection

Good health is our only assurance of resistance to this disease. Weakening diseases lower the body resistance and render it liable to pneumonia. That is why this complication is particularly common after an attack of influenza. The form of pneumonia that follows a siege of Influenza is often very dangerous

Loss of sleep, overwork, worry, poor food, lack of fresh air, alcohol and exposure to cold should be avoided. This is particularly important for the very young and the aged.

Answers to Health Queries

E. L. H. Q—What causes dizziness"

A—This may be due to a circulatal condition, to nervousness, or ear condition, or to some intestinal disturbance. An examination will determine the exact cause and then definite treatment can be prescribed.

C. C. Q—What causes severe pains in the sciatic nerve?

A.—Sciatica is caused by some sort of infection present in the system. For further information send a self-addressed stamped envelope and repeat your question

Copyright, 1931, Newspaper Feature Service, Inc.

Make-Believe

—By FAITH BALDWIN—

Continued from Page 1, 2nd Sec.

never come to anything, a love founded, in a sense, upon a lie

But the next morning dawned sunny and clear and cold. There was a firm coating of ice on the little lake and at breakfast Lorrimer cheerfully announced that skating was indicated. He had dragged out his old rusty skates from a closet and had had them sharpened and shined and had ordered a pair for Mary Lou some weeks before. So, after breakfast, well wrapped against the cold, they went down together to the little lake and Lorrimer knelt down to put on her skates for her She looked down at his bent, dark head and wondered how she could ever leave him. Just to stay near him, somehow, seemed suddenly enough . . . but—she couldn't stay

He looked up then and found her eyes on him, intent and mysterious and sorrowful. He said, holding her slim ankle in the ring of his bare hand

"Don't be angry with me for last night, Delight. I couldn't help it. I—well, blame it on the Christmas spirit. I can't tell you how I dread your going, your misunderstanding. You mean so much to me, you have been so much to me, so patient and understanding. If ever I get to be a useful citizen of this world again, I—I'll owe it to you. Do you forgive me?"

She said, "Of course."

Her heart was beating like a trip hammer. Lorrimer pulled her to her feet put on his mittens and his cap and took her hands in his. Did they again feel the gleaming surface of the lake, hand in hand laughing like children, circling slowly, then faster, the blood running warmly through their veins, their cheeks whipped to fine color, their eyes clear and shining

"Once I could waltz," he told her, and put his arms about her. Whistling, he danced her, muffled and laughing, about the lake. Then one foot slipped, he made a wild grasp to recover his balance and they both fell ignominiously.

"Golly, are you hurt?" he demanded and ruefully arose to help her to her feet.

"Only my pride," she told him. "Suppose we don't try anything quite as fancy as that for a while."

They skated up to the bank and back again, in long, graceful sweeping steps. It was nearly lunch time before they returned to the house. On the way up, their skates slung over his arm, he said:

"We have—such good times. I haven't lived for so long. If you knew what laughter meant to me, Delight—"

The thought she did know. After all, his happiness came first. As long as he was happy, what right had she to run away? Going to her room after lunch ready for luncheon she went to the desk, took out the letter and weighed it in her hand. After a moment she walked resolutely to the fireplace, dropped it in, bent to get a match to it and watched it burn

No, she owed it to him to stay And she owed it to Mary Lou Burnap and so, calling upon herself for some unexpected depth of courage, Mary Lou went forward into the New Year.

And this was the knowledge that Mary Lou took into the New Year with her the explicit understanding of her love for Travers Lorrimer. She had faced it well at first, a blind, bleak panic which urged her to escape, to run away to the very ends of the earth. But that she could not do; she had committed herself to stay on, until such time as her employer—for, after all, Margaret Lorrimer was just that, a miraculously kind, a heavenly and admired employer, but still—an employer—should discharge her from her curious, but, nevertheless, definite duties

Mary Lou, in her voracious reading, had often read of "love unrequited." She thought, now, that she could have borne that with some dignity and control. Loving never hurt anyone, really, she told herself, and she could have faced with a certain gallantry Lorrimer's unadorned liking, or evening his complete indifference. But her love was not unrequited, for Lorrimer told her that he loved her a hundred times a day, by a word, a gesture, a deep, long look from the brown eyes which were beginning to look out on life again with a normal interest and curiosity

That was the hardest thing to bear; that he loved . . . not her but her masquerade; not Mary Lou Thurston, but the girl he thought she was.

Tuesday—Next installment reveals how Mary Lou hides her impersonation of Delight after falling in love with Travers.

Copyright, 1931, by the Boston Evening American.

SMART SAYINGS OF CLEVER CHILDREN

The Boston Evening American will pay $1 for the best one of the published smart sayings each day. Address "Smart Sayings," Boston Evening American.

TODAY'S WINNER

Teacher—Who is the smartest man living?

Pupil—Thomas A Edison. He invented the phonograph and radio, so people would stay up all night and use his electric light bulbs. HELEN MacNEVIN
26 Harvard ave., Hyde Park.

HONORABLE MENTION

A little boy told the teacher his sister had the measles. After the teacher had dismissed him, another little boy raised his hand and said,

"Teacher, his sister who has the measles lives in Vermont."

MICHAEL A. CLARK
123 Boylston st., Jamaica Plain.

Miss Fairfax Doubts She's in Love

By BEATRICE FAIRFAX.

DEAR MISS FAIRFAX

I am 19 and have been keeping company with a young man of 24 for over since we were kids. He comes from a very good family and seems serious and dependable. Six months ago he went away to another city to work; he asks me to become engaged to him, but says he can't send me a ring at present, because he can't afford to send an expensive one He asked me to prepare for our marriage, such as getting a hope chest ready. I don't go out with other young men, but when I meet them I enjoy myself. Do you really think my friend is nervous? Should I prepare for our marriage? Should I let other young men come to see me? What do you think of the whole situation?

DOUBTFUL

Dear Doubtful—My first thought is that you're not really in love with the young man or you wouldn't harbor all these doubts about him.

Wants a Job So He Can Marry

DEAR MISS FAIRFAX

I am in love with a girl of 21 which is my age, too. We hope to get married in June if I can find a job In the meantime, but I have been unable to find work for five months I want to leave this city and seek work in my girl's home town. M. W.

Dear M. W. You will see that I have left out some of your letter in order to save space. I shouldn't think of marrying until I was on a firmer foundation with a little reserve fund in the bank. It would be a great injustice to the girl to marry with no definite prospects ahead. I hope you'll get a job. Good luck to you!

BEST JOKE I EVER HEARD

The Boston Evening American will pay $1 for the best one of the jokes published here each day. Address "Best Joke," Boston Evening American

TODAY'S WINNER

Editor—Smith, what happened to McTavish?"

Reporter—"Some one told him he could get his pants pressed free by letting a steamroller run over them."

Editor—"Why did that kill him?"

Reporter—"They forgot to tell him to take them off?"

P. SEVERINSON
Laurel ave., Concord

HONORABLE MENTION

Con: Hey, there, you quiet that racket and let people sleep

Drunk: Excuse me, cossiter. I didn't know you were asleep

MRS. JULIA WILKINS.
8 Templeton Way, Dorchester.

The Marry-Go-Round—Love Flies

By HELEN ROWLAND.

WHEN PRUDENCE comes in at the door, love has already flown out of the window; no man's common sense ever comes into action until his heart is having a reaction.

* * *

There are 40 ways of making a man happy. The first consists in knowing when to pet and coddle him; the other 39 consist in knowing when to let him alone.

* * *

It is the feat of a woman's life, these days, to find just that happy medium between the sort of man who insists on salting all his pretty and sentiment down and the kind who insists on burning them all up

* * *

When a man starts skidding down hill, he always blames it either on some woman above him who "threw him down" or on some woman below, who "temp'd him down"

* * *

The average man is capable of only one love in a lifetime; but, alas, he has to do so much experimenting in order to find out WHICH one.

* * *

This world is a good kind old world, after all. It will forgive you for a thousand things for which you will never be able to forgive yourself.

Copyright, 1931, Boston Evening American

Hospitality Is a Privilege

By MRS. BEECKMAN.

DEAR MRS BEECKMAN

I have known a young man for over a year and I have only been out with him once, and that was on an occasion where I invited him, as I had been given two tickets for a formal dance I hope it was proper for me to ask him? Now he has a new girl friend and the young man she goes with in for dinner, and I am wondering if it would be proper for me to invite him, or if he would think I was running after him? I would be very pleased if you will tell me what to do. REGRET.

It would be a charming thing to extend the hospitality of your home in this way, and I am sure that the young man would appreciate your kindness and thoughtfulness. But after that, let's let him make a social gesture, even if it is of only the simplest kind. I see no reason why you shouldn't have asked him to the dance, and I'd like to have you ask him with the other two friends to dine at your home. Then I am sure that his friendliness will suggest a "return" party.

DARTMOUTH COLLEGE DAILY ASSAILS B. C. ALUMNI

FANNING

With GEORGE UNDERWOOD

Tomorrow Is 34th Birthday of Great Boston Marathon.

17 Started in 1897. 200 to Run Monday. 500,000 Spectators.

CHAPTER X—ALONG MARATHON TRAIL

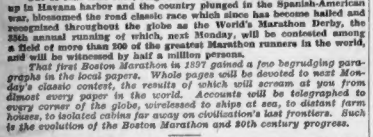
SIXTY-FIVE years ago, tomorrow, 17 aspiring distance runners, most of them from in and around Boston but some from New York, lined up on the roadway at Ashland and raced 25 miles over the roads to Irvington Oval. There about a thousand persons, attracted more because a handicap athletic meet was being held than because of the Marathon, saw the winner, John J. McDermott of the Pastime A. C. of New York, breast the worsted and inscribe his name in athletic chancelleries as the victor in the first Boston Marathon.

Out of that first race, staged the April before the Maine was blown up in Havana harbor and the country plunged in the Spanish-American war, blossomed the road classic race which since has become hailed and recognized throughout the globe as the World's Marathon Derby, the 38th annual running of which, next Monday, will be contested among a field of more than 200 of the greatest Marathon runners in the world, and will be witnessed by half a million persons.

That first Boston Marathon in 1897 gained a few begrudging paragraphs in the local papers. Whole pages will be devoted to next Monday's classic contest, the results of which will scream at you from almost every paper in the world. Accounts will be telegraphed to every corner of the globe, wirelessed to ships at sea, to distant farm houses, to isolated cabins far away on civilization's last frontiers. Such is the evolution of the Boston Marathon and 30th century progress.

IRVINGTON OVAL, where the finish of the first Boston Marathon took place, is no more. The ground now is occupied by Technology Chambers. The race finishes a few blocks away from the original ending point, at the club house of the Boston A. A. on Exeter st. The original course has been changed several times. The last time it was lengthened to the official measurements of 26 miles, 385 yards.

It takes an army of officials to handle the present Boston Marathon. A scant handful directed the first Boston Marathon. One man, the late Tom Burke, handled seven jobs.



At the start Tom officiated as clerk of the course, starter, timer and marshal. With the pack in full cry, Tom jumped on a bicycle, rode back and forth through the field as inspector for 26 miles. Then he said "Au Revoir!" to the leaders, bent far over his handlebars and pedalled to Irvington Oval to officiate as referee, finishing judge and timer.

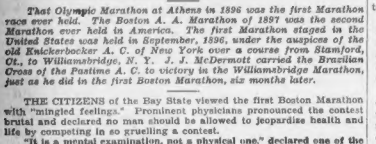
TOM HAD to be official timer, for he boasted one of the few long-winded stop watches available at the time. Also Tom was one of the few persons who knew anything at all about Marathons. Wasn't he himself at the trackside in far-away Athens the year previously when the modern Marathon Race was born? Didn't he see Spiros Louis, the Attician farmer, raise the Greeks to the seventh heaven of delight by winning the great contest?

Viewing the contest from a window in the Boston Athletic Club next Monday will be a silvery-haired gentleman, Arthur Blake, who wore the emblem of the Boston A. A. in the first Olympic Marathon in Athens in 1896. Tommy Burke is dead, but other old Boston heroes of the first modern Olympic meet in Athens in 1896, James B. Connolly, noted sea writer; Ellery Clark, lawyer; T. A. Curtis, Eddie Bloss, all will view the race from somewhere along the course.

That Olympic Marathon at Athens in 1896 was the first Marathon race ever held. The Boston A. A. Marathon of 1897 was the second Marathon ever held in America. The first Marathon staged in the United States was held in September, 1896, under the auspices of the old Knickerbocker A. C. of New York over a course from Stamford, Ct., to Williamsbridge, N. Y. J. J. McDermott carried the Brazilian Cross of the Pastime A. C. to victory in the Williamsbridge Marathon, just as he did in the first Boston Marathon, six months later.

THE CITIZENS of the Bay State viewed the first Boston Marathon with "mingled feelings." Prominent physicians pronounced the contest brutal and declared no man should be allowed to jeopardise health and life by competing in so gruelling a contest.

"It is a mental examination, not a physical one," declared one of the editorials of the time, "the participants need before the start of such an outrageous event."



Jim Lathrop, the Harvard trainer, forbade Eddie Grant, of the famous Grant brothers, Eddie and Alex, from competing in the first Boston Marathon. Eddie was a starter, nevertheless. He ran as far as Newton. There, hot and exhausted, he espied a friendly watering cart that was sprinkling the streets. Under it Eddie sank for a cooling shower and came out with such an attack of cramps he found he could not continue.

THERE wasn't much interest in the first three Boston Marathons, which were won, respectively, by J. J. McDermott, the New Yorker, and two local boys, R. J. McDonald and L. J. Brignoli of Cambridge. The first big impetus given the race came in 1900 when J. J. Caffrey came down from Canada and carried the silks of the Hamilton A. C. to victory. Caffrey's triumph was hailed the country over. The Boston Marathon had become a sports fixture and an international one. Caffrey carried the Maple Leaf to victory again the next year.

One by one those old Boston Marathon winners race by on memory's screen. Little sawed-off Sam Mellor and Mike Spring of New York; Fred Lorz, the first of the bricklayers to drop his hod and gain Marathon recognition. Our own J. C. Lorden and "Timmy" Ford, who now weighs close to a ton. Tom Longboat, the flying son of the Onondagas. Tom Morrissey from Yonkers, which in the early days was a nursery of Marathoners. Henri Renaud, the French-Canadian from Nashua, N. H. Fred Cameron, from Amherst, Nova Scotia.

In 1911, as we told in early chapters, the race was won by Clarence De Mar, who, 20 years later, will attempt to win his eighth Boston Marathon victory next Monday.

That flame-haired, ruddy-cheeked fellow you recall winning the Boston Marathon of 1912 was Mike Ryan, now coach at Colby. Next year came Frits Carlson, the Flying Swede, from Minneapolis. In 1914, the laurels in the great Marathon Derby went to Jimmy Duffy, who lies in a hero's grave where Flanders poppies grow. Jimmy was among the first of the Canadians to answer the call to colors and was in the thick of the fighting at Passendale, Ypres and Vimy Ridge before being killed.

The 1915 race was won by a Canadian, too, Edouard Fabre, of Montreal. Art Roth of Dorchester won in 1916. The 1917 and 1918 winners, William A. Kennedy, the Dorchester Bricklayer, and Carl Linder, who, like wine and Clarence De Mar, seem to improve with age, will be starters in Monday's great event, as also will Johnny Miles, winner in 1926 and 1929.

The Daddy of Them All, as told previously, will be our own Clarence De Mar, who finished second in the Boston Marathon of 1910, won in 1911, 1923, 1924, 1927, 1928 and 1930, and after 21 years in the Marathon game will try for his eighth Boston Marathon victory on Monday.

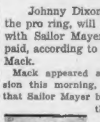
Ideal rowing weather of the past week found the Yale crew working daily on the Housatonic for coming races with Harvard and other college rivals. Here's the Eli Varsity—GILLISPIE, coxswain; GOODALE, stroke; ANTHONY No. 7, ROGERS No. 6, GOODYEAR No. 5, GARNSEY No. 4, KNOTT No. 3, GOODBODY No. 2, URQUART, bow. There's certainly enough PLENTY OF "GOODS" IN YALE "Goods" in the boat to make it a good crew. Inset—JAMES GAMBLE ROGERS, Yale captain. The Yale oarsmen shape up well and ought to make a record.

B. C. Boxer Cleared in 'Fake' Bout Charge

By JACK CONWAY

Johnny Dixon, Boston College athlete who recently entered the pro ring, will receive $500 for his services in his recent bout with Sailor Mayer if the boxing commission orders that he be paid, according to a statement issued today by Matchmaker Eddie Mack.

Mack appeared at the commission this morning, and requested that Sailor Mayer be called before the board.



Jack Conway

Mack informed the commission that Mayer was sent here from Bridgeport, that h e registered under an assumed name at the Crawford House and that he took a dive to Dixon.

Commissioner Eugene Buckley, following an earlier hearing, ruled there was not any evidence of any wrong doing on Mayer's part and that there was not any evidence showing that either Dixon or Solly Snyder, his manager, had been implicated in a fake fight and then upheld Dixon's contract. He gave Mack 24 hours to consider the case further and promised to make an order after the expiration of this time.

"I saw the bout and believe Dixon knocked Mayer out," said Commissioner Buckley. "The Argonne Club agreed to pay Dixon $500 for his service and will have to do so.

"The referee of the bout is the only one who could rule that it was a fake. In the opinion of the referee, Dixon knocked Mayer out.

"The Argonne Club offered to pay Dixon off with $400 but Solly Snyder refused to accept it. He insisted on full payment of $500 under his contract. In the absence of any wrong doing, boxing clubs must pay the amount agreed upon in contracts. Otherwise the boxing law would be a mockery."

Jimmy Pruss, manager of Mayer, told the commission that Mayer fought his best and that he was knocked out.

With the commission upholding Dixon's contract, it is a certainty that the boxer will be paid.

Mack stated today that Dixon has been barred from all future Argonne A. A. shows.

Signing of Sharkey Contracts Delayed

The actual signing of the contracts for the Jack Sharkey-Primo Carnera bout, originally scheduled for next Monday in New York, have been postponed for a week on account of the fact Primo will be in this city at that time for a stage appearance at the Old Howard. The contracts will be signed the following week. The match is all set to be staged at Ebbets Field, Brooklyn, on June 10, under the direction of Jimmy Johnston.

The Illinois Madison Square Garden Corporation says it will go to court in an effort to halt the match. Johnston and Carnera are prepared for such a move and believe they will show that the contract the Illinois Garden holds with Carnera is inequitable.

Bibber McCoy will receive an opportunity to step into the big money in the wrestling game when he clashes with Gus Sonnenberg in a finish bout, best two falls out of three, at the Arena on next Thursday night. Sonnenberg is still the best card in the wrestling game so far as New England is concerned. If McCoy can conquer the former Dartmouth star, he will be in line for matches with Strangler Lewis and Ed George.

Fights Last Night

By the Associated Press.

New York—Joe Bamsby, Binghamton, N. Y., outpointed Wilbur Ellis, Los Angeles (10).

Clinton, Ia.—Battling Burner, Lost Nation, Ia., outpointed Johnny Moran, Jackson, Mich. (10).

Greenbay, Wis.—Harry Dudinsky, Chicago, knocked out Young Pendin Wallet, Detroit (3).

Ottumwa, Ia.—Glen Camp, Kewanee, Ill., outpointed Slick Jenick, Newton, Ia. (6).

Chicago—Jimmy Leudy, Chicago, outpointed Joe Lyon, Chicago (8).

San Francisco—Battling Bozier, Wichita, Kan., outpointed Pendin Wallet, Trenton, N. J. (10).

Denver, Col.—"Handy Andy" Callahan, Lawrence, Mass., outpointed Mickey Cohen, Denver (10).

San Diego, Cal.—Carrie Cobb, San Diego, stopped Johnny De Marco, Boston (3).

'WHISKERS' ON GARDEN CARD

Ray Fabiani, matchmaker of the Boston Garden, has completed his card for next Friday night. Besides the championship bout between Jim Londos, the Greek Adonis, and Sergei Kalmikoff, the Siberian Whiskery, there will be an all-star supporting card of five bouts.

The semifinal will bring together Tiny Roebuck, the Haskell Indian, and Hans Steinke, the German Oak, who refused a chance to meet Kalmikoff that might have landed him a bout with Londos.

This will be a 30-minute limit bout to a decision. Hans has only appeared at the Garden once, and that was at the last show there, when he earned the award over Rudy Dusek in a 45-minute limit bout.

YALE ADOPTS NEW RULES

New York, April 18 (AP)—The meeting between the nines of Yale and Columbia at New Haven this afternoon will be marked by the introduction of four new rules governing teams in the Eastern Intercollegiate League.

The most important of the changes is a decision that games stopped by rain before becoming either legal contests or legal ties of five innings shall be resumed at the point of their interruption and played to a finish, even though the resumption should be postponed until a later date.

Another deviation from the professional code will allow a batter in a league game to make a home run on a ball which bounds over a fence or into a stand, except when the ball leaps from the playing area into a stand or dug-out or over a fence on foul territory and parallel, in a general way, to the foul line. In the excepted instance the drive will be limited to two bases, as in the professional leagues.

The fields at Yale and Pennsylvania now are limited in certain sectors by ground rules, and these rules will remain in force. At Pennsylvania a bound or a fly into the short right field seats is to be good for the customary two bases. On Yale field at New Haven a fly into the bleacher projections in right and left fields will remain good for a home run, but a bound will be limited to two bases, as now in the case.

The new rule of the league is in full force, however, on the fields of Columbia, Cornell, Dartmouth and Princeton.

The other changes clarified the scoring rules. The pitcher is to be charged with a fielding error and receive no credit for a strike out when the third strike is wild. A runner is to receive credit for a steal when he starts prior to a battery error, and the battery error also is to be charged.

B. C. Alumni Flayed by Dartmouth Daily

Hanover, N. H., April 18—The daily Dartmouth, student publication, which assailed Mayor Curley for his refusal to permit Harvard to lend its stadium for the Dartmouth-Stanford football game next November 28, today attacked Edward A. McLaughlin, Jr., president of the Boston College Alumni Association, whom it holds responsible for Curley's actions.

McLaughlin has assumed full responsibility for the suggestions that caused Mayor Curley to prevent the Dartmouth-Stanford game from conflicting with the Boston College-Holy Cross contest, which has closed the football season in Boston for many years.

The editorial denounces commercialization in intercollegiate sport and sharply criticizes alumni interference.

"When it comes," the student editorial says, "to a case of the president of an alumni association stepping up to the mayor of a city and demanding that the mayor forbid any competition in the gate receipt industry and when the mayor for one reason or another accedes to this request, we object as strenuously as we possibly can.

"The dabbling of alumni in undergraduate concerns is bad enough, but coupled with that is this brazen admission that the motives are purely commercial. Neither Dartmouth nor Stanford are situated in Massachusetts. Holy Cross and Boston College both are, therefore, patronize the neighborhood football games.

Commercialization of Game Called Despicable

"Give them the money, regardless that an intersectional game would mean no skin off the favored colleges' noses, regardless of the fact that this game would be one of the big events of the year, or that few Dartmouth students would be able to see the game if it is refused by Boston.

"This is commercialization in its most despicable form and we trace the muddy footprints back and lay the mewling offspring of American intercollegiate sport at the door of the whipped football public in general and the Boston College Alumni Association in particular."

REVERE A. A. IS SUIT WINNER

Judge Wilford D. Gray of the equity motion session of the Superior Court yesterday declined to issue a temporary injunction on a bill in equity brought by William Alderisio and other Lynnfield inhabitants of Revere to enjoin the Revere school committee from giving the Revere A. A., a member of the Hub Twilight League, or its business manager, Clarence Myette, right to use Paul Revere Park in Ward 4 of Revere, and to enjoin the Revere A. A. from using it.

The petitioners in their bill say that as members of the Casassa Club they were assessed $200 for construction of bleachers in 1929 for the park, but the respondent members of the Revere A. A. did not contribute and that the Revere school committee has given the right to the Revere A. A. to use the park and have denied it to the petitioners.

The plaintiffs say they conducted games there for the public but that the Revere A. A. is a private enterprise. Petitioners aver the school committee has no right to grant the use of the public park for private gain.

Judge Gray declined to issue any injunction on the ground that under a statute of 1927 the school committee has the right to act as they did.

Judge Gray ordered pleadings in the case completed and that it go on the merit list of the week of April 27 for trial.

35 YEARS AFTER

A bit late for the train but not too late for the Boston Evening American photographer to catch him in action. Thirty-five years ago ARTHUR BLAKE carried the silks of the Boston A. A. in the first Marathon race ever held, the famous Marathon that featured the Olympic Games at Athens in 1896. Today Mr. Blake is the head of a big insurance business at 50 Congress st. Note his perfect distance running form. Like Johnny Walker, Arthur Blake still is going strong. Out of the game for more than a quarter of a century see how naturally the famous old runner swings into his stride. Betcha the veteran still can show his heels to some of the youngsters who will face the barrier in the big Marathon here, next Monday.

OLD TIMERS IN SOCCER TILT

Today is an off day in soccer locally, no games being scheduled. Tomorrow and Monday the boosters will be operating all over New England in league and cup competitions, with an old-timers' contest thrown in.

The Oakcock eleven plays at New Bedford today and Brooklyn will be at Pawtucket in American League fixtures.

Tomorrow the feature event will be the old-timers' game at Fore River Field, Quincy, a benefit affair, in which the participants will be elevens representing Fore River and Charlestown of other days.

A Boston and District League match which is creating a lot of interest will be settled at Roslindale tomorrow when the Bescon A. C. and Norwegians come together.

Jamaica Track Opens Up Today

New York, April 18 (AP)—Horse racing returns to New York today with the opening of a 32-day meeting at Jamaica in Long Island.

The Paumonok Handicap, feature of the opening day's program, has drawn a field of a dozen fine sprinters, including the 1930 winner, Bateau II, owned by Mrs. Graham Fair Vanderbilt.

Other entries include Chestnut Oak, Judge Schilling, Finite, Makatam, Caruso, Commuter, Sir Johren, Condescend, Maya, Protrector and Grattan.

Wrestling Results

By the Associated Press.

Holyoke, Mass.—Bob (Bibber) McCoy, 125, defeated Aly Kaplan, 218, straight falls in 36:00 and 14:06.

Youngstown—Kasha Pall, Turkish heavyweight, defeated Ball Montana, Hollywood, two out of three: Montana 17 minutes, Pall 8:06 and 8:00.

Cleveland—Jim Londos, 220, defeated George Zaharias, Pueblo, Col., 208, in two straight falls, 37:39 and 4:00.

RECORD ENTRY IN PURE SHOW

There will be a record number of amateur boxers in action at the Irish-American A. C. tourney Monday night at the Arena. Classes include 135, 147, 160 and 175 pounds and heavyweight open and 160 and 175 pounds and heavyweight novice. It is the first time in local ring history that two heavyweight divisions have been fought out at one tourney.

Some of the best of the open and novice 175 pound boys include Al Grayson, Boston; Eddie Papp, Revere; John Morris, Boston; Pat O'Hanlon, Hyde Park; Frank Wilson, Everett; Byron Theall, Norwood; Howard Range, North Easton; Al Conno, Watertown; Joe Foley, Lynn; Roger Olmer, Somerville; Bert Dinsmore, Everett; Gene Sarasen, Lowell; and Oscar Lanling, Bedford.

Outstanding among the 160 pound boys, both novice and open, are Johnny Green, South Boston; Dan Sullivan, Watertown; Gordon Hathaway, Quincy; Jimmy Parakas, Lowell; Cy Sweeney, Dorchester; Lawrence Grant, Lowell; Bobby Mack, South Boston; John Handrahan, Brookline; Charley Randall, East Boston; Paul Adams, New Bedford; Matt Feeney, South Boston; and Joe Sweeney, Dorchester.

Browns' Shortstop Going Big Guns

St. Louis, April 18 (AP)—"Lightning Jim" Levey, the St. Louis Browns' new shortstop, heralded as a whale of a fielder but almost a total loss as a batter, today owned the most impressive batting record of any of the Brown regulars.

And his fielding in the first three games of the American League race has been as good as his most ardent boosters predicted. In 12 times at bat, Levey has made seven hits, for an average of .583.

Commercialization of Game Called Despicable

"Give them the money, regardless that an intersectional game would mean no skin off the favored colleges' noses, regardless of the fact that this game would be one of the big events of the year, or that few Dartmouth students would be able to see the game if it is refused by Boston.

"This is commercialization in its most despicable form and we trace the muddy footprints back and lay the mewling offspring of American intercollegiate sport at the door of the whipped football public in general and the Boston College Alumni Association in particular."

Pinchot Vetoes Bill for 15-Round Bouts

Harrisburg, Pa., April 18—Governor Pinchot today vetoed the bill of Representative Nathaniel E. Jaffe, Philadelphia, providing for 15-round professional championship bouts in Pennsylvania instead of the 10-round limit now permitted.

"In my judgment," Governor Pinchot said in his veto announcement, "10 rounds are sufficient to establish superiority in any boxing match. Tunney won the championship of the world from Dempsey in Philadelphia in a 10-round bout . . . Moreover, boxing matches prolonged to 15 rounds may, and often do, result in beating men up to the point of brutality."

Father-Son Duel in Race Today

New York, April 18—Richard J. Glendon will send out his Columbia varsity eight to row 2¼ miles against the Naval Academy crew, coached by his father, Richard A. Glendon today.

Today's encounter will be the 14th dual contest between the two crews in a rivalry stretching back to 1855, with the count standing seven to six in favor of the Navy. Columbia has won the last two encounters, however, the 1929 and 1930 races, and has won five of the last six.

McCoy Is Winner Over Abe Kaplan

Holyoke, April 18—"Bibber" McCoy, ex-Holy Cross football player, threw Abe Kaplan twice to take the Valley Arena's wrestling feature last night.

McCoy scored with a flying tackle at 35 minutes. He tossed Kaplan a second time 14 minutes later, using crotch hold and body slam.

Harry Maniaus of Springfield gained the only fall in a 45-minute semifinal with Del Delong of Canada.

BRAVES CLOSE SERIES WITH BROOKLYN TODAY

GIANTS PLAY TRIBE HERE TOMORROW

By JOE CASHMAN

John Joseph McGraw, last of the absolute monarchs in big league managerial ranks, brings his 29th annual edition of the New York Giants to town tomorrow to entertain our gallop-ing Braves.

The New York entry is not rated very highly this season, but like every aggregation the Little Napoleon has ever placed on the field, it is smart, courageous and colorful and greatly feared by every opponent in the circuit.

It doesn't appear to possess the all-around strength to beat out such clubs as the Cardinals, Cubs and Robins, who conclude a four-game series with the Braves this p. m., but with a manager who has finished out of the first division only three times since 1903, it certainly can't be counted out of the running at this early date.

And none of the rival pilots is counting it out. They all know John Joseph too well to place much faith in the predictions that the club won't be at or near the top when the campaign ends.

McGraw's system of using his players like so many pawns to play the game as he and not they think best and always ruling them with an iron hand was common when he first became boss of the club.

Baseball and baseball players have changed a lot during the passing years and that system has long since been discarded by all other managers.

McGraw, though, is as strong for it as ever, despite the claims of his critics that he will never produce another winner until he adopts more modern managerial methods.

McGraw Rated as World's Greatest Pilot

There may be something to those claims, but McGraw in his 28 years on the job has established an unquestioned claim to the title of world's greatest manager and he can't be blamed for sticking to the system that brought him so much success.

He has won three world's championships, ten National League pennants, finished second 11 times, third four times, fourth once, fifth once and eighth once.

Is it any wonder that the mere mention of the the Giants send shivers of fear up and down the spines of enemy players?

With two exceptions, the Little Master will tomorrow field against the Braves the same team that finished third in the National League race last season.

Freddie Lindstrom, regular third sacker of the club for several years, is now playing the outfield in place of Walter Roettger, who was sent to the Reds, and Johnny Vergez, a youngster from Oakland, Cal., is holding down the hot corner.

The first announcement that Lindstrom, regarded as the greatest third baseman in the game, would be sent to the outfield to make room for a rookie was laughed at, but McGraw, always a gambler, went through with it and the shift promises to either make or break his ball cub this year.

McGraw Confident New Hurlers Will Help

Lack of one more good pitcher and one more classy outfielder cost the club the championship a year back. McGraw is confident that one of his several kid pitchers will give him the extra mound strength he needs and that Lindstrom will fill the bill in the outfield if Verges makes the grade.

Bill Terry, champion batsman last year, is still on first and Hughie Critz, veteran of fields of second baseman, is guarding the second sack once more with Shortstop Travis Jackson. Lindstrom's mates in the outfield are Mel Ott and Fred Leach.

Flowers, Donahue, Hubell, Walker, Pruett and Genewich are still regular starting pitchers and "Dinty" Hogan and Bob O'Farrell the regular catchers.

And sitting on the bench is a complete nine almost as strong as the starting lineup.

As we said before, the Giants aren't considered as strong as some other clubs in the league, including the Robins, but it's a good bet that they will cause the Braves a lot more trouble than your Uncle Robbie's crew has in the current series at the Tribe, and nobody realizes this any more than the Tribe.

Braves Close Series With Robins Today

The three straight wins which the natives have scored over the Robins have made the very cocky, and they are looking forward to making a clean sweep over the Brooklyn entry by winning this p. m. and then taking the edge in the engagement with the New Yorkers, but they don't think they expect to have a much tougher time with the Giants than they have had with the Robins.

In the final tilt with Brooklyn, Manager Bill McKechnie will shoot Old Tom Zachary, who was knocked out in the first inning of the opener back to the hill, while the enemy will rely on Ralph Phelps to give them their first win of the season.

The Tribal righthanders will get their chance in the games with the Giants, the first of which will be played tomorrow, the second on Monday morning, starting at 10:30, the third on Monday afternoon and the fourth on Tuesday.

BOOM! BOOM! RABBIT BALL'S DEATH EXAGGERATED!

WHOOOO?
HERE LIES THE BALL OF 1931 IT IS VERY DEAD! SIGNED THE MAGNATES
"DON'T MIND ME, MR FIELDER, I'M DEAD."
"OKAY, SO AM I."
CHLOROFORM
NOT THAT IT WILL MAKE A PARTICLE OF DIFFERENCE EITHER WAY TO SOME OF THE BOYS WHO RIDE THE RANGE WAY OUT THAR.
BEHIND THE SCENES AT THE BALL PARK—PUTTING THE NEW BALLS TO BED FOR THE NIGHT.
THERE'LL BE FEW BARE-HANDED STOPS THIS YEAR, IT IS PREDICTED. THE POST-MORTEM BITE OF THAT BALL IS SUPPOSED TO BE POISON.
KAYO TORTONI DOES NOT BELIEVE IN GHOSTS, BUT ANY BODY WHO WANTS THAT CHIEF MOURNER'S JOB CAN HAVE IT, FOR HERS.

RISKO HERE FOR LEVINSKY BOUT

By RINGSIDE

Johnny Risko, Cleveland heavyweight, says he will upset the dope and crash through with a victory when he meets King Levinsky in a ten-round bout at an Argonne A. A. show at the Arena on next Tuesday night.

Risko has established training quarters at Kelley & Hayes' Gym. He planned to work out there today, tomorrow and Monday.

Johnny says the fact most people figure he is going to lose to Levinsky is why he is so confident he will win.

"Just when the boys begin to count me out, I always come through with a victory," said the Cleveland warrior.

George Pavelick of Cleveland has been signed to meet Unknown Winston of Waterbury in the eight-round semi-final. Winston stopped Steve Gorman here the other night.

In the prelims, Johnny Hanlon tackles Bob Sarno, Gus Brown opposes Joe Gainor, Nick DeBellis tackles Johnny Walker, Chris De Rosa takes on Ad Zachow, while Jerry Dupre mingles with Eddie Brisco.

Zeramby and Suggs in Salem Bout

Jake Zeramby, flashy Lynn lightweight, and Sonny Suggs of Newport, are ready for their ten-round bout at the Salem A. A. in Salem on Monday night. Zeramby has won his last four starts and is confident he will also add Suggs to his list of victims.

In the last start at Salem, Suggs disposed of Newport Johnny Brown. Sonny is a brother of the famous Chick, and is of the opinion he will win from Zeramby.

Bat Silva will feature North Shore boxers in his preliminaries.

BASEBALL

National League

STANDING OF THE CLUBS

	Won	Lost	P.C.
BOSTON	3	0	1.000
St. Louis	3	0	1.000
Chicago	3	0	1.000
New York	1	2	.333
Philadelphia	1	2	.333
Pittsburgh	1	2	.333
Brooklyn	0	3	.000
Cincinnati	0	3	.000

GAMES TODAY
Brooklyn at Boston—2 p. m.
New York at Philadelphia.
St. Louis at Chicago.
Pittsburgh at Cincinnati.

NATIONAL LEAGUE RESULTS
At Chicago

	R.	H.	E.
Pittsburg	0 1 0 0 0 0 0 3 1	4	13 1
Chicago	0 0 0 0 1 2 0 0 0	3	9 1

Wood, Bednar and Hemsley; Bush, Sweetland, Smith and Hartnett.
St. Louis at Cincinnati, postponed, wet grounds.
(Only games scheduled.)

American League

STANDING OF THE CLUBS

	Won	Lost	P.C.
New York	3	0	1.000
St. Louis	2	1	.667
Washington	2	1	.667
Cleveland	2	1	.667
Chicago	1	2	.333
Detroit	1	2	.333
Philadelphia	1	2	.333
BOSTON	0	3	.000

GAMES TODAY
Boston at New York.
Philadelphia at Washington.
Chicago at Cleveland.
Detroit at St. Louis.

AMERICAN LEAGUE RESULTS
(No games scheduled.)

"Rabbit Ball" Still Lives

"Toll the ball for lovely Neil, last night she died," the magnates wailed before the teams went South for spring training. "The Rabbit Ball is dead.

If the rabbit ball is dead its ghost is walking.

Here it is the fourth day of the season and already 23 home runs and a whole flock of doubles and triples have bounced off the bats. Chuck Klein has hammered out three homers and Ruth, Gehrig, Hartnett, Herman, Stone and our own Wilson of the Braves, and Berry and Stillwart of the Red Sox have lifted the old apple high and dry over the fences.

No wonder your old sweetie, K. O. Tortoni, queries:

"Who said ghosts dont talk? Why, this one is roaring! This ghost isn't moaning. It has wings."

The death of the rabbit ball certainly was grossly exaggerated.

G. C.

Twixt Tee and Cup

By BILL GRIMES

Perley Crosby, who was the runner up to Bill Blaney in the New England amateur championships at the Nashua Country Club three years ago, is destined to be warmly welcomed by the owners of driving ranges this season. Crosby has invented a tee for ranges which will greatly speed up the playing.

Crosby's new device consists of a composition mat, which is set in the ground, in which is inserted a stationary rubber tee. It is one of the most practical inventions introduced into golf since the wooden and celluloid tees first appeared.

According to a notice from Jack Shea, the Kernwood C. C. professional, Tom Dean, the pride of Myopia, has jacked up the the fish wagon and is again actively engaged in golf.

Frank Mahan, one of the famous Brookline Mahans, will return to Crawford Notch, N. H., this season. Although comparatively a new comer to the professional ranks, Frank Mahan is a very capable instructor and made a most favorable impression on members of the White Mountain course.

Frank McNamara—and the McNamaras are as well known in Brookline as the Mahans—has opened his 20th season as professional at the Cohasset Country Club.

Jim Hendry, the veteran [illegible] chester, N. H., professional, who devotes most of his time during the off season to collecting medallions, is priming himself for the opening N. E. P. G. O. tournament at Norfolk, two weeks from Monday.

Willie Ogg, Jr., son of the Worcester C. C. professional, will also be watching this season. Young Ogg was a sensation last year, which was his first in competitive golf and it is a safe prediction that he is going places in golf.

As yet, Burt Nicoll, the professional at the Belmont Spring Country Club, has not signed to coach the Harvard golf team. Harvard is anxious to secure Nicoll's services and all that is necessary to close the deal is the sanction of the Belmont Spring C. C.

Since the Sandy Burr course has been opened, the members have been restricted to the playing of nine holes but seven more will be put in commission today. The sixth and seventh holes will not be played, the ground is frozen [illegible]

BERMUDA BOAT WINS RACE CUP

Hamilton, Bermuda, April 18—The Achilles, sailed by Edon Trimingham, won the royal Bermuda Yacht Club trophy by winning the fourth and last race of the six meter series between the United States and Bermuda.

The Bermuda boat finished with a total of 21 points, five more than the Viking, owned by the Trott Syndicate and sailed by Kenneth F. Trimingham. Two American boats tied for third place with 14 points —B. S. Cunningham's Lucy and Robert Meyer's Bob Kat 2d.

The Bob Kat, which won yesterday's race and drew to within two points of the Achilles, again was favored by the heavy weather, but was withdrawn after fouling the first marker on the second round. The American craft was in an excellent position up to that time and was outreaching all the other boats. Lloyd Jones' sea venture, of the Bermuda team, split a sail before the race and did not start.

Runs for the Week

AMERICAN LEAGUE

	R.	H.	E.	W.	L.	P.	G. B.
Boston	4	8	0	1	0	1.000	1
Cleveland	4	8	1	0	0	.000	1
Chicago	3	6	0	0	0	.000	1
Detroit	3	6	0	0	0	.000	1
New York	3	6	0	0	0	.000	1
Philadelphia	3	6	0	0	0	.000	1
St. Louis	3	6	0	0	0	.000	1
Washington	3	6	0	0	0	.000	1

NATIONAL LEAGUE
Leader for the day—Chicago.
Low—Pittsburgh.

	R.	H.	E.	W.	L.	P.	G. B.
BOSTON	4	8	0	1	0	1.000	1
Brooklyn	4	8	0	1	0	1.000	1
Chicago	4	8	0	1	0	1.000	1
Cincinnati	4	8	0	1	0	1.000	1
New York	4	8	0	1	0	1.000	1
Pittsburg	4	8	0	1	0	1.000	1
St. Louis	4	8	0	1	0	1.000	1
Philadelphia	4	8	0	1	0	1.000	1

No game.

The domestic help problem is solved by making a kitchenette apartment and the bees are advertised for, in response [illegible] Camera.

SOX PURCHASE S. A. PLAYER

A third baseman, who batted .345 for the Birmingham club of the Southern Association in 1930 yesterday cost the Boston Red Sox $10,000.

The announcement of the purchase of U. H. Pickering from the New York Giants was made late yesterday by Sec. Hy Mason. It is expected that Pickering will oust Jack Rothrock from his place in the Red Sox infield in today's game in New York.

Results of Soccer Games Abroad

London, April 18 (AP)—Football games played in the British Isles today resulted as follows:

ENGLISH LEAGUE—SECOND DIVISION
Barnsley 3, Nottingham Forest 1; Bradford City 0, Millwall 0; Bristol City 3, Tottenham Hotspurs 1; Bury 1, Southampton 0; Cardiff City 0, Preston North End 0; Charlton Athletic 1, Oldham Athletic 1; Everton 3, Burnley 1; Plymouth Argyle 3, Reading 1; Port Vale 0, Stoke City 0; Swansea Town 1, Wolverhampton Wanderers 1; West Bromwich Albion 1, Bradford 1.

ENGLISH LEAGUE—FIRST DIVISION
Arsenal 3, Liverpool 1; Birmingham 2, Sheffield Wednesday 0; Blackburn Rovers 4, Huddersfield 3; Blackpool 1, Huddersfield Town 1; Derby County 6, Manchester United 1; Leeds United 0, Aston Villa 2; Leicester City 3, Newcastle United 1; Manchester City 1, West Ham United 1; Portsmouth 1, Sutton Wanderers 0; Sunderland 2, Chelsea 0.

ENGLISH LEAGUE—THIRD DIVISION
—NORTHERN SECTION
Darlington 1, Accrington Stanley 1; Doncaster Rovers 2, Carlisle United 0; Gateshead 2, Tranmere Rovers 0; Halifax Town 1, Rochdale 0; Hartlepools United 1, Chesterfield 0; Hull City 3, New York 1; Lincoln City 1, Rotherham United 5; Nelson 1, Southport 1; New Brighton 3, Crewe Alexandra 3; Stockport County 2, Wrexham 1; Walsall 3, Barrow 1.

ENGLISH LEAGUE—THIRD DIVISION
—SOUTHERN SECTION
Bournemouth and Boscombe Athl. 3, Reading 0; Clapton Orient 3, Luton Town 2; Coventry City 0, Brighton and Hove Albion 0; Fulham 5, Torquay United 0; Norwich City 4, Newport County 1; Notts County 1, South End United 1; Queens Park Rangers 1, Gillingham 0; Swindon Town 3, Northampton Town 1; Thames 1, Bristol Rovers 0; Walsall 3, Exeter City 1; Watford 0, Crystal Palace 2.

SCOTTISH LEAGUE—FIRST DIVISION
Aberdeen 8, Clyde 1; Ayr United 2, St. Mirren 1; Airdrie 1, Cowdenbeath 1; Motherwell 0; East Fife 5, Queens Park 1; Dundee United 2, Hamilton Acad. 1; Kilmarnock 5, Morton 0; Hearts 1, Patrick Thistle 2; Leith Athletic 3, Dundee 0; Rangers 1, Hibernian 0.

SCOTTISH LEAGUE—SECOND DIVISION
Albion Rovers 2, Kings Park 4; Clydebank 1, Third Lanark 2; Dumbarton 0, St. Bernards 3; Dundee United 6, Dunfermline Athletic 1, Queen of South 1; East Stirlingshire 1, Raith Rovers 1; Forfar 3, Johnstone 2; Stenhousemuir 3, Arbroath 1; Third Lanark 3, Alloa 0.

Today's Scratches

LEXINGTON SCRATCHES

1—Wristlet, Miss Ida, Charming Queen, Annette B, Sun Beany, Boiling Water, Ross W.

3—Leslie Lee, Smiling Moon, Doreen Princess, Precious Ann, Verity, Ballot, Ady Superior, Princess Nancy.

4—Super Toy, Broker.

5—Martha Jones, Gold Step, Laughing Boy, Patricia Marian.

6—Bill Tell, Colstown.

Weather, clear; track, fast.

HAVRE DE GRACE SCRATCHES

2—Thistle Coot, Grey Gull, Sun Mets, Incolagy.

3—Vishnu, Wild Kitty, Surf Bather, Towee, Bright Bird.

5—Berbee.

7—Glenno, Hot Brush.

Weather clear; track fast.

JAMAICA SCRATCHES

1—Angry Plume, Caplin, Morheart.

3—Gildella, High Test, Single Star.

5—June Moon, Dea, Friar Bacon.

6—Finite, Mokatam.

8—Night Edition, Urgency, Eagle Eye, Zodan, Reminiscence.

BAUSCH LEADS IN DECATHLON

Lawrence, Kan., April 18 (AP)—Wilson (Buster) Charles, National A. A. U. decathlon champion, was forced to divide first place honors with James A. (Jarring Jim) Bausch, former University of Kansas athlete, at the end of eight events in the decathlon at the Kansas relays here today.

By a one-sided victory in the pole vault, Bausch gained a slight lead in points.

Bausch captured first place in the 110 meter high hurdles, the discus and the pole vault today, while Charles, Oneida Indian of Haskell Institute, was able to do no better than place third in the hurdles and discus and fourth in the pole vault.

In the initial five events yesterday, the Indian took first in the 100 and 400-meter races, the broad jump and the high jump, bettering his own marks in winning the national title last year. Bausch, representing the Kansas City Athletic Club, won the shot-put yesterday.

Curtis Beaver of Haskell dropped out of the competition today, reducing the field to five in the decathlon, a Missouri Valley A. A. U. event held in connection with the relays.

EAGLES AND B. U. CLASH AT HEIGHTS

Lineup at Heights

Boston College		B. U.
Spognardi, ss		Gumbright, ss
Crowley, 3b		Olsen, 2b
Colbert, c		Wilson, 3b
Temple, lf		Rass, rf
Reagen, rf		Berghitsi, 1b
Chesnulevich, 2b		McCollough, lf
Mechan, 1b		Semino, cf
Shea, cf		Junkins, c
Herman, p		Weafer, p

Game starts at 3 o'clock.
Umpires: George Grimm and William O'Connor.

Boston College will face Boston University at University Heights this afternoon at 3 o'clock in the opening game of the current season. Coach Frank McCrehan in his first year as head coach of baseball at the Heights is putting on the field one of the strongest teams the Eagles have had in the last few years.

The Eagles have practically a veteran outfit from the top of the batting order to the bottom. Led by Capt. George Colbert, two years ago intercollegiate batting champion and last season runner-up for the title, the Eagles present a bold front.

Everything seems to point to a Maroon and Gold victory. Everything except the fact that Coach Jon Gilmore of Boston University intends to start in the box his finest pitcher, Buck Weafer, whom he has been saving for the past week for the affair with the Eagles.

Today's battle promises to be a close affair from beginning to end for Coach McCrehan is also starting his best moundsman, Pete Herman, a year ago the Eagles and the Terriers played a great game at Riverside, the latter's new stadium. The game went some 14 or 15 innings with the score tied, 5-5, before it was called of because of darkness.

Wood to Try Again for Speed Record

Miami Beach, Fla., April 18—Gar Wood said he would be ready within two weeks to renew attempts to wrest the world's motorboat speed record of 109.49 miles an hour from Kaye Don of England.

The Detroit sportsman's best two-way average in his attempt Wednesday to break the record exceeded by .813 miles an hour the former American record of 102.266, also set by Wood.

Wood said he would condition the Miss America IX, improving the bottom and overhauling the two 12 cylinder engines.

Ouimet, Guilford Leaders at Woodland

Francis Ouimet and Jesse Guilford will lead two of the teams entered in the team match play at the Woodland golf course Monday. Guilford and Ouimet's teams will start at 2:04 Monday afternoon, a short time after the marathon runners race past the golf club.

There are 15 pairs on each team and there are valuable prizes for the winners. Losers in the matches must pay for the dinners of the victors.

Farmed Out

Philadelphia, Pa.—Pitcher George Snider, one of the rookies of the world champions' pitching staff, has been farmed out to the Harrisburg Senators of the NYP League.

RACING ENTRIES

Havre de Grace Entries

FOR MONDAY, APRIL 20

FIRST RACE—$1200, maiden, two-year-olds, four and one-half furlongs (12): Single Fly 113, Jaffa 113, cMonkton 116, Lily Bat 113, aTarquin 116, bThubron 113, Ambrosia 113, Sunbeamie 116, aMajor General 116, cTuschard 113, Annie A 113, Gay Stella 113, Chairmoor 116.

a-G. L. Snyder & M. H. Brewster entry. b-H. C. Bedwell entry. c-L. E. Keifer entry.

SECOND RACE—$1200, claiming, three-year-olds, six furlongs (18): xAshduston 113, xLight Nun 104, Jon Adsy 116, Vice 109, xHe Royal 115, xHarvina 109, xJudge General 116, cTuschard 113, Annie A 113, Gay Stella 113, Chairmoor 116.

a-G. L. Snyder & M. H. Brewster entry. b-H. C. Bedwell entry. c-L. E. Keifer entry.

SECOND RACE—$1200, claiming, three-year-olds, six furlongs (18): xAshduston 113, xLight Nun 104, Jon Adsy 116, Vice 109, xHe Royal 115, xHarvina 109, xJudge 109, Fully Fully 109, xNoisy Miss 104, xAshford Inn 109, Unusual 109.

THIRD RACE—$1200, claiming, three-year-olds and up, three-quarter mile (9): Holmby 113, Chicboy 118, Rikd 112, Lisonjero 107, Sunbeamie 113, aBlind 108, aCurioso 103, Ima Queen 111, Coin Collector 113.

FOURTH RACE—$1500, four-year-olds and up, one and seventy sixteenths (8): Bon Hunter 104, Binks Patricia 101, aMiss Ann 101, William T. 110, Cedar Glass 105, Bon Fresco 104.

FIFTH RACE—$1600, three-year-olds and up, one mile and seventy yards (7): Dunn Deal 108, Bonnie Bird 104, Cavel Jr. 108, Durva 101, Mytheer 109, Jay Broom 106, Great Gun 108.

SIXTH RACE—$1200, claiming, three-year-olds and up, one mile and seventy yards (7): xTalented Prince 109, Lord Hal 104, Cedar Glass 105, xCamp Fenny 105, Added Aura 116, Sally Fires 103, xDeep Dive 109, Rose Ann 103.

SEVENTH RACE—$1200, claiming, three-year-olds and up, one mile and a furlong (8): Foxy Knight 110, xSixty-Odds 104, xBig Stepper 105, xBitsy 109, xFair Mercury 109, Buddha 110, xDanty Lad 107, Nose Mover 105, xHayes Choice 105, Pleasant 110, xJohn Robert 105, xReform 108, xIntrepid 105, Calletsburg 110, Standish Beaver 110, xOttila 104, Griffin 110, xMedgeriece 105.

x—Apprentice allowance claimed.

Lexington Entries

Monday, April 20

FIRST RACE—Four furlongs, $800, 2-year-olds, two-year-olds, maiden, claiming entries (15): Big Blue 114, Grand Duc 114, Jimmie 116, Ace Point 116, Bill Bonham 116, Triple Threat 116, Kilgore 116, xPrince Leon 116, Bonbonnie 116, xMiss Thistle Dick 116, Zeno 116, xPrince Tommy 116, Mad Dancer 116, Bill Tel 116, Adrian 116. x-J. Lotter entry.

SECOND RACE—Four furlongs, $800, 2-year-olds, two-year-old fillies (11): Thrasher 110, Mercandise 116, Leslie Lee 116, Our First 113, Fit In 113, Transfer 113, Fancy Fingers 110, xMoving On 110, xJuxtaposition 110, Choice Caller 116, Mary Ann 113, Sister's Wish 110.

THIRD RACE—One and one-sixteenth miles, $800, 3-year-olds and up, claiming, three-year-olds and up (9): Grassic Dust 116, Maiden Dear 110, Holy Cross, Lost Honey 110, xLight Air 110, xLady With 110, xMiss Ann 110, xTransgression 106.

FOURTH RACE—Mile and seventy yards, $800, 3-year-olds and up, claiming (7): Gold Bug 110, xPrince Shine 105, Vesta 113, xKlonker Shine 105, Vesta 113, xCurioso 103, Ima Queen 111, Coin Collector 113.

FIFTH RACE—$850, 3-year-olds and up, claiming, one mile and seventy yards (8): Hey Hey 112, Pinnburner 112, Sunship 112, Sir Jack 112, Weather 110, Rich Tommy 112, Fitzgerald 112, Friars Rest 112, xLady Ann 107, Sir Bill 112, xMiss Ann 107, xTransgression 107.

SIXTH RACE—Four furlongs, $800, 3-year-olds and up, claiming (12): Miss Ida 110, Brooks 110, xMiss Thistle Dick 110, xDistance 110, Arthur's Lass 110, Annette Cole 110, xMiss Ann 110, xTransgression 110, Lucky Lee 110, Sister's Wish 110, xMoving On 110, xJuxtaposition 110, Choice Caller 116, Mary Ann 113, xLady Ann 107.

SEVENTH RACE—One mile and seventy yards, $800, 3-year-olds and up, claiming (9): Anthro 112, xNoha Play 107, xMiss Pete Lee 107, Talking Boy 107, xMiss Ann 107, Greenwad 112, xMissions 103, Tara 112, xLady Jewel 102.

BRAVES FIELD

Tom'w at 3 P. M.

BRAVES VS. NEW YORK

Tickets at Horner Partridge and Braves Field

OVER 200 IN B. A. A. RUN

PICK DE MAR TO CAPTURE CLASSIC

By BILL CONNELL.

An army of more than 200 sturdy athletes will make their yearly bid for fame when they pound away from the Hopkinton starting line of the Boston Athletic Association Marathon on Monday at noon.

A great field is lined up for the classic race. Old favorites, Clarence De Mar, Willie Kyronen, Carl Linder, Johnny Miles and others, are on edge.

A flock of unknowns, who have trained as faithfully as their rivals of world-wide repute are set for the scramble. When the winner pads up to the B. A. A. clubhouse ens of these dark horses may have shuffled his way out of small type and into the front page headlines.

So many are the experienced runners in this year's race, however, that the odds favor heavily ons of the better known racers.

Four former winners are entered: Clarence De Mar, seven times winner; Bill Kennedy of New York, victor in 1917; Carl Linder of the B. A. A., who won in 1919, and Johnny Miles of Canada '25 and '29 conqueror.

De Mar Favored to Capture Classic

By reason of his seven victories in the Boston race, six of them within the last nine years, Clarence De Mar is the individual favorite to capture the winning medal and the first plate of lamb stew, at the B. A. A. clubhouse on Monday P. M.

De Mar, formerly of Melrose, but now a teacher of typography at the Keene Normal school of Keene, N. H., is in his usual splend d condition. Thrice each week he has jogged long distances, all through the winter, near his Keene home.

Wearing lightly the burden of his 43 years, De Mar wants his eighth victory in the B. A. A. run, and he may get it. Many of the fans have been waiting for Clarence to fold up as a marathoner, or to drop back into the ruck in the long races.

De Mar has fooled them all up to now, and thousands of sports followers are hoping Clarence again will give the laugh to Father Time.

Another popular entry in the race is Jimmy Henigan of Medford. Smiling Jimmy, his lined face ever wrinkled into a tired grin while he runs, has been in the B. A. A. marathon win through a couple of decades of distance running.

Years ago Jimmy he led the pack on Patriots' Day for half the distance, only to tie up and watch others overcome his early lead, over the long hills of Newton. In 1928 Henigan surprised all by finishing a good second to De Mar. The following year Henigan did not take a front place, but last year he was eighth. This may be his year.

Linder to Represent B. A. A. in Race

The B. A. A. has one of its own club runners in the race, Carl Linder. Carl has been running Marathons for 15 years. A winner of the B. A. A. race in 1919 and near the front in most of the races since. Linder is capable of winning his second Marathon medal.

Johnny Miles, winner in 1926 and 1929, is fit. Johnny slumped a bit in the interval between the first and second wins and last year the best he could get was fifth place. An in and outer, Miles may be "in" again Monday afternoon when the shuffle concludes.

Bill Kennedy, New York bricklayer, who won in 1917, must be expected to finish well up. Kennedy generally is near the front of the file and Bricklayer Bill is one of the popular contest at midnight tonight, as far as receiving answers is concerned.

And on Tuesday next the winners of tickets to the third and fourth games of the Sox-Yanks engagement will be announced on these pages.

A list of the others who are capable of finishing well to the front, judging by their records, would include about a quarter of the entries, but here are a few who should make good the competition.

Willie Kyronen of New York, second to De Mar last year; Karl Koski, also of Gotham; Ira Dix, 30; Gordon Norman of Malden, 11th in '30; Bert Wyer of Canada, winner of numerous Marathons other than the B. A. A. race; Jack Cuthbert of Guelph, Ont., winner of the recent Toronto Marathon; and Frank Cerny of Pittsburgh, winner of the recent Pittsburgh Press Marathon; Whitey Michelson, winner of the recent Jersey Marathon.

Soccer

TODAY

Hakoah vs. New Bedford at New Bedford.
Brooklyn vs. Pawtucket at Pawtucket.

TOMORROW

Fore River vs. Charlestown (Old Timers) at Quincy.
Clan Stewart vs. Swedish Americans at Sullivan sq.
Boston Rangers vs. Dorchester Waverly at Franklin Field.
Corinthians vs. Lawrence at Lawrence.
Clan McGregor vs. Stoughton at Stoughton.
Kearns A. C. vs. Norwegians at Roslindale.
Morgans vs. Scandinavians at Worcester.
Olympics vs. Worcester Wonders at Worcester.
Fellow Bedford vs. Fall River at Thornton.
N. Y. Giants vs. Brooklyn at Brooklyn.
Falcons vs. Newark at Newark.

Boston Evening American Baseball Album

WALTER JAMES MARANVILLE.

Braves' shortstop.
Born Springfield, Nov. 11, 1892.
Height, 5 feet 5 inches.
Weight, 155 pounds.
Bats and throws right handed.
The Rabbit has been in the major leagues longer than any other player now active in the game.
He was purchased from the New Bedford club of the New England League by the Cubs in 1913 for $1000 and a pitcher and has been in the big show ever since, except in 1927, when he was with Rochester in the International League, which means that he is now serving his 19th season in fast company.
Considered far too small to make the grade when he first reported, he won a regular berth as soon as he was seen in action and within two years he was considered as one of the greatest shortstops of all time.
He remained in Boston until 1920, when he was sold to Pittsburgh, where he played until 1925, when he was sold to the Chicago Cubs.
In mid-season of that year he was made manager of the club and a few weeks later was sent to Brooklyn on waivers.
He received his unconditional release from the Robins at the close of that season and was signed by Rochester.
The St. Louis Cardinals brought him back to the big leagues late in 1928 campaign and he helped the club win a pennant the next year. He returned to the Braves at the start of the 1929 campaign.
He hit for .231 last year, which is 17 points higher than his average for 19 years.
He led all the shortstops with a mark of .965, making 343 putouts, 446 assists and 28 errors. He also took part in 96 double plays.
The Rabbit is married and now claims Rochester, N. Y., as his home.

Miss Madison Is Star of Swim Meet

New York, April 18—Helene Madison, speed marvel from the west coast, helped the Washington Athletic Club of Seattle to stay in the race with the Women's Swimming Association of New York in the battle for team honors in the women's national championships.

At the close of the second night's events of the four-day tournament, the New York mermaids were leading the field with 18 points, followed by the Seattle club, with 16. Los Angeles Athletic Club held third place with 10 points.

A great anchor race by Miss Madison provided the Seattle naiads with a victory in the 400-yard relay, their time was 4:24 2-5, five seconds slower than the world mark.

Trailing in third place when she took over the burden at the end of 300 yards, the 17-year-old coast sensation, rudely overtook the leaders, passed her last competitor within 50 yards of the finish and won with a yard to spare. Her time for the 100 was 1:01 3-5. Considerably slower than the world record but sufficient to outstrip tonight's field.

The women's Swimming Association of New York, which led for the first three laps, finished second, with the Los Angeles Athletic Club quartet third. Helen Hendry, who did the first lap for the New York team, was not capable of holding her lead after Miss Madison hit the water. The girl who holds some 15 world marks pulled away with a powerful stroke.

Local Fan Is Winner of Limerick Prize

PRIZE WINNING LIMERICK NO. 6
Submitted by William Quinlan, 6 Colonial ave., Newtonville.

There once was a slugger, forsooth,
Who was hailed, this large Mister Ruth,
As the greatest of all,
For the fans he'd enthrall
UNLESS THE PITCHER WAS MISS FLAMING YOUTH!

SECOND PRIZE WINNER
Donald Stuart, 37 Vine st., Middleboro.

OTHER PRIZE WINNERS
Thomas Curley, 385 Cornell st., Roslindale.
James Corbett, 106 Pleasant st., Dorchester.
Gerald A. Conway, 10 Homer st., Everett.
"Ky" Twomsley, 249 River st., Mattapan.
Billy McGowan, 674 Second st., South Boston.
Howard Peabody, 20 Churchill pl., East Lynn.

BY THE LIMERICK EDITOR

If at first you don't succeed, try, try again.

That's the motto of William Quinlan of Newton, who submitted the best answer to test No. 6 in the Boston Evening American's Limerick Contest.

The Garden City fan, if we remember rightly, sent in several answers to each of the first four tests in the contest. All of those efforts were creditable, but just failed to put him in the money.

That didn't discourage him a bit.

He started all over again when the limericks for tickets to the Sox game appeared.

Yesterday he grabbed off one ticket to the opening game between the Sox and New York Yankees at Fenway Park, next Wednesday, and today he was right out and wins four seats for the second game of that series.

He sent in no less than seven answers to the Ruth limerick and the other six were almost as good as his best line.

Contest Will Close at Midnight Tonight

His certainly deserves the prize which he has won.

Eight grandstand tickets, as well as a pair to Donald Stuart of Middleboro, second-prize winner, and one to each of the other six winners, are being mailed today.

The contest will close tonight at midnight tonight, as far as receiving answers is concerned.

And on Tuesday next the winners of tickets to the third and fourth games of the Sox-Yanks engagement will be announced on these pages.

Bruins Sign Another Portland Player

Dave Downie, another member of the Portland club of the Pacific Coast Hockey League, has been signed by the Bruins. Downie, one of the smallest players in organized hockey, plays either point or left wing and is a right-handed shot.

The other two members of the Portland Buckaroos who have been purchased by the Bruins are Joe McGarrigle, defenseman, and Maitland "Red" Conn, left winger.

English Crushes So. Boston, 21-2

Boston English high swamped South Boston high, 21 to 2, at Healy playground, Roslindale, yesterday. The Blue and Blue scored five runs in the first and eighth innings and tallied in all but two frames.

Norfolk Y.M.A. Holds Novice Race Monday

The Norfolk Young Men's Association of Roxbury will stage its sixth annual three-mile road race on Monday starting at 10 a. m. The race starts and finishes at the Norfolk House, 14 John Elliot sq., Roxbury.

HUSKIES LOSE TO SPRINGFIELD

Springfield, April 18—Springfield College's varsity track team opened its season here this afternoon with a victory over Northeastern University of Boston, 76 1-6 to 55 5-6. Springfield won eight events, setting one eastern intercollegiate record, tying another and breaking three local marks.

Phil Grout set the intercollegiate mark in the high hurdles. His time was 15.5. F. A. Cooley's 12 feet 3¾ inches equalled the intercollegiate pole vault standard. W. B. Simonson set the third local record at 134 feet 6½ inches in the hammer throw.

GOOD GOLF

BY CHESTER HORTON
Golf's Greatest Teacher

The back swing need not at all involve the bewildering perplexities that commonly are associated with it. It is simplicity itself and the very simplicity of it is well worth working for. Such things as "slow back and upright swing or flat swing are hardly involved — at least not yet. Learn to forward press your right elbow slightly, making it wholly an elbow forward press rather than a forward shove of your body, then draw your left arm directly toward your right hip, and the action from that point can safely be depended on to take care of itself. You may find that you get along well without dipping your hands slightly as the club opens up and swings around. You can make up your own mind as to that. The main thing is to get the beginning action blended with the right leg fulcrum principle, which means merely a stiffened resisting right leg. Put the two together and you have a back swing which requires the minimum of understanding effort. The less you have to understand the better you will get along. The woes of golf prove it.

(Copyright, John F. Dille Co.)

VICEROY GIVEN BIG FAREWELL IN INDIA

Bombay, April 18 (AP)—Lord Irwin, retiring viceroy of India, was given an impressive farewell by British and Indian residents here today as he sailed for London.

Among those who saw him off was the Mahatma Gandhi.

"I shall see you in London at the second round table conference," were the parting words of Lord Irwin to the Nationalist leader.

Gandhi smiled broadly as he answered:

"It is in God's hands."

Lord Irwin and Lady Irwin drove in an open auto to wend through the streets of Bombay to the gateway of India, eliciting here and there cheers from Bombay's highly Nationalist population which gathered to watch.

Lord Willingdon took the oath of office later in the day. Willingdon formerly was governor of Bombay Presidency and Madras. More recently he was governor-general of Canada.

Here's an Ocean Mark That Will Stand

Belfast, Ireland, April 18 (AP)—Capt. Andrew Hamilton has crossed the Irish Sea 18,000 times. He won fame as a shipping fleet 30 years ago and is commander of the new queen of the fleet, the Princess Margaret, largest of the Ulsters atlantic liner on a small scale.

Schumann-Heink to Return to Opera

New York, April 18 (AP)—Ernestine Schumann-Heink, who will be 70 years old in June, has accepted an offer to sing with the Metropolitan opera next season, reviving her Wagner roles.

By Percival Christopher Wren, Author of MYSTERIOUS WAYE
BEAU GESTE
BEAU IDEAL

SYNOPSIS: When the wife of the wealthy John Waye St. Clair leaves him, his consolation is their daughter Rosemary, but their happy life together is interrupted by her abduction, and Waye pledges his fortune and life to recover her and trap the crooks. After turning over to them his famed "Hide-and-Seek mond, "The Unsetting Sun," and $1,000,000 in smaller gems, he pilots the treasure-ship, with the name "Jimmy!" shouted in terror before she dies, remains as a clue. The better to track the fiends responsible Waye takes a suicide, but lives on as an underworld character known as John Waye, once night, while prowling about S——, where he had gone to track a rumor of a kidnaping, Waye stumbles over the body of a man who had been robbed, and is felled from the rear by a terrific blow.

CHAPTER 29
WAYE'S HAND SLANDERED
THE THIEF? Had he returned in search of further loot, to see whether his victim were dead or not, to recover something incriminating that he had dropped?

Or had he perhaps seen me kneeling by the body, and, fearing that I had seen sufficient of him to be able to identify him, had returned to silence me?

Might he have turned about and fr— d me with a view to robbing me as he had robbed this unfortunate old man?

Very improbable, as I certainly did not look like a person who might be worth robbing—dressed as I was for the part that I was playing.

These thoughts flashed through my mind as I rose to my feet face—b— iolicemen who, club in hand, stood menacingly glaring. his other hand, presumably the pistol that protruded from its open holster.

"Put 'em up," he growled, "and . . ."

I put one up like lightning, straight from my hip to the point of his jaw, and even as the tremendous blow went home, I realized that in my sudden wrath I had committed the most foolish act of my life.

Struck Down

No judge would believe my story that the policeman had struck me first, struck me down without a word.

Nor, even if the policeman had admitted it, would he have been severely blamed for adopting that method of arresting what he supposed to be a murderer—a highway robber, caught in the very act of examining with wet bloodstained hands the pockets he had so violently and brutally stolen.

No, I had made an awkward position for myself, and about as dangerous as it could be. Had I meekly accepted the situation I might possibly have been able to prove that I was not the thief and murderer, or, failing that, I might perhaps have been given the benefit of the doubt—at any rate, to the extent of a lighter sentence.

But in the most unfortunate and suspicious circumstances to the world, I had acted in the most foolish way—by my own act confirming the suspicions.

Why should an innocent man resist arrest, and with such desperate violence?

My blood boiled at the thought that I had been betrayed by this ruffianly policeman's illegal violence into doing that which would send me to prison, and so interfere with my life's business, of tracking down Rosemary's murderers.

As the policeman drew his pistol, I struck again with all my strength; and even as I did so, again blamed myself for what I was doing.

But now, reason told me that if I could disable the man and get away, I might yet track down the pair in which fate and my folly had enmeshed me.

All this had flashed through my mind in the time it takes to deliver a couple of swift blows.

My first had put the policeman staggering back, probably a little dazed and shaken. My second knocked him down but not out.

Kicked at Pistol

I now rushed, and kicked with all my strength—not at the prostrate man's head or body, but at the hand that grasped the pistol. This I sent flying, and, as the policeman struggled to his knees, his feet. I aimed another blow at the point of his jaw. This he partly dodged, partly met a spiteful clip with his left, and swung up his club to brain me as I staggered.

Ducking, I sprang in, flung my arms about him, and heavily we fell together to the ground.

Suddenly by a kind of mutual consent we released holds and scrambled to our feet. Instantly I struck, and again I got in a heavy blow before his club whirled up. Then the club fell, and, as it did so, I raised my almost useless left arm to protect my head while I delivered a tremendous drive that was to finish the fight.

Almost simultaneously we struck, and as my left arm broke, so did the policeman's jaw. As I staggered back, he dropped without a sound, and lay like a sack of flour, inert and motionless.

Drawing a deep breath, I stepped back, turned, and sprinted, thankful beyond measure that no sound of pursuit or hue-and-cry came. But oy thankfulness was premature.

Scarcely was I well into my stride before there was a loud bang.

A heavy blow struck my leg and I stumbled.

Another bang and a searing, tearing pain passed through my chest, and I fell to the ground.

Again a third bang, and I felt as though a sledge-hammer had hit me on the head.

The policeman had won, after all, by a legitimate feint.

Shot Thrice

Guessing that I would instantly turn, he had lain and in wait my back was turned. He had then sprung to where the pistol lay, and had shot me thrice.

I had had no compunction about hitting him as hard and as often as I could, in return for the cowardly blow he had struck me with his club, but I felt little with my back turned to him: and he now had equally little compunction about shooting me in the head twice, with all his strength, as I lay wounded and bleeding upon the ground.

"You make a move," he growled, "and I'll give you another bullet just where it'll do you most good, Mr. Thug."

I made no reply, for I was fast losing consciousness, and believed that I was dying—dying in bitter anger at the thought that Rosemary's murderer would now go unpunished.

I have a dim remembrance of being roughly dragged along the ground, and dropped beneath the lamp-post beside the body of the murdered man.

(Copyright, 1931, Frederick A. Stokes Co.)

Waye's assumed name becomes only a nuisance Tuesday. But even stone walls, bars and nightmares can't quench his thirst for vengeance.

HERE AND THERE AMONG THE CHURCHES

Dr. J. Whitcomb Brougher will speak tomorrow morning on "Simon says Wit-Wag"—or "Men of Influence." In the evening he will begin a series of sermons on "Lop-Sided People, or Peculiar People." April 26 there will be an address on "Lop-Sided People."

In addition to the Sunday night sermon, Dr. Brougher will answer the following questions tomorrow:

1. Why are there so many suicides and murders?

2. Will prohibition produce another political party?

3. Do women talk more than men?

Clifford Kemp, director of music, has arranged a great musical program for both services. At the morning hour Mrs. Blanche Loyd McMillan, Ellsworth D. Blanchard and Arthur L. Morse will sing "Praise Ye" (from "Attila") by Verdi, and there also will be two brilliant anthems by the great choir. In the evening Mr. Blanchard will sing "Come Unto Him," and there will be special numbers by the choir and quartet. The evening service will be a great song wide-awake congregational singing, led by Rev. I. W. Williamson, with Mr. Kemp at the organ.

DR. S. A. ELIOT

A Patriot Day sermon will be preached tomorrow morning in the Arlington St. Church on "The Hazards of Freedom." Dr. Eliot will contend that the fighting for freedom is still going on among the people of this country. He will speak of perils that confront civil and religious liberty. He will depict the reactionary forces, prejudices and usurpations that make the fight for freedom an unending task.

The musical ministry, under the direction of Mr. Thompson Stone, will provide the following appropriate anthems for the service: "Give Peace in Our Time, O Lord," Scott, and "God of Our Fathers," by De Koven. The prelude, played by Mr. William Sala, the organist, will be Franco's stirring "Biece Heroique."

The Intercollegiate group will continue their study and discussion of Wells-Huxley-Wells new publication, "The Science of Life." These meetings are open to all young people attending colleges in Greater Boston area. They are held in the clubroom of the church whose entrance is on Berkeley st., Boylston st., lower door. A buffet supper is served at 6:30, followed by a presentation of the subject and informal discussion.

Canadian Club at Dudley Baptist

Among others who appear at the Dudley St. Baptist Church tomorrow will be the well-known actor and athlete, Clarence DeMar, who will speak to the congregation on "Christian Sportsmanship." Monday he will demonstrate his thesis by joining in the great historic Marathon run.

In the morning the Canadian Club will hold its annual memorial service with Prof. Roy Davis, president of the club, delivering a welcome. Dr. Arthur Brooks, the regular minister of this church, will preach on "Is There Life After Death?"

In the evening an "All-American" service will be held at 7:30. Dr. Brooks will talk on "The Midnight Ride of Paul Revere." Patriotic musical selections to be rendered are:

CATHOLIC ITEMS
RADIO PERIOD

Program for tomorrow:

Speaker, Rev. Stephen Sweeney, C. P., St. Gabriel's Monastery, Brighton.

Subject, "The Ninth and Tenth Commandments."

Question Box—Rev. Michael J. Ahern, S. J.

TOTAL ABSTINENCE

St. Mary's Total Abstinence and Benevolent Society of Brookline, and St. Mary's Ladies' Total Abstinence Society of the same town conducted a joint meeting on last Monday evening in St. Mary's Hall, Harvard st., Brookline.

There was a large attendance of members of each society at the meeting. President James A. Shuban presided. Reports were submitted by various members and committees of the societies.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

Mass will be offered for the Society of St. Vincent de Paul of Boston on Sunday, April 19, at the Cathedral of the Holy Cross, at 5 o'clock.

PAROCHIAL INCREASE.

A total of 2,216,000 pupils attended Catholic elementary schools throughout the United States in the school year ended June, 1930, the department of education of the National Catholic Welfare Conference is able to estimate from reports from diocesan school authorities now on hand.

WINTHROP.

Winthrop Court, No. 287, M. C. O. F., one of the younger courts of the order, will hold a whist and bridge party, as well as food sale, on Wednesday evening, April 22, at St. John's parish hall, Lincoln st., Winthrop.

ONE ACT PLAY

The Guild of the Infant Saviour is to have a one-act play, "Sweethearts in Song" followed by a bridge party, at the Hotel Statler on Saturday, April 25, at 2:00 p. m.

CHURCHES

Lay Preacher

Mr. Clarence De Mar, who will run in the Marathon race Monday, will address a noon meeting at the Dudley Street Church tomorrow on Christian Sportsmanship.

PARK STREET INCREASE 200

Well over two hundred men and women have joined Dr. A. Z. Conrad's congregation through the radio. Listeners are invited to become paid members of the Radio Congregation, with contributio of $5 each. This enlarged parish of the Park Street Church extends all the way from New Jersey to New Foundland. Not many of the deep sea fishermen have as yet sent in their membership, although many a Grand Banks fishing schooner tunes in to the Park st. service.

"God Has a Way of Putting Over His Program," is a theme about which Dr. Conrad will preach tomorrow morning. In the evening his topic is "Vigilance and Valor in the Next Event."

On Wednesday evening the Park Street Church Women's club will hold their regular yearly banquet. The club membership is about three hundred.

School of Ageless Wisdom Challenges

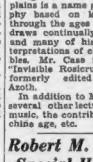
Slowly and by degrees, Paul Foster Case, son of a Congregational minister has built up an educational and religious institution which he terms the School of Ageless Wisdom. It is located on the corner of Newbury and Gloucester sts., in the Back Bay. The house has been made as artistic and home like as interior decorators could make it. Students and worshippers who attend the Sunday lectures and courses during the week of study come first out of curiosity and stay to imbibe the unique and inspirational philosophy taught. This school is incorporated under the laws of Massachusetts.

"Ageless Wisdom" Mr. Case explains is a name given to a philosophy based on knowledge gained through the ages by experience. He draws continually upon, the Bible and many of his lectures are interpretations of chapters and parables. Mr. Case is the author of "Invisible Rosicrucian Order," formerly edited the magazine Aroth.

In addition to Mr. Case there are several other lecturers, dealing with music, the contributions of the machine age, etc.

Robert M. LaFollette Special Honor Guest

Ford Hall closes this coming Wednesday with a banquet and social evening. Many friends of the forum who may not attend the regular Sunday evening lectures will be present as the Hon. John Jay Ish. Mr. George Coleman Il preside and a few short talks will be called for preceding the special guest, Senator Robert M. LaFollette.



Sen. LaFollette

While the forum has passed a successful season, it has not closed its year with a large balance in funds, and welcomes contributions from any of its friends.

Doctrine of the Atonement

All Christian Science churches will consider tomorrow the "Doctrine of Atonement," which constitutes the subject for the lesson-sermon.

The Golden Text is: "He sent redemption unto His people: He hath commanded His covenant forever: holy and reverend is His name" (Psalms 111:9).

Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible: "We then, as workers together with Him, beseech you also that ye receive not the grace of God in vain. (For He saith, I have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succoured thee: behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation.)" (II Corinthians 6:1, 2).

BAPTISTS AND LUTHERANS GAIN

Dr. G. L. Kieffer, church statistician for the Christian Herald, in his annual report finds that the churches in the United States have gained in actual membership during 1930, 88,350. Analysis of these statistics is not encouraging for most Protestant denominations with the exception of the Baptists and Lutherans. The Baptists, he writes, gained in 1930, 74,705, and the Lutherans 56,180. Methodists are down as having lost in the same year 43,317. Presbyterians 22,763. Episcopals show a gain of 16,532. On the other hand the doctor finds that there were in 1930 more church members for every 25 citizens. This is a distinct gain over 1830, when there were two church members for every 75 inhabitants.

All details have been settled and the program completed for Unitarian Conference Week and the annual May meetings for that denomination in Boston, Miss Jane Addams of Chicago, and Dr. Cummings Chicago, will deliver the Ware lecture.

A representative of the "largest liberal church in the world," according to the Christian Register, will come here from the Philippine Islands in the person of Archbishop Gregorio Aglipay, accompanied by one of his bishops, and will give the greetings of the independent church of the far away islands. This archbishop was at one time a leader of the Filipino insurgents with Aguinaldo. The anniversary sermon will be preached by the Rev. Arthur L. Agnew of Belfast, Ireland. An unusually large attendance is predicted.

BAPTIST

Tremont Temple
"Church of Good Cheer"
Dr. Brougher
10:45 a. m. "WHO—Men of Influence."
Church School 9:30 a. m. C. E. 6:30 p. m.
7:00 p. m. "Lopsided People" First sermon of series.
1. Why are there so many suicides and murders?
2. Will prohibition produce another political party?
3. Do women talk more than men?
Music
Morning: Great Choir and Anthems. Night: Tenor Solo, Quartet and Chorus. Evening Service Congregational Singing. Clifford Kemp, Director.

DUDLEY ST. BAPTIST
(Ringing Church) At Dudley St. at Station. Canadian Club Memorial Service. 10:30, PASTOR BROOKS, "IS THERE LIFE AFTER DEATH?" 7:30 Concerts Male Quartet: Jr. Chorus. 7:30 Noon. CLARIONET DR. MAN HEAR HIM!! SEE HIM!!! 7:15 P. M. GREAT CALL & SERVICE. 7:30 P. M. Big "Sing" by 1,000, Believers' Baptist Patriotic Service. All Star Adult Chorus, Mixed Quartet, Soloists, Orchestra. "Is There Life After Death?" the American Plan; SERMON: THE MIDNIGHT RIDE OF PAUL REVERE." Come early for a seat.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH
Commonwealth Ave. at Clarendon St.
10:00 A. M. Public Worship and Sermon by Dr. Harold Marshall.
7:30 P. M. Public Worship and Gospel preaching. Dr. Harold Marshall.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

THE FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST
The Mother Church, Falmouth, Norway and St. Paul Sts., Boston. Sunday services at 10:45 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. Wednesday evening at 7:45.
Subject of Lesson-Sermon
"DOCTRINE OF ATONEMENT"
Testimonial Meeting every Wednesday evening at 7:30.

COMMUNITY CHURCH SERVICES

The School of Ageless Wisdom
279 Newbury St.
Sunday at 7:30
Paul Foster Case
April 19th—8 P. M.

CONGREGATIONAL

Park St. Church
(PARK AND TREMONT STS.)
DR. CONRAD Preaching
Broadcast from WHDH
10:30 A. M.
"God has a way of Putting over His Program"

EPISCOPAL

CHURCH OF THE ADVENT
Brimmer St. at the Corner of Hancock
Holy Communion 7:30 and 8:15 A. M. Young People's Mass at 9:30 A. M. Church School 9:30 A. M. Solemn High Mass and Sermon at 11 A. M. Evening Service Evensong and Sermon by the Rector 7:30 P. M.

SPIRITUALISM

UNITY CHURCH—REV. F. A. WIGGS
BOSTON HALL, 284 Huntington Ave.
At 7:30 the pastor, Rev. F. A. Wiggs, D. D., will conduct the twenty minutes space
Healing & Self-Evident Truths
To will be demonstrated that seeming sickness and suffering are untruths and that all necessary truths are self-evident and self-proved.
Convincing Spirit Message Service who, forbear, and many in the audience will receive a message.
Public

UNITARIAN

Arlington St. Church
Boylston and Arlington Sts.
Arlington St. Subway
11:00 A. M. SERMON
Dr. Samuel A. Eliot
"Hazards of Freedom"
The Public is Cordially Invited

Daily Cross-Word Puzzle

HORIZONTAL

1—Distant
4—What English essayist wrote "Tales from Shakespeare," with his sister?
8 -In what manner
11—Kind of poem
12—On the sheltered side
13—Native compounds
15—Who was the famous coach of the Notre Dame football team?
17—Vex with petty faultfinding
19—Note of the musical scale
20—Young goat
21—Place
22—Sick
25—Covering for the foot
25—Insect
26—Organ of smell
27—Possess
28—What constellation is known as "the Lion"?
29—Transgress
30—Pronoun
31—Who was the famous biographer of Samuel Johnson?
33—Exclamation
35—Sink in the middle
36—What is the period of the earth's revolution on its axis?
37—Blemish
38—After what Scottish inventor was a' unit of power used in physics named?
40—Pronoun
41—What actress wrote and starred in "Diamond Lil"?
42—Beam
43—Instrument for cooling the person
44—Amusement
45—Suffix denoting the comparative degree
46—Possessed
47—What strait lies between Alaska and Siberia?
50—Obverse
52—What was the pen name of Charles Lamb?
54—Cry of the pigeon
55—At this time
56—Drunkards
57—Peculiar

VERTICAL

1—On behalf of
2—Fuss
3—Computs
4—Territory
5—Beverage
6—Myself
7—Who received the Pulitzer Prize for the poem, "John Brown's Body"?
8—wine
9—correlative of either
10—Who wrote "Tono-Bungay"?
3—offer of goods at low prices
8—supply of tools
9—Dry
5—Who is the Chancellor of the Exchequer in England?
2—Substances appearing at the poles in electrolysis
1—Who is the famous "It" girl of motion pictures?
8—Be indebted to
9—Bronze in Roman antiquity
3—Nothing
3—Piece of unshaped timber
4—Cunning
3—Stout club
3—Organ of hearing
4—Cooling Device
3—Skill in performance
8—Pig pen
7—Where are the Sierra Madre Mountains?
3—Who wrote Beau Geste?
5—Who is the first high priest mentioned in the Bible?
6—What was the Greek name for the abode of the dead?
6—Armed combat
3—Note of the musical scale
7—Beverages
6—Cut by blows with an ax
6—Seized with the teeth
5—Incline the head
6—Deity
5—Towards
5—Behold

Herewith is the solution to yesterday's puzzle.

Copyright, 1931, Boston Evening American

Births

FORBES—To Mr. and Mrs. John M. Forbes, at Orlando, Fla., April 3, a daughter.

Deaths

BEACH—At Norwell, April 16, Arnold V. Beach, in his 54th year, Services at his late home, Central St., Norwell, this day, at 2:30 p. m. Relatives and friends invited.

BRADBURY—In Kingston, April 16, Allen H. Bradbury, aged 73 years. Funeral services from the Baptist Church, Kingston, on Sunday, April 19, at 2 p. m. Committal services in Buxton, Me., on Monday, April 20, at 3 p. m.

BREEN—In South Boston, by accident, April 15, Evelyn G., 4 years, dearly beloved child of John and Helen (Ahern) Breen. Funeral from parents' home, 324 Athens St., Saturday, April 18, at 2 o'clock. Relatives and friends invited. Burial at St. Joseph's.

BRENNAN—In Charlestown, April 15, Helen, beloved child of Patrick and Mary Brennan (nee Hartina). Funeral from parents' residence, 5A Homestead Pl., Saturday, April 18, at 2 p. m. Relatives and friends kindly invited to attend.

CALLAHAN—In Roslindale, April 15, William J., beloved husband of Anna M. (Kidduff) Callahan. Funeral from his late home, 34 Silvermine Ave., Monday, April 20, at 8 a. m. High mass of requiem at the Sacred Heart Church at 9 o'clock. Relatives and friends invited.

CANE—In Somerville, April 16, Mary M. Carr. Funeral on Saturday morning from her late home, 29 Cedar St. High mass of requiem at 9. Solemn high mass at St. Catherine's Church at 10 o'clock. Relatives and friends kindly invited. Please omit flowers.

CASLETTO—In East Boston, April 15, Angela (nee Marino), beloved wife of Giuseppe Casletto. Funeral from her late residence, 181 London St., Saturday, April 18, at 8 a. m., thence to Immaculate Conception Church at 10 a. m. Interment at the Mt. Carmel Church at 10 a. m. Relatives and friends invited.

CHRISTIANSEN—In Belmont, April 15, Hans Christensen of Copenhagen, Denmark. Services at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Ingeborg Andersen, 66 Oxford Ave., on Saturday at 2 p. m. Relatives and friends kindly invited.

COLA—In Norwalk, Ct., April 15, Frank M., son of the late Victor and Mary E. Cola, aged 23 years. Funeral from the residence Horsham, Interment at Norwalk, Ct., Saturday, April 18.

CUMMINGS—By accident, Leslie J. Cummings, aged 22, late of 103 Pope St., East Boston. Funeral from Walton Bros.' Chapel, 966 Saratoga St., Monday, April 20, at 2 p. m. Interment at Glenwood Cemetery.

DOWSE—In Cambridge, April 15, Aaron Coolidge Dowse, in his 82d year. Funeral services at Pilgrim Congregational Church, Shepard and Sherman Sts., at 2 p. m. Please omit flowers.

FINEGAN—In Dorchester, April 16, James F. Finegan, beloved husband of Margaret A. Kevenny, formerly of the West End. Funeral from his late residence, 15 Ida St., Dorchester, on Monday, at 8:30 a. m. Requiem mass Monday at 9 at St. Peter's Church. Relatives and friends invited. Funeral services of the Old Keanoke S. of A. Club.

FITZPATRICK—In Dorchester, April 15, Patrick Fitzpatrick, aged 74 years. Funeral from home of his brother, Thomas W. Fitzpatrick, 37 Cushing Ave., Dorchester, on April 18, at 9 a. m. High mass of requiem at St. Peter's Church at 10 o'clock.

GARCAGNE—In Winchester, April 16, Alice M., widow of Herbert L. Garcagne, aged 59 years. Services from the residence of her son, Herbert L. Garcagne, 34 Chase St., Reading, Sunday, April 19, at 2:30 p. m.

HOBBS—At Cambridge, April 16, Bruce Hobbs, formerly of 99 Pierce Ave. Services at Woodlawn Cemetery Chapel on Saturday, April 18, at 2:30 p. m. Relatives and friends invited.

HUNTER—In Roxbury, April 16, David H., husband of Annie E. Hunter, 277 Belgrade Ave. Services private. Interment Calvary Cemetery.

KELLY—At Islip, N. Y., April 15, Edward Joseph, beloved husband of Mary E. John H. Logue, 1383 Washington St., Boston, Saturday, April 18, at 9:30 a. m. Service at 10 in Cathedral Chapel, Union Park St. Relatives and friends invited.

LEE—Frank E. Lee, formerly of Somerville, suddenly, April 16, at his residence in East Derry, April 16. Friends and relatives are invited to the services Saturday, at 12 o'clock, at his late residence. Interment in Hancock, N. H.

McLAUGHLIN—In this city, April 16, suddenly, John D. McLaughlin, husband of Harriett McLaughlin. Funeral from his late residence, 76 Dana Ave., Sunday, at 8:30 a. m., thence to Church of the Holy Cross, Malden, on Saturday morning at 10:30 o'clock.

MAHONEY—In this city, April 13, Gertrude M. (nee Fitzsimmons), wife of Joseph F. Mahoney. Funeral from the home of her sister, Mrs. Anna Kane, 196 Bellevue St., Dorchester, on Saturday morning at 9 a. m. Requiem mass at the Church of the Holy Cross at 9:45. Relatives and friends invited.

MORRILL—In Alston, April 16, Edward H. Morrill, in his 65th year. Funeral services at his late residence, 8 Cambridge St., Allston, Saturday, April 18, at 3 p. m.

POLKOWSKI—In this city, April 16, Anthony Polkowski, age 58 years. Funeral services will be held in the Church in Dedham, Saturday, April 18, at 10 a. m.

REID—In East Boston, April 14, James Reid, husband of Bessie Reid, aged 70 years, 119 Lexington St., East Boston. Services Sunday, April 19, at 2 p. m., at the Funeral Home, 300 Meridian St., East Boston. Relatives and friends are invited to attend. Interment private.

RICHARDSON—In Roxbury, April 16, Harriet E., widow of George A. Richardson, aged 84 years. Services from the residence of Ezekiel Bessom Funeral Home, Main St., Reading, Mass., Monday, April 20, at 2:30 p. m.

ROYCE—In Boston, April 13, Robert Royal of 219 High St., Charlestown, in his 74th year. Funeral services from G. M. Allen's Funeral Parlors, 1 Thompson St., Charlestown, this day, April 18, at 2:30 p. m. Friends invited.

SAGGIANO—In Revere, April 15, Marcia L., beloved wife of Domenic Saggiano (nee De Loca), of 26 Sheats St., North Revere. Funeral from the above late residence, Mrs. Michelina Rapino, 9 Chelsea St., Revere, Saturday, April 18, at 12:30 p. m. Benediction at St. Leonard's Church at 1 o'clock. Interment at 3:30 p. m. Relatives and friends kindly invited to attend.

SAUNDERS—In Hyde Park, April 16, Elizabeth Hardwood, wife of the late William Melbourne Saunders, in her 87th year. Funeral services will be held in the Christ Church, Hyde Park, Saturday, April 18, at 2:30 p. m. Interment private.

SELLARS—At Stoughton, April 16, William S. Sellars. Funeral services at the home, 29 Holbrook St., Stoughton, Saturday, April 18, at 2 p. m. Relatives and friends invited to attend.

SOUZA—In Somerville, April 16, Mary Souza, beloved daughter of Manuel and Mary Souza, 5 Sandusky St., North End, Boston, beloved wife of Manuel C. Souza, aged 29 years. Funeral from 59 Cameron Ave., Sunday, April 19, at 2 p. m., thence to St. Joseph's Church, Cambridge, at 1:30 o'clock. Requiem high mass at the Church at 2 o'clock. Relatives and friends invited to attend.

STEVENS—At Melrose Highlands, April 16, Cecil F., son of the late Frederick and Jessie Stevens. Funeral services will be held from his home, 569 Franklin St., Melrose Highlands, Sunday, April 19, at 2:30 p. m.

WENZLER—In Charlestown, April 16, George, husband of Catherine H. Wenzler. Services at his late residence, 81 Washington St., Saturday, April 18, at 2:30. Relatives and friends invited.

SULLIVAN—In Charlestown, April 15, Nora Sullivan (nee Murphy), beloved wife of the late James Sullivan, formerly of 59 Main St. Funeral from St. Mary's Church, Saturday, April 18, at 10:45 a. m. Requiem high mass at the Cathedral of the Holy Cross at 11:15 a. m. Relatives and friends invited to attend.

Birth—Marriage—Death Notices

In this column $1.00 for the first four lines or less, $.25 each additional line. Notices may be mailed to the Classified Dept., or telephoned to Liberty 6000.

Monuments

THEO. J. CRAIG, Monuments
2075 Spring. 178 Water St., Quincy, Mass.

Funeral Directors

J. S. Waterman & Sons
Funeral Directors
497 Commonwealth Ave., Boston

Lost and Found

FOUND BY POLICE

German shepherd female dog; lady's brown leather handbag; man's blue overcoat; female Boston Terrier, tan; Miss Atlas, Liberty 6000.

BLACK SCOTTIE LOST

At Conasset, April 4, call black male Scottie puppy name "Sporin." Finder please call Conasset 0384 or Chelsea 0384. Reward.

BRACELET lost, diamonds and appeal attachment, $100 reward. William T. Wetmore, Hancock 2159 or Regent 4622.

GOLD BEAD BRACELET—Lost Monday, April 13, Jackson Rd., Somerville, to Harvard Sq. Car. Finder please call Howard. Som. 4096.

LOST—April 15, gold watch, silver 105 between Tremont, College St., Embury and Norumbega Park. Finder please call Columbia 0402. Suitable reward.

Deaths

ADAMS—In Jamaica Plain, April 15, Charles F. Adams, in his 59th year. Funeral services at his late residence, 21 Myrtle St., on Saturday, April 18, at 2:30 p. m. Relatives and friends are invited.

REAL ESTATE

Lots for Sale

BUILDING LAND

577 feet, fronting on Main St., at the Melrose and Wakefield lines, containing 30,626 square feet; room for five cottages or one family mansion; $4500 cash required. Apply to S. S. Porter, 462 Main St., Melrose. Mass. Tel. Melrose 0092; evenings Melrose 2813.

Farms and Land for Sale

EQUIPPED FARMS—Business chance; catalog free. Strout Agency, 51339, Old South Bldg., Boston, Mass. Lib. 7126.

Houses for Rent

ALLSTON—For rent, 6-room house, 25 Barrows St.; immediate occupancy. Tel. 2696.

DORCHESTER—Wellington Hill, 8-room single, modern, 2-car garage, reasonable. Hil. 3002.

HOUSE, 8 rooms, 12 minutes Park St., $35, fitted, unfurnished residential section, near schools, park; garage available. University 1123.

Rooms for Housekeeping

ALLSTON—Front room, private family, kitchen privileges; parking space; reasonable. Regent 1133.

BATAVIA ST., 13-15—Housekeeping rooms, $6.50 and $7 per week. Tel. Hancock 9044.

CAMBRIDGE—Nicely furnished room; large kitchen and pantry; business couple, $30. Bran. Ave. Suite 4, 2072-R, mornings-evenings.

CAMBRIDGE—Large sunny, furnished, double, square room with conveniences; reasonable. Tro. 8135.

DORCHESTER, 2653 Dorchester Ave.—6 unfurnished rooms, all imptg.; reasonable. Adams 0400.

DORCHESTER—Upham's Corner; 2-3 furnished housekeeping rooms; imptg.; reasonable. Dorchester 1560-M.

EAST BOSTON—3 light housekeeping rooms, furnished or unfurnished; private family. Bliss 2299.

ROXBURY, 34 Regent St.—Living room, kitchen, bath, $25. Apply to janitress, 0708.

SOMERVILLE, Near City Hall—2 nicely furnished housekeeping rooms, reasonable. Somerset 0868-W.

SOMERVILLE—2 furnished housekeeping rooms, all latest impts., reasonable. Somerset 0868-W.

SOMERVILLE—Near Sullivan Sq., 1-2 room heated, private family; reasonable. Charlestown 1560-M.

16 HYDE PARK—Parlors, squares, sides, kitchenettes, also basement suite; car space.

Rooms without Board

HOTEL ALPHIN

Near all theatres, restaurants, shops and garages; comfortable rooms with or without bath; hot and cold water and telephone in every room; 24-hour hotel service; elevator. $1.00 to $2 daily; $5-$10 by week. 331 TREMONT ST., AT BROADWAY STOP, BOSTON. HAN. 3800.

ROOSEVELT HOTEL

Rooms for Ladies and Gents
Daily, $1 Up; Weekly, $4 Up
1187 Washington St. Hub. 2005

HOTEL JEFFERSON, 357 Tremont St. Rooms, single, weekly $7 up. Dev. 5000.

JAMAICA PLAIN—Attractive small room, $3.50 week. 33 Sedgwick St.; Jam. 4641-M.

ROXBURY—56 Brook Ave., off Dudley, conn. Roxbury car. Single, $3.50; double, $5.50.

37 W. NEWTON ST.—$5, $6, $7, $8 weeks. Private baths. Tourists accommodated. 62.

Children to Board

EXPERIENCED nurse with board infant; nice American home. Tel. 2243.

WANTED—Little girl under 5 to board; best care; reasonable. Hyde Park 1206-M.

WANTED—Child over 2 years or over, 25. Near Dudley car. Tel. Roxbury 2306-M.

WANTED—Child over 2; reasonable. 2076 Dorchester Ave. Dor. 3133.

WANTED—Child over 2 years to board; American home; reasonable. Eve. 3438-R.

WANTED—Child over 2 years to board; private American home. Revere 1758-W.

Dancing

BEGINNERS
EVEN THE MOST TIMID ARE SURE TO LEARN HERE
MODEL MODERN DANCING
MISS FAWCETT—MISS HOYT
178 HUNTINGTON AVE.
Any Hunt. Sq. Car. COM. 9003
Get Off at Norway St.

EDWYN & WEIS
1 BOYLSTON ST., COR. WASHINGTON
DEVONSHIRE 8838
BALLROOM DANCING
IN THE NEW FIRST LESSON
TAP DANCING The First and Leading Studio
Teaching Broken Rhythm Real Rhythm Style

PROFESSOR PETER RITTER 177 Tremont St.
Opposite Denniston Bldg. Dennison 7330
BALLROOM DANCING LESSONS
RESULTS GUARANTEED. Every Lesson
TAP DANCING BROKEN RHYTHM
Class Every Tues. Eve. Liberty 7377.

LERNER-LESLIE (3) LESSONS
Fox Trot, Waltz, Frisco, Tango, Shag
Stage Dancing Tap, Soft-Shoe, Etc.
Class Every Tues. Eve. 8:30
Boston's Largest and Its Own Reliable School

Private Lessons $5
FLORENCE KELLY
240 HUNTINGTON AVE. COMMONWEALTH 7507

LOOMIS 95 MASS. AVE.
KENMORE 0733
10 2-HOUR LESSONS, $10
Private Lessons, Modern or Tap. Day or Eve

Barrett Bros. Rm. 511, Dev. 7549
TAP-BALLROOM Open 10 A.M.-10 P.M.

WM. H. O'BRIEN 203 Huntington Ave.
Classes Tues.-Thurs.-Sat. Tel. Com. 7334
Sat. 8 to 11 Private Les. 9 A.M. to 5 P.M.

18 PRIVATE LESSONS—UPTOWN $5
$30 Mass. Ave. Tel. Circle 1085

Help Wanted—Male

AMBITIOUS men, earn big money, boosting, waving. Plenty practice. Moler Barber College, 21 Essex St., Boston.

BUILDER—Carpenter to build garage in exchange for rent in Newton or equity in new house. Candidate must be over 40. Virginia St., Dorchester.

YOUNG man wanted for cream, Simco Sales Service, 76 Commerce St., Boston.

Agents—Salesmen

CALIFORNIA perfumed fruit cake and jelly like hot cakes. Agents coining money. Big commission. Catalog free. Mission Factory E-12, 2300 West Pico, Los Angeles, Calif.

Instruction

RADIO TRAINING

R. C. A. institutes, inc., offers complete practical radio training—day and evening classes, or you may study at your own home by home laboratory method. Free booklet upon request. 89 Broadway, Boston

Printing—Engraving

1500 80c of Each $5.00
Cards, Envelopes and Letterheads
Artcraft, 1500 Wash. St., Roxbury. Kenm. 4622

Houses for Sale

IT'S SPRING TIME AT FOREST GROVE
on MIRROR LAKE

If you wish for something out of the ordinary in a finished home site, attend this sale now. Moderate prices and easy terms as low as $2.00 weekly.

One of the most beautiful lakes in all New England, high and dry above frontage. Ideal spot to spend a Summer home. The best of boating, bathing and fishing. Giant pine and oak trees. Reservation for family parties. Swings, hammocks and lunch tables. Located in Norfolk and Wrentham, about midway between Boston and Providence, reached by the State highway (Auto Route No. 11) and NORTH STREET in Wrentham, about one mile north of Wrentham Square and one-half mile south of Weber Duck Inn. Now open for inspection, daily and Sunday, until dark.

SAY, STATE REALTY EXCHANGE, 107 TREMONT ST.
ROOM 915, BOSTON, MASS.—Phone Liberty 3566-0237

Houses for Sale

MONEY TO LOAN AT 6%

On first mortgages on one and two-family houses. Owner and occupant preferred. No commissions. Fixed title charge. Call personally with your deed and tax bill and talk it over.

WORKINGMENS CO-OPERATIVE BANK
73 CORNHILL, BOSTON, MASS.
Assets Over $21,000,000
AT THE SIGN OF THE CLOCK

HOLIDAY BARGAINS
6-family apartment, 9 separate heaters, rent $2400; income $3900 per year; price $24,000 for store property.
Single, 6 rooms, all modernized; mortgage 40,000, price $6,500.

LEONARD O. KIRSCHNER CO.
2108 Mass. Ave., University 2727

Unfurnished Apartments

UNUSUAL OFFERINGS!
8 and 6-Room Apartments
Near Peter Bent Brigham Hospital
ROXBURY
Heated—Janitor Service—Clean
$36 to $39 a Month
CALL HUBBARD 7570

FENWAY
1 AND 2-ROOM SUITES
FRICED LOW—$520 to $50
Day Reception Halls and
Unusually Large Kitchenettes
See Janitor or Manager, 30th Bldg.
31-35 Queensberry Street, Boston

APARTMENTS

110 Warren St. Allston. 2 and 3 rooms, bath, electric refrigerator, linoleum floors, screened porches, steam heat, janitor service. $40 to $50. Apply 31-35 Queensberry St., Boston.

BACK BAY
1-2-3-room apartments all modern improvements. COLEMAN & GILBERT AGENCY, 47 Huntington Ave.; Ken. 2000. Commonwealth 3212.

1 MONTH FREE RENT
East Cambridge Apartments
Attractive 4-5-room suites, electricity, gas, newly renovated, $13, $14, $16 and $20. Use 2178, mornings, 7-10 a. m.; eves., 7-9 p. m.

DORCHESTER
heated 7 rooms, all modern; janitor service. 795 Blue Hill Ave.; Tel. 4371.

ALLSTON—Attractive 5 rooms, sun parlor, frigidaire, $70. Owner, 37 Parkvale Ave.

ALLSTON—Beautiful 5 rooms, heated, corner location. 27 Long Ave. Stadium 6214.

BACK BAY—$37.5 large rooms, kitchenette, piazza, quiet house. 212 Hemenway St. Back.

BOSTON—37 Bird St., 6 large rooms with bath, newly redecorated; near Elliot St. car. $45. Kenmore 4155, 9-11 a. m.

BRIGHTON—4 rooms, latest imptg.; rent reasonable. 24 K. Swift; Jamaica 1290.

CAMBRIDGE—2-3-4-room suites, reception hall, continuous hot water, central; 10-minute; $40-$60. Janitor, 624 Cambridge St.

CAMBRIDGE—Cozy 5 rooms, modern; $45. Janitor at 1147 Mass. Ave. Car stops at door.

HOTEL JEFFERSON, 357 Tremont St. Rooms, single, weekly $7 up. Dev. 5000.

JAMAICA PLAIN—Attractive small 4-room flat, with 93 Sedgwick St.; Jam. 4641-M.

DORCHESTER—5-room apartment, large sunny rooms, fine location, near churches and car line. Genesa 2999 or Hub. 8435.

DORCHESTER—3-4 rooms, imptg., $24-$25 suite 1; 7 Templeton Way. Gra. 9279-M.

DORCHESTER—7-room apartment, $50; also 6 rooms, 80 Dracut St. Talbot 2517.

EAST SOMERVILLE—Crescent St., 6 rooms, all imptg., $25. Somerset 0868-W.

EVERETT—4 nice sunny rooms, imptg., new cars, stores, $25-$22. Everett 1290.

EVERETT—Modern 8 rooms, 28 Birch St., near Glendale Park. Malden 1363-M.

FOREST HILLS—New upper 6 rooms, sun porch, garage, $50 per mo. M. Henehan, 28 Hyde Park Ave.

HYDE PARK—6 rooms, new 2 family, $65. 153 Child St. Tel. 4105.

JAMAICA PLAIN—5 rooms, modern, reasonable. 3 Bickford St., Jamaica Plain.

MATTAPAN—6 rooms, all imptg., 2d floor, reasonable. 33 Kenebec St. Mil. 0223.

MEDFORD—Heated 6 rooms, reception hall, all imptg., reasonable. Tel. Somerset 3845.

NORTH CAMBRIDGE—Cozy 5 rooms, reception hall; near cars. $65. Porter 6726-W.

QUINCY—2 rooms, bath, $26; 5 rooms, bath, $35; 4 minutes walk to Quincy Sq. Granite 5407-R.

ROXBURY—37 Winthrop St., apartments of 5 & 6 rooms, steam heat, continuous hot water, rear piazza, all outside, dry rooms, janitor service; $50. Only families, with references. Owner on premises daily from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m.

ROXBURY and Cambridge—For colored people, 6-8 rooms, steam heat, all modern improvements; janitor service; rental $55-$60. Liberty 7377.

ROXBURY—3-room apartment, all imptg., $18 month. 136 Marcella St. Car. Hil. 4229.

ROXBURY—3 rooms, $20 mo., furnished, $5 wk.; 212 Blue Hill Ave. Dud. 4169.

ROXBURY—Basement suites, 2-3 rooms, imptg., separate entrances, $6-$10 mo. Aco. 2566.

ROXBURY—Sunny 5-room flat; including heat, gas. 32 Cedar St. High. 6806.

SOMERVILLE—7 rooms, all imptg., including steam heat; fine location, handy cars, trains; good neighborhood. 9 Somerset 5656.

SOMERVILLE—Spring Hill, 7 rooms, modern imptg., reception hall, reasonable. Somerset 0868-W.

SOMERVILLE—5 rooms, all imptg., sun porch, ready middle May, $35. Som. 0868-W.

SOUTH END—2 rooms, hot-cold water, electricity, range, $13 month. 65 Sharon St.

WARREN HILL—197 Heath St., corner 5 rooms, 3rd floor, all imptg., gas, electricity, range, $30. Brookline 1066-M.

WEST ROXBURY—5-room apartment, all modern, hot water heat; garage optional; rent for garage, $45. 247 Corey St. Jamaica Parkway 2042-W.

WEST ROXBURY—Heated 3-4-room apartments, crafters walls, beamed ceilings, fireplaces, Dutch kitchens, garages if desired; furnished and unfurnished, $40 up. Parkway 0150.

BEAUTIFUL suites, 2 and 3 rooms, electricity, bath, hot water; refrigeration. Rents $18-$20 month. Apply 64 Northfield St., Boston. Highlands 0805.

Trucking—Storage

GARAGE FOR TRUCKS

Approximately 20,000 square feet available for lease or rental, in whole or in part; entire location, 3 minutes to Haymarket Sq.; ¼ minute to Sullivan Sq. Subway station; reasonable rent. Middlesex-Rutherford Garage, Inc., 432-436 Rutherford Ave., Charlestown. Apply posts 31 & M. Yards. For information or terms see Charles A. Flynn, 18 Tremont St., Boston; Liberty 4663.

Painting—Papering

PAPER and HANGING, $5. Kalsomining $3; painting $8. H. Lubin; evenings, Ocean 2805-W.

Now Melrose 2-Family

WYOMING SECTION

All rented, good paying tenants, 5-5 rooms, all modern conveniences, steam heat, hot water, screened porches, sun parlors, heated 2-car garages, quiet pleasant neighborhood, price very reasonable. Apply Real Estate Dept., Liberty 6000, Ext. 1, or Hubbard 8800.

WEST ROXBURY

5-room modern single, $506 down, Has hot water heat, 2-car garage, $9,000. Terms. 6-room single, $600 down. Has hot water heat. New. Priced $5,500